

GLOBE ALBANY Pick of the Big Pictures SUNLAY MONDAY SEPT. 14-15 THOMAS MEIGHAN in PIED PIPER MALONE Booth Tarkington's famous story AND THEN COMES NORMA TALMAGE in SECRETS

Halsey Happenings etc. (Continued page 3)

Glen Chance was in Albany Saturday. Miss Mary La Rue went to Albany Friday. Miss Enid Veatch went to Eugene Friday. W. J. Carey of Eugene visited Halsey between trains Thursday. R. C. Barclay, auditor for the Southern Pacific, was at the depot Saturday. Lawrence Taylor and Mrs. Douglas Taylor are home from their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bramwell and Howard Terman went to Albany Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Foote drove to Junction City Sunday and spent the day with home folks.

Red Pearl went to Eugene Saturday and returned Sunday. He is planning a hunting trip after deer soon.

Misses Ida and Amanda Mitzner went to Salem, Friday and Amanda had her tonsils removed. They returned Saturday.

Voters' pamphlets, giving the measures to be voted on this fall with arguments pro and con, can be had at the postoffice.

The Methodist congregation last Sunday unanimously voted to request the conference to continue Mr. Parker as pastor here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Muller spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen near Portland.

As "Mary succeeds on Main street," so may the little hem-stitcher at 318 West Second street, Albany. See her card in the Albany directory.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Freerksen joined Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. E. Abraham at Pacific City Sunday for an outing of several days.

Miss Marie Sneed, who has been spending her vacation with home folks and at Brooten Springs, returned to her work as librarian in Seattle Saturday. She made a short stop over in Salem on the way home.

Mr. Firehau is having a structure erected at 424 Lyon street where he proposes to re-open the Albany Bakery. Forty feet of the front will be an all-hour lunch room and retail bakery and we presume the "good old five-cent loaf" will be among the eatables sold there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Bond and little son Wellington started yesterday on a six-week's trip to California and many eastern points. They expect to visit in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New York and Michigan and to see Niagara Falls, and B. M. expects to attend a bankers' convention in Chicago.

Charles Nichols, a progressive Pine Grove farmer, has recently installed an electric lighting plant and water system and is

ADLERIKA relieves sour stomach, gas, constipation, bad breath and sick headache because it removes the cause of these ailments. It is a thorough intestinal cleanser. at RINGO'S DRUG STORE soon to have a milking machine.

Fred Sylvester is putting a concrete floor in his barn.

E. E. Gormley is recovering slowly after his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Abraham spent several days at Cascadia last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Munson were business visitors in Albany Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. N. E. Chandler and daughter Agnes and Miss Helen Williams are picking hops at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Duncan and daughter returned Saturday from a week's visit in and around Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sturgis of Rex, spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Schroll.

Mrs. Frank Gansle and daughter Leila and Mrs. Adda Ringo and Doris Lake visited in Eugene Sunday afternoon.

P. A. Pebrsson has just completed a new chicken house 100 feet long to accommodate his bunch of O. A. C. White Leghorn hens.

George Workinger and Frank Workinger and their families spent Sunday afternoon with the gentlemen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Workinger.

George Maxwell and wife last week had as guests Adolph Chialvo and wife of Olympia. The later lady is Mrs. Maxwell's daughter.

Farmers, Attention!

We are in position to furnish seed and contract for

100 ACRES of Pure English Rye Grass Seed

and 100 ACRES of Pure Italian Rye Grass Seed

and pay attractive prices for the seed. Must be grown on land free of domestic rye grass.

Come in and talk it over with us when you come to Albany.

James Wright Cary of New Haven, Conn., died Sept. 3rd on the steamer enroute to Panama. Mr. Cary had been in poor health for some time. He and his wife were on their way to Los Angeles, hoping the change would benefit him. Besides his wife he leaves a son, James Freeman Cary of Boston, and a sister. Mrs. Cary is a cousin of Edwin Russ and Mrs. Russ Kneeland of Halsey.

This is cement sidewalk year in Halsey. Among those who have put them in are Clark and Wesley on Second street; the Methodist parsonage and church on Third; T. P. Patton, J. E. True and Douglas Taylor.

HALSEY GARAGE, A. E. FOOTE FISK and TIRES and EXPERT WORKMEN GATES TUBES Efficient Equipment AUTO accessories AUTO Repairing promptly done HALSEY, Oregon

Pine Grove Patters

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Eagy were Albany visitors Thursday.

Hop picking in the McLaren yard was finished Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kinkhten were Albany callers Saturday.

Mrs. Chandler, Agnes and Helen Williams are picking hops at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hover of Harrisburg visited at the E. E. Hover home Sunday.

Albert Miner, J. C. Henrich and Ray Hover have gone to Corvallis to work in the hop yard.

Prof. Nichols has returned from his vacation and gave the orchestra a lesson Wednesday evening.

Anna Heinrich returned to her work at Corvallis Monday, after spending her vacation at her home.

A party was given at the Will McLaren home Saturday evening. Ice cream and watermelon were served.

Bert Haynes and family returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Dayton and Walla Walla, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Steinrod and Mrs. Lydia Davis of Portland visited at the R. K. Stewart home labor day.

Jim Carver and Dean Bilyeu returned Saturday from a 10-day hunting trip in Southern Oregon. Dean succeeded in bagging the limit.

Shedd Snapshots

(Enterprise Correspondence)

The Shedd fair will be next Saturday.

Jim Couey has painted the Al Nelson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will move to Ontario, Ore.

Mrs. R. C. Margason was quite sick, but is much improved.

Henry Halverson spent Sunday in Portland visiting relatives.

Merle Thompson left Sunday for a visit with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. S. Thompson left Thursday for an extended visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Davidson returned Saturday from a week's trip to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pugh drove to Portland Sunday to visit Mrs. Pugh's parents.

Harry Sprenger and family spent the week end in Maplewood visiting Mrs. Sprenger's sister.

Miss Viola Arnold was home over Sunday from Portland, where she is in training to be a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Willoughby were in Shedd several days moving their furniture to their new home at Bend.

Charlie Thompson returned the first of last week from southern Oregon, where he had visited his small daughters.

Ben Sudtall, the auctioneer, sold about $2000 worth of property belonging to Bob Cogswell and J. N. Burnett last Saturday at the Cogswell place, southwest of town. Prices were good. Cattle sold as high as $95 a head.

News Notes

(Continued from page 1)

A report issued by the Port of Astoria shows that between July 1 and August 31 of this year 431 carloads or 571,572 bushels of wheat were received from interior points.

The question of issuing bonds in the amount of $100,000 for rebuilding flumes on the Central Oregon irrigation district canals will be voted on at the annual election October 14.

The Oregon state fair board has appropriated $500 to be used in purchasing prizes and arranging a horse-shoe tournament to be held in connection with this year's state fair.

Eugene is promised a $20,000 pottery manufacturing plant if suitable clay is found in the locality, according to E. Eugene Chadwick, secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce.

Constance Lockard, 3-year-old daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. C. D. Lockard, died at The Dalles hospital from scalds suffered when the infant pulled a pot of hot tea from a table onto herself.

Frank C. Riggs of Portland was nominated governor of the first district of Rotary clubs at a meeting in Hoquiam, Wash., of more than 100 district presidents and secretaries of the order.

Sixty of the 79 applicants who wrote in the state bar examinations held in Salem last July were successful, according to announcement made by Arthur S. Benson, clerk of the Oregon supreme court.

Glen Robinson and W. R. Wolgamott of Medford and James Miller of Elk Creek were fined $27 each in Medford following theft arrest for hunting deer at night with searchlights. It is said they accidentally shot and killed three cows.

Failure of the public to distinguish between original sales of stocks under permit issued by the state corporation commissioner and resale of stocks by individual holders, probably has been responsible for much of the recent criticism directed at the state officials, according to a letter prepared by W. E. Crews, state corporation commissioner.

Fines of $500 and sentences to 30 days in jail were given each of five hunters of elk in Coos county by E. H. Jaehnk, judge of the Coos county court. This is the maximum penalty for killing of elk.

Receipts thus far this year from motor vehicle registrations in Oregon aggregate $4,638,774.72, according to a statement issued by the secretary of state. For the entire year 1923 receipts totaled $4,069,609.40.

Colonel Pegram Whitworth, infantry, has been ordered relieved from duty with the 96th division organized reserves, Portland, and assigned to duty as professor of military science at the University of Alabama.

A rum-chaser with a speed of 32 knots and manned by 16 men and their officers, will be placed on patrol duty off the Oregon coast in the near future, Dr. J. A. Linville, federal prohibition director, has been informed.

Three children—Elma and Elmer Heilman, twins, ten years old, and Ernest Heilman, nine—were drowned while playing in a swimming hole in the Abernethy river on their way home from Echo Dell school in Clackamas county.

Oregon pensions have been granted as follows: Mary Briggs, Portland, $30; Flora M. Harrison, Portland, $30; Edward Ringsmith, Astoria, $15; Mary Struthers, Medford, $30; Flora G. Childson, Brownsville, $30; Ida Simpson, Gresham, $30.

Senators Robert M. La Follette and Burton K. Wheeler will make speeches in Oregon, Senator Wheeler on October 9 and Senator La Follette on a date yet to be determined, according to word received by the La Follette state committee.

Miss Celia Bollman, private secretary to Governor Pierce since last May, was named defendant in a suit filed in the circuit court at Salem by Mrs. Alice Boszell to recover $10,000 for the alleged alienation of Fred Boszell's affections.

The state board of forestry has asked the state budget commission for an allowance of $111,450 with which to conduct the affairs of the department during the next biennium, starting January 1, 1925. For the current two years the expenses of the board were $90,310.

Prohibition of the sale of oil stock in Oregon by foreign companies is asked of Governor Pierce by a committee consisting of Oswald West, ex-governor of Oregon and George Black, public accountant, appointed by him to investigate stock and bond sales in this state.

Three trainmen were burned, two fatally, when the engine and three loaded cars of a logging train on the Oregon Pacific & Eastern railway went through the Walton bridge two miles from Cottage Grove. Elmer Motter, 20, brakeman, and Slim Brandt, engineer, died in the Eugene hospital.

The value of all farm property in Oregon has increased 374 per cent in 20 years, while the number of acres of improved farm land in the state has increased only 47 per cent, according to a preliminary study just completed by Andrew Miller, field secretary of the Oregon Bankers' association.

The farm at the Oregon Soldiers' home at Roseburg is a liability rather than an asset at present, according to a statement made before the state board of control by W. M. Hendershott, superintendent of the institution. Improvements at the home to cost approximately $17,000 were recommended by the commandant.

Oregon has the country's champion coyote trapper, so far as Stanley G. Jewett of the United States biological survey can ascertain. He is William Snyder of Crane, who, in the 31 days in August secured 150 of the animals. Mr. Jewett says this is the largest kill ever made in this state or any other in a similar period of time.

Threshing continues in Oregon under favorable conditions, says the weekly crop summary of the weather bureau. Some plowing has been done for winter wheat in the Willamette valley, but the soil is generally too dry. Seeding is in progress over limited areas in central and eastern counties. Some early sown rye is coming up in Lake county.

The completion of the paving of the west side Pacific highway, which makes the first unbroken hard-surface thoroughfare across the state from the Columbia river to the California line, will be celebrated formally at Heimick park, near Monmouth, Friday. The last section connecting Monmouth and the west side pavement to Corvallis has just been completed by the state highway commission and will be opened on the dedication date.

The Owen-Oregon Lumber company of Medford will start at once to enlarge its plant by the construction of two lumber storage warehouses, each to hold 2,000,000 feet of finished lumber and with a loading capacity of 20 box cars, and equipped with a crane and other modern apparatus for stacking, sorting and unstacking by machinery. The lumber will be handled in packages of about 2000 feet, which will be an innovation in the business.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Velda Curtis spent Saturday night with her friend, Violet Burnett.

Miss Hattie Dannen of Shedd visited her sister, Mrs. E. A. Starnes, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burkhart of Salem spent some time at their farm last week.

J. N. Burnett and family are moving to their place near Harrisburg this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitbeck were Sunday afternoon callers at the Michael Rieckard home.

J. H. Rickard and family attended the M. E. Church South conference at Corvallis Sunday.

E. D. Isom and family and William Wahl and daughter Delma left yesterday morning for a week at Yachats.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Starnes and daughters Hattie and Catherine visited at the C. C. Dickson home at Shedd Thursday.

After all the advertising, Mrs. Bridger got her cat, Peter. She paid Mrs. Hugh Leeper $1.50 for his keep.

Paid-for Paragraphs

(5c a line)

Pups for sale. Airedales. Call at meat market.

Old papers for sale at 5c a bundle at the Enterprise office.

NOTICE

There will be a mass meeting of legal voters of Halsey at the city hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 30, at 7:30, to nominate candidates for city offices to be voted for at the November election. E. F. Cross, City Recorder.

WANTED

Responsible man or woman of good address, with auto, for a few days or longer to Collect and Solicit

among farmers, Person familiar with farm affairs. Address, with references as to responsibility, AX-TON BULKLEY, care Enterprise.

TORRANCE Reconditioning Shop Parts for All Cars Willard Batteries 212 East First st., Albany Phone 379

Table with columns for North and South train times, listing various routes and departure/arrival times.

SUNDAY MAIL HOURS The delivery window of the Halsey postoffice is open Sundays from 10:40 to 10:50 a. m. and 12:15 to 12:30 p. m. Sunday mail goes out only on the north-bound 11:37 train: Mail goes south once a day, closing at 11:05 a. m.; north twice, closing 11:25 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. Mail stage for Brownsville, Crawfordville and Sweet Home leaves daily at 6:45 a. m.

Hurrar for LaFollette and beer!

Coming to Albany Dr. Mellenthin Specialist in Internal Medicine for the past twelve years Does Not Operate Will be at HOTEL ALBANY Wednesday, Oct. 1. Office hours 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

ONE DAY ONLY No Charge for Consultation Dr. Mellenthin is a regular graduate in medicine and surgery and is licensed by the state of Oregon. He does not operate for chronic appendicitis, gall stones, ulcers of stomach, tonsils or adenoids. He has his credit wonderful results in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, blood, skin, nerves, heart, kidneys, bladder, bed wetting, catarrh, weak lungs, rheumatism, sciatica, leg ulcers and rectal ailments. Below are the names of a few of his many satisfied patients in Oregon: Pinnia Pekhari, Ilwaco, Wash., chest trouble. W. G. Todd, Grass Valley, Ore., ulcer of the stomach. Joseph Schuster, Beaverton, Ore., catarrh and heart trouble. Elizabeth Taylor, Baker, Ore., intestinal trouble. Mrs. Ernest Lacey, Ironside, Ore., heart and nervous trouble. C. J. Minch, Etawada, Ore., kidney and bladder trouble. Mrs. Henry Baker, Banks, Ore., gall stones and appendicitis. E. C. Nichols, Lebanon, Ore., appendicitis. Remember above date, that consultation on this trip will be free and that his treatment is different. Married women must be accompanied by their husbands. Address: 211 Bradbury bldg., Los Angeles, Cal.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

of Hearing of Fihal Account Notice is hereby given that the final account of E. E. Gormley as administrator of the estate of Emaline Gormley, deceased, has been filed in the County Court of Linn County, State of Oregon, and the 15th day of September, 1924, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., has been duly appointed by said Court for the hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof, at which time any person interested in said estate may appear and file objections thereto in writing and contest the same. Dated and first published August 14, 1924. E. E. GORMLEY, Administrator aforesaid. AMOR A. TUSSING, Att'y for Admr.