

Who Wouldn't Smile Happily

upon opening a box of these delicious candies? The wonderful assortment, various flavors and tempting appearance of these "lumps of delight" win to us all lovers of good sweets and judges of confectionary excellence. Try them once and see if we exaggerate the perfection of these goods.

Clark's Confectionery

Any Girl in Trouble

may communicate with Ensign Lee of the Salvation Army at the White Shield Home, 565 Mayfair avenue, Portland, Oregon.

News Notes

(Continued from page 1)

A special meeting of the state game commission will be held in Eugene October 18. Steps will be taken to take up proposed changes in the game laws with the state legislature.

A new tariff containing reduced rates on logs shipped from points on the Valley Siletz railroad to Newberg and Winona was filed in the offices of the public service commission at Salem.

Demand for Oregon coyote pelts is increasing. Although the market has not yet opened, 13 fur buyers have applied for permission to submit bids for buying pelts obtained by government hunters.

Fatally injured by being caught between cars while attempting a coupling at Reedsport, Charles Weightman, 28, a Southern Pacific brakeman, was married on his death bed in a hospital at North Bend.

While state banks are exempt from the payment of the state income tax, dividends paid by these institutions are subject to the levy, according to a legal opinion by I. H. VanWinkle, attorney-general.

Following the hazing of Harry Mintz and Jack Spong at Salem, school officials expelled John Drager, Donald Kelly and Vernie Perry, high school students, who were said to be responsible for the affair.

Officials of Lincoln county were restrained by Federal Judge Wolverton from attempting to collect the taxes for 1919 and 1920 on property held by the United States Spruce Production corporation.

A calf, which had survived apparently about three weeks, was found in a well recently by Paul Skimpsey driller, who was inspecting a number of wells on the Dunn ranches south of Lake Malheur.

It will require $757,110 to conduct affairs of the state game commission during the next biennium, according to an estimate of the proposed expenditures filed in the office of the state budget commission.

A plan to levy a special tax for the construction of new bridges and to repair many old ones in the county will be voted upon at the November election in Lane county, according to an order made by the county court.

The Oregon public service commission has prepared notices of intervention in the grain rate cases brought by the state of Idaho against the Oregon Short Line and Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company.

A diversion dam at the mouth of Hood river has been completed. The structure will divert the flow of Hood river into the Columbia into a single deep channel and open it to chinook salmon and other migratory fish. The dam cost $587.

Two attempts within a week to wreck the Union Pacific fast mail train, No. 6, by placing obstructions on the track between Hood River and Rooster Rock, were brought to light with the arrest at The Dalles of an itinerant laborer.

The Oregon public service commission has granted authority to the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company to discontinue an auxiliary station at Reith, eastern Oregon, for the receipt and delivery of freight in less than carload lots.

W. C. Snyder, government trapper, shattered all records when he reported a bag of more than 300 since August 1. He works in Harney county under the direction of Stanley G. Jewett of the Portland office of the United States biological survey.

Development of the lumber resources of Lake county is expected as the result of an announcement that the government will offer for sale, probably in the near future, from 200,000,000 to 300,000,000 feet of yellow pine in the Fremont national forest.

One man was probably fatally injured and two others were badly cut and bruised when a Portland Electric Power company's passenger bus, 12

Pine Grove Points

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Miss Hazel Johnson spent the week end at home.

W. G. McNeil preached at Inbraun's Island Sunday.

Charles Nichols & son have a new milking machine.

Cyrus Haynes of Coburg visited his son, Bert Haynes, last week.

Rev. Mr. Tait of Peoria will preach at Pine Grove Sunday evening.

A brother of Charles Nichols from Washington visited him a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pebrsson attended church in Halsey Sunday and spent the day visiting.

Mrs. Marion Fraley of Portland visited her cousin, Mrs. E. E. Hover, Saturday and they were dinner guests at the R. K. Stewart home Sunday.

The community club entertainment Friday evening was well attended. After the program a business session was held and the following officers elected: President, Roy Owen; vice-president, Albert Miner; Secretary, Collin Carver; treasurer, Dean Blyeu; censor, K. R. Stewart.

(Left over last week)

Farmers are busy in the field these days.

O. G. Coldiron is in Oklahoma visiting his parents. Henry Cook is managing the farm in his absence.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Lavelle Palmer. Sixteen scholars are enrolled.

Mrs. L. S. Stalcup of Long Beach, Cal., is here visiting her daughters, Mrs. James Burns, and Mrs. J. S. Nicewood.

Rev. Mr. Tait of Peoria were week end guests at Henry Brooks. Mr. Tait preached Sunday morning at Lake Creek and in the evening at Pine Grove.

Visitors at the Martin Cummings home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Arley Cummings of Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rowan and children of Eugene, Mrs. Annie Jones and Miss Marie Jones of Corvallis.

Mrs. C. S. Williams and Mrs. Thomas Ardry accompanied their mother, Mrs. Decie Brock of Halsey, to Portland Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Tate and wife of Peoria were week-end guests at H. Brock's. Mr. Tate preached. Mrs. Brock went to consult an eye specialist.

We are very proud of the number of our young people who are taking up high school work this year. Jessie Hocken-smith is at Corvallis, Sarah, Helen and Carl Williams in Halsey, Blanche and Burrel Wilson at Springfield, Nora Coldiron at Halsey and Hazel Davis in Albany.

Democratic propaganda crowded out this week.

Halsey Happenings etc.

(Continued from page 1)

Dr. and Mrs. T. I. Marks were Albany visitors Friday.

H. C. Davis and D. J. Hayes were Albany visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Freerksen were dinner guests at Mrs. Dora Davis', at Shedd, Thursday.

W. A. Muller and wife and Mrs. P. H. Freerksen were Albany shoppers Saturday.

Elmer Munson and wife spent Sunday with Estes Bass and family.

Arley Cummings spent Saturday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Hannah Cummings.

A nine-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward James Gump at their home near Peoria Saturday.

Mrs. Hannah Cummings and Milton Bond drove out to the Martin Cummings home and spent Thursday.

C. V. Curtis has moved from Mrs. M. E. Bassett's residence to Arthur Robnett's property in northeast Halsey.

Mrs. Marion Fraley of Portland was in Halsey the last of the week, a guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Rector, Mrs. Fraley was formerly Miss Marie Stewart and a resident of this city.

Mrs. J. S. McMahan made a business trip to Salem Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clark were Brownsville callers Thursday.

Mrs. Marcella Kirk, a nurse in Portland, came up Saturday for a few days with her parents, J. J. Corcoran and wife, and her little son, Billy Kirk. She went back Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baumgartner are home again after a year spent in Detroit, Mich. They made the trip by auto and visited many places, including Yellowstone Park and Denver.

Bert Crawford, construction foreman for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and his crew are building a new toll lead from Albany south. The new lines are being built on the east side of the railroad to get away from the high power lines of the Mountain States Power company.

The Calapooia Teachers' Association of Zone 2, with teachers from Halsey, Tangent, Harrisburg and surrounding districts present, met at the Halsey schoolhouse Friday night. They were addressed by Dr. Brumbaugh of O. A. C. and report a very instructive and interesting session.

HALSEY STATE BANK

Halsey, Oregon

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $35,000

Commercial and Savings accounts Solicited

High School Notes

(School Reporter.)

The Halsey school furnished the program given Friday evening at the teacher's meeting. It was as follows: piano solo, Georgina Clark; piano duet, Esther and Louise Seefeld; reading, Mrs. Shotwell, Dr. Brumbaugh of the psychology department at O. A. C. gave a very interesting and instructive lecture. The four senior girls served refreshments.

The school has some very energetic football players, as is evidenced by an occasional black eye and other physical disabilities.

Melba Neal has returned to school after a time of illness.

Miss Clara Wigle visited relatives and the high school one day last week. Other visitors were Misses Ellen Vannice and Genevieve Wells.

One of the best initiations ever given the Fresh was held for the eleven Freshmen Saturday evening. A large number of the alumni were present. This made the attendance very favorable for the success of the evening.

The Study Club

The Women's Study club held its first meeting of the season Oct. 2, at the home of the president, Mrs. S. J. Smith, and the following committees were appointed to serve for the year: membership, Mrs. J. W. Drinkard, Mrs. J. W. Clark, Mrs. W. Muller; Library, Mrs. G. W. Laubner, Mrs. T. I. Marks, Mrs. C. P. Stafford; Finance, Mrs. B. M. Bond, Mrs. W. H. McMahan, Mrs. W. A. Mulker, Mrs. Martin Cummings; Art, Mrs. J. W. Clark, Mrs. B. M. Bond.

Mrs. Stafford was elected secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Mrs. J. W. Moore to Harrisburg. The treasurer reported $12.01 in the treasury.

The club decided to improve the social hour by sewing for the W. C. T. U. children's home, near Corvallis.

The first part of the year's program is devoted to nature study and an interesting lesson was given by Mrs. Laubner on "Western Wild Flowers." This was followed by a general discussion. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Stafford assisting. Club will meet Oct. 16th, with Mrs. Laubner.

HALSEY RAILROAD TIME

North	South
No. 32, 9:02 a. m.	No. 17, 12:15 p. m.
18, 11:37 a. m.	33, 7:40 p. m.
34, 4:25 p. m.	31, 11:20 p. m.
No. 14, due Halsey at 5:02 p. m., stops to let off passengers from south of Eugene.
Nos. 31 and 32 stop only if flagged.
Nos. 31, 32, 33 and 34 run between Portland and Eugene only.
Passengers for south of Roseburg should take No. 17 to Eugene and there transfer to No. 15.
Halsey-Brownsville stage meets trains 18, 17, 34, 14 and 33 in order named.

SUNDAY MAIL HOURS

The delivery window of the Halsey postoffice is open Sundays from 10:40 to 10:50 a. m. and 12:15 to 12:30 p. m.

Sunday mail goes out only on the north-bound 11:37 train:

Mail goes south once a day, closing at 11:05 a. m.; north twice, closing 11:25 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. Mail stage for Brownsville, Crawfordville and Sweet Home leaves daily at 6:45 a. m.

Paid-for Paragraphs

(5c a line)

Encampment Attention

A joint meeting of Halsey, Harrisburg, Brownsville and Alpine encampments will be held at Halsey Oct. 24, 1924. All camp members are invited.

J. W. Moore, Scribe.

For sale—Reds, Pullets, 2 purebred roosters, Russ, Halsey, Ore.

Some choice weanling pigs for sale by G. E. MUNKERS.

Old papers for sale at 5c a bundle at the Enterprise office.

Halsey Happenings

(Continued from column 5)

Harry Common was in Albany Saturday.

L. H. Armstrong and wife and daughters Ketta and Hazle were in Albany Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Patton drove to Corvallis Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Olin Stalnaker. The Stalnakers accompanied them home and stayed over night.

Davenport's music house, Albany, is still selling out pianos at reduced prices to make room for the carpenters. Their new advertisement appears this week.

Mrs. A. C. Armstrong went to Albany Saturday afternoon to visit her sister, Mrs. W. W. Stuart, and attend the Christian church rally day exercises. There were 268 present.

J. E. Cooper and wife of Oakland, Ore., visited at A. C. Armstrong's Sunday, returning home Monday. The two families were neighbors in Douglas county before the Armstrongs moved to Halsey.

The Standard Bearers of the Methodist church met at the home of Miss Grace Pebrsson Monday and elected, for the coming year, Roberta Vannice president, Gladys Hadley vice-president, Grace Pebrsson secretary, Ellen Vannice treasurer and Georgina Clark reporter.

George Austed was arrested at Harrisburg, charged with stealing the windows of the cabin in which he lived. He said the windows had been left at his place by some boys. Editor Morgan of the Bulletin acted as his counsel and he was acquitted. And the Democrat says he was "hauled" into court.

When wheat went up in war time the bakers raised the price of bread because flour cost more. When wheat went down after the war they did not reduce the price of bread because the cost of flour cut so small a figure in the cost of bread. Now wheat has gone up again and Portland bakers propose a rise in the price of bread because flour costs more. Meantime the Albany bakery, 424 west first street, is selling four one-pound loaves for a quarter.

DELBERT STARR

Funeral Director and Licensed Embalmer

Efficient Service. Motor Hearse. Lady Attendant.

Brownsville.....Oregon

W. L. WRIGHT
Mortician & Funeral Director
Halsey and Harrisburg
Call B. TAYLOR, Halsey, or
W. L. WRIGHT, Harrisburg

Novelty Dance Tumble Inn

Two and one-half miles north of Albany on the highway
Saturday Night
Beautiful Kewpie Dolls Given Away every thirty minutes
Get up a party and come
New music Dandy floor
Everybody is going

Mr. Burbank's bungalow is roofed over.

Mrs. L. E. Walton went to Harrisburg today.

Miss Lila Dudley visited Mrs. Harry Commons Monday.

Jack C. Balch, a Eugene life insurance agent, was here Monday.

Elmer Muller and family spent Sunday at the W. A. Muller home.

Miss Ruth Frum went to Portland today for a visit with friends and relatives.

E. D. Wood, preacher at Brownsville, went home to Eugene Monday.

Dean, small son of Chester Curtis, received a bad burn on his arms last week. His sister, Alice, is quite ill with tonsillitis.

Mrs. A. A. Tussing and daughter Bonita went to Corvallis Tuesday. Bonita entered O. A. C. for the year's work.

W. C. Bass and family, who have been living on the O. W. Frum farm east of town, moved the first of the week to a farm north of Harrisburg which has been occupied by J. W. Cook and family. Earl Cole, a former resident of this vicinity, will bring his family and take possession of the Frum ranch.

Miss Doris Lake went to Corvallis, Saturday. She was accompanied by—but that's a secret.

Dr. H. H. Gardner of Corvallis visited Red Pearl and Mrs. Nancy Palmer Friday.

Mrs. B. Logan returned from a visit with relatives at Corvallis and Eugene Tuesday.

G. B. Davidson and wife went home to Eugene today after a visit with their son Claude.

Clark Smith found a man's heavy rubber right-hand glove on the Brownsville road and left it at this office.

Miss Mabel Robinson arrived Sunday to spend a few days with her sister Mrs. A. E. Foote. She went home today.

Frank Gangle and wife and daughter Leila spent Sunday in Eugene visiting at the home of Mr. Gangle's parents.

Mrs. Max Hodich of Albany and Mrs. Mabel Black of Portland spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Harry Commons.

Raymond Southern of Wilmington, Cal., arrived Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. M. B. Southern, and other relatives.

Mrs. G. Mitzner and daughters Ida and Amanda and son Ted and Mrs. Eliza Brandon spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Vannice.

(Continued in column 6)