R. M. RUSSELL County Clerk Candidate for re-election (Republican nominee)

If elected I will give the citizens of Linn county and other patrons of the office the benefit of my experience and training and will continue to operate the office in the same efficient and courteous manner that I have in the past. "Efficiency, Economy and Courtesy" has been and will continue to be my slogan. Paid Adv.

To the Voters of Linn County

Anyone who is elected to an office in this county must receive a large republican vote, but county and state offices should be considered as business enterprises, to be removed from partisan politics and run as economically as any private business. Nearly all cities have ceased to have republican and democratic tickets in their municipal elections.

In asking your support for the office of county clerk I ask you to be guided by your sound business judgment.

The question of qualifications need not enter in, because I freely acknowledge my worthy opponent as having been a satisfactory official during the many years of his incumbency, and he has freely and publicly expressed his belief that I would do just as well if elected.

Everyone is advocating economy, but few are showing us just where and how a saving can be made. If given the opportunity I pledge myself to save the public at least $700 per year without lowering the efficiency of any office.

If elected I will ask the legislature to lower the salary of the office of county clerk from $2000 to $1600 per year, which sum will insure competent service in the office.

I wish to correct a mistake that I made in a written statement a week ago. The cut in the salary of the office a few years ago should have read "$200 per year," instead of "$500."

I believe that business judgment dictates that the office of recorder should be merged with that of clerk, as is done in all but six other counties in the state. A deputy clerk will do the same work for $1200 per year that a recorder does for $1500. Net saving, $300 per year.

If an annual saving by a clerical official of nearly one-half the salary he expects to receive appeals to your idea of good business I will greatly appreciate your support. Respectfully yours, HENRY NOLAN (Paid adv.)

Senator Owen Charges Deflation of Farm Prices and Values Due to Republicans.

Thousands of Agricultural Producers and Small Business Men Ruined Since 1920, and Depression Not Yet Halted.

Washington, D. C.—Frequent mention of the "deflation" of agricultural prices and values has been made by speakers and newspapers since the present presidential campaign began several weeks ago and is likely to be heard even more often before November 4. Senator Robert L. Owen's speech on this subject in the Senate is gaining wide circulation because of his charge—never denied by the Republican Senators who heard him in the Senate or by any other Republican—that certain big individuals and interests had a "tip" in advance that the "squeeze" was impending, while farmers and others were unaware of the plan for stopping credits and depressing values.

Senator Owen declared that the Republican Congress and then the Harding administration were responsible for the "deflation" which has ruined thousands of farmers and small business men since 1920. Senator Owen said in part:

"That Republican convention (1920) declared in favor of a policy of deflation. . . . In his (Candidate Harding's) acceptance speech he declared in favor of a policy of deflation. The time for action had come. . . . All of the arrangements for bringing on the panic had been made. The Farm Loan banks were closed; the War Finance Corporation was closed, and the Republican Congress had fastened on the Federal Reserve banking system that cruel and criminal progressive interest rate amendment, under which the panic of 1920 and 1921 was brought about and under which a bank in Alabama was charged 87 1/2 per cent. They never disclosed to the public their purpose to produce a panic until it was too late for the farmers, merchants and bankers of the South and West, and honest business men of the country generally, to take the steps necessary to protect their interests. . . . Farmers Taken Unawares

"Think of the banking system of the Nation—the currency and credit facilities of a hundred millions of people—being manipulated in the interest of a favored few to the embarrassment and hurt and injury of a hundred millions of people!

"One day I was speaking in the Senate on this phase of the deflation panic, and when I finished a Republican Senator from the West, himself a millionaire, came to me and said: 'You are right about them sending word to certain people that the panic was coming. They sent me word several days before it came and suggested that I do the thing necessary to protect myself and prevent losses.' He told me that the panic cost him thousands of dollars.

"The laboring men and the wage earners were not notified. The doctors, lawyers, preachers, and teachers were never told that business disaster was drawing near, that a financial panic was on its way to destroy prosperity and devour the substance of the people. Why were the big financial highbrows singled out and notified in advance of the panic and the masses of the people left without warning to the furies of a storm that left wreck and ruin and death in its wake? . . ."

TARIFF HURTS FARMERS

Republican Law Fosters Price-Fixing And Raises Living Costs. Milwaukee, Wis.—Republican partisans who point to the tariff as a boon to farmers and a blessing to labor are read a good lecture in an editorial in the Milwaukee Journal a few days ago. "Under the system of price-fixing fostered by the Fordney-McCumber tariff," says the Journal, "the average farmer has no chance to save money long. For the tariff enters into nearly everything he does not produce on his own land; and as farm prices go up other prices keep a leap ahead." The editorial then declares that labor, too, is told that the tariff has maintained good wages and upheld the standard of living, and then points out that "all the time large employers were bringing thousands of foreigners into this country."
