Too Much of a Good Thing

Farmers have long been counseled by the department of agriculture to diversify—not to put all their eggs in one basket. Now the department's market expert tells us that not enough of any one crop is raised in the Willamette valley to take advantage of the market—that we diversify too much. Some of our farmers who have made a profit on wool or poultry or dairy products or apples or, this year, on prunes, will continue to co-operate in selling and not pay much attention to government "experts."

The Patter five hundred club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Abraham and four tables of progressive five hundred were played. Church of Christ

Lon Chamlee Minister.

Services for next Sunday at "A Thanksgiving Message" and "Why People Laugh at the Preacher." You will want to be present at the morning hour, when we give thanks. The evening session is of a popular nature.

Last Sunday the message was "Should Christians Attend the Movies?" The preacher conclusions were first, it is best not to attend; second if you do attend attend with a purpose, either for clean amusement, for education or for the purpose of censoring.

The Bible school presented its superintendent, W. H. Robertson, with a beautiful picture last Sunday as a birthday present. The school is making plans for a great Christmas celebration. It will be a "White Gifts for the King" service, with a beautiful pageant by the school.
