

News Notes From All Over Oregon

Gleaned by the Western Newspaper Union

Riders are rounding up stray horses in Pine valley and holding them for disposition by the sheriff.

Immediate construction of a box factory at Klamath Falls by the Chiloquin Lumber company is announced.

A barn on the Kruse ranch on Isthmus Inlet, nine miles from Marshfield, burned with a loss of about $7000.

Mrs. Melvin M. Gerside has been appointed postmaster of a new postoffice in Clackamas county to be known as Gerside.

Mabelle N. Olds was nominated for postmaster at Cloverdale, and Arthur S. Lund has been appointed postmaster at Warren, Columbia county.

Spanish-American war veterans in central Oregon will consider the organization of a camp in Bend at a meeting to be held this week.

Establishment of a plant in Bend for the utilization of range horses, producing bone meal, hides, glue and allied products, is being considered.

An additional water reservoir to serve the Kincaid park territory, recently annexed into the city limits, is planned by the Eugene water board.

C. M. Granger of Portland was appointed by Governor Pierce as a member of the state board of forestry to succeed George H. Cecil, also of Portland.

John Thomas, aged 70, of Medford, dropped dead at the Great Northern station at Pateros, Wash., while waiting for the train. Death is believed to have been due to heart failure.

An area council of Boy Scouts of America covering the central Oregon district and including the communities of Bend, Redmond, Madras and Peleville, was organized in Bend.

Klamath Indians will realize approximately $1,000,000 during 1925 from receipts received from the cut on reservation timber units, Fred A. Baker, superintendent of the Klamath Indian reservation, has announced.

Since the Farmers' Union warehouse in Eugene was established 19 months ago the total sales have amounted to $353,000, according to the report of the manager, E. E. Morrison, at the annual meeting of the stockholders.

A vein of high-grade copper, estimated by mining experts as the largest in the history of United States copper mining, has been struck by cutting into the footwall vein of the Mother Lode copper mine, 26 miles from Baker.

With a three-fourths vote cast at a special school election at Medford on the question of issuing $165,000 bonds towards the construction of a new high school, the proposal was defeated by 58 votes, 257 for and 315 against.

Establishment of a game refuge in Lake and Harney counties is proposed in a bill introduced by Senator Upton. The proposed district embraces approximately 1,000,000 acres of land and would be used for the protection of antelope.

Because of a row between Mayor Johnson and the new city council, Ashland has no city attorney and no police judge, while the chief of police and street commissioners are holding their jobs only because no successors have been named.

The Alsea Fishermen's Protective association has adopted a resolution asking the reinstatement of Carl D. S. Baker as master fish warden and supporting Dr. Thomas W. Ross in his efforts to retain his seat on the state fish commission.

Sheriffs of the state, assembled in ninth annual convention at Multnomah county courthouse in Portland, adopted a resolution urging the state legislature to abolish the state prohibition law enforcement body, of which George L. Cleaver is director.

Eastern capital was a successful last week in bidding for the Curry creek reservation timber in the eastern part of Klamath county. The high bid was submitted by the Camp, Bell-Towler Lumber company of Oshkosh, Wis., with an offer of $6.11 a thousand feet.

Prizes aggregating $500, to be divided into first, second and third awards, were authorized by committees representing the Prineville post of the American Legion for competitive drum corps drills at the American Legion state convention June 25, 26 and 27.

The principal roads within Crater Lake park will be hard-surfaced this year. Congress has passed measures which give a total of $1,000,000 for road improvement in the park this year, and the money will be used for replacing the present dusty thoroughfares with pavement. A shipment of 50,000 eastern brook trout eggs was received at the state fish hatchery at Dead Point creek, near Dee. The eggs were taken at Fall creek, near Bend. The Dead Point hatchery, which last year propagated over 3,000,000 fry, expects to exceed this number this year.

A clean-up of all the hay in the alfalfa fields of the west end of Umatilla county will be effected within the next few weeks, according to Carl McNaught of Hermiston, manager of the hay growers' co-operative organization. Approximately 80 per cent of the crop has been moved to date.

The Ashland city council ordered calling of an election in the near future to submit to the voters the question of issuing $8000 in bonds to purchase the historic southern Oregon chautauqua building, which will be sold within the next few weeks to satisfy a mortgage foreclosure judgment.

Both the state penitentiary and the state training school for boys at Salem are fire traps and are not adequate to cope with present modern conditions, according to B. Ogden Chisholm, a member of the international prison commission, who is inspecting the penal institutions of the Pacific northwest.

Plans have been completed and the contract let for the rebuilding of the mill section of the Portland Vegetable Oil Mills company, which was destroyed by fire, Dec. 18. The mill, which will be used to press the oil from copra from the Philippines and the South Sea islands, will cost about $50,000 to rebuild.

After he had held up 21 men in a Troutdale pool hall, William Still, middle-aged Estacada man, was shot and seriously wounded by two Troutdale citizens who witnessed the robbery. Still escaped, hid in a patch of tall grass in a vacant lot, and was later captured and turned over to deputy sheriffs.

One hundred and eighteen mills reporting to the West Coast Lumbermen's association for the week ending January 17, manufactured 102,284,136 feet of lumber; sold 105,014,206 feet; and shipped 115,214,268 feet. New business was 4 per cent above production. Shipments were 9 per cent above new business.

The new trout hatchery of the state game commission on Roaring river in Linn county, will be completed in March or April, according to M. L. Ryckman, state superintendent of hatcheries. The hatchery will be similar to the Tillamook station, and will bring the number of year-around plants of the commission to 22.

A heavy acreage of wheat, damaged in December when sub-zero weather prevailed for several days while the wheat was unprotected by snow, will have to be reseeded, according to Fred Bennion, Umatilla county agent. Reports of similar damage has been received from northern parts of Sherman, Gilliam and Morrow counties.

The state land board has asked for approval by the state forestry department and agricultural department of Oregon Agricultural college looking to the exchange of approximately 70,000 acres of scattered school lands for similar government acreage in Douglas county. The latter lands are located in Douglas county and are in one tract.

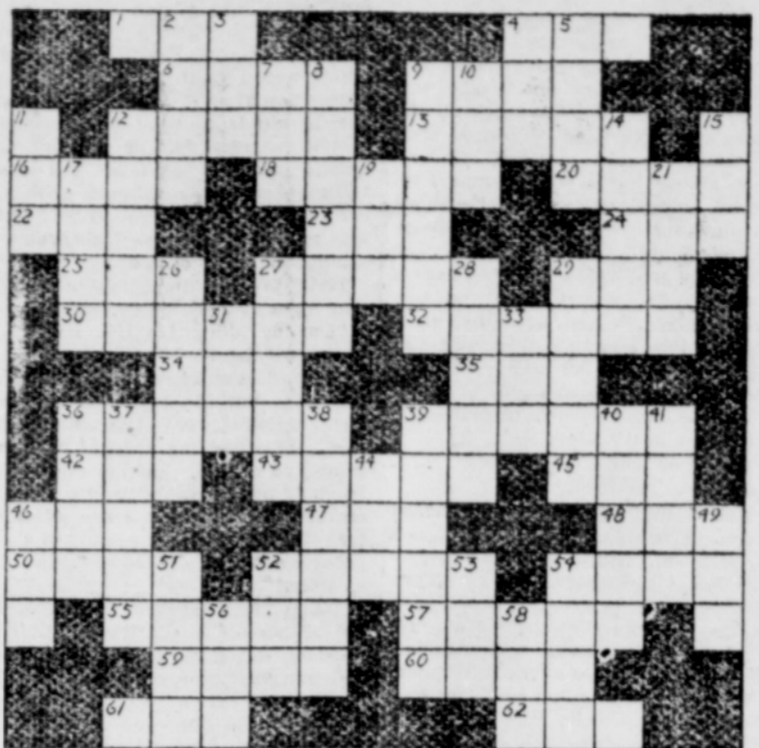

Four fatalities were due to industrial accidents in Oregon during the week ending January 22, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission. The victims were J. T. Parks, Wendling chaser; Irus H. Axtell, Portland, utility man; William M. Sweeney, Portland, truck driver and J. V. Johnson, Marshfield, timekeeper. A total of 450 accidents was reported.

The Willamette Central Federal Farm Loan association was formed at a meeting at Eugene of delegates from Lane, Coos, Curry, Linn and Benton counties, who conferred with officers from the federal loan bank at Spokane, elected officers of the association and delegates to the convention to be held in Spokane in March and chose Albany as the place of the next annual convention.

Fred Herriek, purchaser of a large tract of government timber in the Malheur national forest in Harney county, the development of which involves the construction of 60 miles of railroad from Crane through Burns, has received a year's extension of time to start logging operations. The extension was authorized by Colonel William B. Greeley, chief of the forest service.

Rice Is Not Relished. Rice is not liked by poultry, and it ranks lower than wheat in both digestibility and palatability. It is not much used for poultry feeding, even in the South where rice is grown. Some commercial chick scratch grain mixtures contain a little rice, but it does not add to the value of the feed.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE No. 7

- Horizontal: 1-Marsh, 4-Young goat, 6-Deeply encrossed, 9-Organs of head, 12-Dull, spiritless person, 13-Parasitable, 14-Exclamation of regret, 15-Pastines, 20-A quick pull, 22-Having been victorious, 23-Small room, 24-Fish eggs, 25-Turt, 27-Girl's nickname, 29-Long period of time, 30-One who follows up, 32-Boy's first name, 34-Old horse, 35-To pull with force, 36-Hit, 39-University official, 42-Prevaricate, 43-Becomes fatigued, 45-Boy's name, 46-Distress signal, 47-Mixture of earth and water, 48-Unclosed (poetic), 50-Shoemaker's tool (pl.), 52-Yellow, 54-Belonging to a person, 55-To run off, 57-Acquires by labor, 59-Impressed, 60-Fish, 61-Nickname of martyred President, 62-A weight.

Feeding Milk Goats. 'There are no hard and fast rules for feeding goats,' says C. A. Leach, Jefferson county, Neb., who has a herd of Nubians. 'One thing you must keep in mind is that the food used should be of a kind to produce a strong body as well as produce milk. We have found that corn, oats and shorts make a very good mixture for the older stock. We mix the feed in the ratio of 64 pounds of oats, 32 pounds of corn and about 15 pounds of shorts. In addition to this we feed all the good alfalfa hay the goats will eat.'

DANCE at Tumble Inn every Saturday night. Watch for ad. next week announcing special St. Valentin e DANCE. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols and their baby were in bed in a tent at a logging camp near Bend when a two-foot tree fell across them. One big branch went into the ground between their heads and another between their bodies and the tree came down upon them so close that they could not get out without help, yet none of them received a scratch.

Vitamines Are Lacking. Fall pigs suffer more from a lack of vitamins than from anything else. Pigs may have a perfectly balanced ration in so far as protein, carbohydrate and fat are concerned but will draw life without vitamins, which are present in rye or wheat pasture, are present in sweet clover hay, or fresh alfalfa or soybean hay, or fresh alfalfa or soybean hay, or fresh alfalfa or soybean hay, or fresh alfalfa or soybean hay. When vitamins are added to a well-balanced ration the fall pig will grow and fatten as rapidly and economically as the spring pig.

ARROW GARAGE, Gansle Bros. U. S. & C. T. C. Tires More service No more cost Skilled Auto repairing Auto accessories New, low-priced Gill Batteries for Ford, and Star, other Chevrolet small cars MORE SERVICE FOR LESS MONEY

O. W. Frum took a truckload of hogs to Albany yesterday. Dr. Garnjobat was called from Corvallis yesterday to see Mrs. Henry Breck. Mrs. Teinik arrived from St. Helens yesterday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Bramwell. J. W. Drinkard attended the merchant's shoot last week and brought home some hams and bacon. F. W. Robinson and family and Charles Weisenheimer of Junction City were at A. E. Foote's Sunday. Miss, Mabel Robinson remained for a longer visit with her sister, Mrs. Foote.

Thursday night the sheriff's office was broken into and a quart bottle of confiscated booze stolen. A thousand dollars in money and much liquor were left undisturbed. What the fellow wanted was a drink. Sternberg Brothers guarantee strawberry growers 5 cents for Marshall and Oregon berries, and as much more as the market may warrant. Contracts can be had to run for any length of time, from 1 to 5 years. Who thinks our star-route mails are not expedited? Brad Moss, the Halsey-Swoet Home carrier, was arrested at Brownsville Monday for speeding. He was released again, however, so the mails came through. One hundred volumes from the state library are likely to be on the shelves in our public library this week. Among them are many fine books for children. Tell the librarian what you want to read and she will be able to supply you through the state library. Miss Ruby Schroll, the enterprising Enterprise local reporter, contended with the grip last week and there was a dearth of local news in our columns. This week Miss Schroll is tending her mother, who has the malady, and the dearth continues. Some of the local subscribers who co-operated with the publisher in making a good local newspaper have relaxed their efforts since Miss Schroll has been on the job and readers will miss her work. Miss Florence Nitzie of Shedd died Friday, aged 14. Ruth and Irene Quimby are attending the Brownsville high school. Edy Zimmerman and wife spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Abraham. The new trout hatchery on Roaring river will be open for business by April, it is thought. L. Dugger, formerly publisher of the Scio Tribune, was stricken with paralysis last Thursday at Lebanon. As he was over 80 years old there is small hope for his recovery. Mr. Hawley has introduced a bill to set aside 12 sections of land for the Clear Lake water source and authorize an organization to bring the water through the valley. Calamette and Grand Prairie granges oppose the changes in the primary and market road fund laws and the consolidation of the offices of state market agent and food and dairy commissioner. Alexander Power died at Lebanon Saturday morning, aged 59. He was in early days employed and then a partner in the Kooztz store in Halsey. He became postmaster and went into the grain warehouse business. He was the first president of the Halsey state bank and the bank was for a time located in a warehouse building. He was extensively interested in business of various kinds at the time of his death.

Albany Directory. This is good advice: 'If you live in Albany, trade in Albany; if you live in some other town, trade in that town.' But in these automobile days many residing elsewhere find it advisable to do at least part of their buying in the larger town. Those who go to Albany to transact business will find the firms named below ready to fill their requirements with courtesy and fairness. ACCESSORIES AND TIRES. J. H. ALLISON, 442 West First St. Albany Floral Co. Cut flower and plants. Floral art for every and all occasions. Flower phone 458-J. BRUNSWICK PHONOGRAPHS at WOODWORTH'S. Davenport Music company offers: Piano-case organ, good as new. Kates organ, good as new. Eastburn Bros.—Two big grocery stores, 212 W. First and 225 South Main. Good merchandise at the right prices. Elite Cafeteria and confectionery. Home cooking. Pleasant surroundings. Courteous, efficient service. We make our own candies. W. S. DUNCAN. Films developed and printed. We mail them right back to you. Woodworth Drug Company, Albany, Oregon. FORD SALES AND SERVICE. Tires and accessories. Repairs. KIRK-POLLAK MOTOR CO. Fortmiller Furniture Co., furniture, rugs, linoleum, stoves ranges. Funeral directors. 427-433 west First street, Albany, Oregon. FULLER GROCERY, 285 Lyon. (Successor to Stenberg Bros.) Groceries, Fruits, Produce. Phone 263R. HOLMAN & JACKSON. Grocery—Bakery. Everything in the line of eats. Opposite Postoffice. Hub Candy Co., First street, next door to Blain Clothing Co. Noon lunches. Home-made candy and ice cream.