Seventy-five Albany, Oakville and Shedd young women met at Shedd Tuesday night at the United Presbyterian church at a Young Women's Missionary society session.

W. J. Ribelin proposes to stay in Halsey several weeks before returning to his new residence in Prineville. With other business that he has here is the renting or selling of the house and six acres of land in town which has been his home.

Chester Purdy, living north of town, was boarding out a $500 fine of the county jail for maintaining a nuisance in violation of the prohibitory laws. He pleaded guilty. His mother paid the fine and got him out. Will he try it again?

G. F. Schroll died at the state hospital at Salem Friday and was buried at Forest Grove next day. His daughter, Ruby, went from here to the funeral. We continue to have a great Sunday school; everything is going along in a fine way. We will have a large attendance next Lord's day; everybody is working.

On account of illness we could not be with the church last Sunday, but we know both services with Bro. Veltie Pruitt were enjoyed and were helpful to all who attended.

Brethren, the meeting starts next Lord's day morning. I know you are sacrificing, working and praying for a successful meeting. The Lord wants laborers to go in to the field that the harvest might be gathered.

"Look on the fields that they are white already unto harvest." And Christ is saying "Go." Will you go?

Brother Ross Guilly is to lead us in the work, a man you cannot help but like because he has the work of God at heart.

A mixed quartet gave many pleasing and helpful messages in song. The group, besides the leaders mentioned, was composed of Jack Trachsel, Mr. and Mrs. Tamplin, Miss Armstrong, Miss Morford, Amanda Mitzner and Gilbert Carey.

SIGNERS OF RECALL WIN

Kelso City Attorney's Charge of Libel Not Sustained.

Kelso, Wash.—Judge Campbell of Grays Harbor county, sitting for Judge Kirby, sustained the demurrer filed by Attorney Casey for 14 defendants charged with criminal libel for signing the recall charges against City Attorney Stone. Judge Campbell held that the right to sign a recall charge is the privilege conferred by the statutes and that a signer of recall charges must not be guilty of libel, even though the recall charge is untrue.

The decision will be appealed to the supreme court by Mr. Stone, who was charged with "conspiracy with liquor law violation" in the recall petitions.

Arms Parley Resolution is Offered.

Washington, D. C.—Senator Shipstead, farmer-labor, Minnesota, introduced a resolution declaring the senate in readiness to receive from President Coolidge proposals for concluding international agreements for the limitation of armaments, for the prohibition of warfare and for codification of the rules of warfare. The resolution was ordered to lie on the table.

Reforestation to be Tax Exempt.

Sacramento, Cal.—Without a dissenting vote the senate went on record in favor of conservation of the forests of California by passing a reforestation measure, which will be submitted to the people in the form of a constitutional amendment. It provides for exemption of taxes for a certain period of growing of trees planted on overcut timber lands.

Grand Jury to Sift Germ Case.

Chicago.—William D. Shepherd was held in custody by the state's attorney pending presentation to a grand jury of evidence tending to incriminate him in the death of William Nelson McClintock, millionaire orphan, who died in December after making Shepherd sole heir to his fortune.

Walter Camp, Noted Athlete, Dies.

New York.—Walter Camp, noted athlete, coach and author of the widely used "Daily Dozen" exercises for keeping well, was found dead in bed in his room at the Hotel Belmont. Camp was in New York attending the annual meeting of football coaches.

Lowell Smith Says Mitchell is Right.

Glendale, Cal.—Captain Lowell Smith, commander of America's world flight, sides with Brigadier-General William A. Mitchell in his plan of a unified United States air service.

"It is my belief that an air service, a unit in itself, should be established," he said at a business dinner here. "It should be headed by a member of the cabinet and would do away with the discord and lack of cooperation which are natural results of the four air departments now existing."

Visions

It is well to have a vision of a better life than that of every day, but it is the life of every day from which elements of a better life must come.—Maeterlinck.

Banks of the Sabbath

The streams of religion run deeper or shallower, as the banks of the Sabbath are kept up or neglected. A preacher in Holland called the Sabbath "God's Dyke," shutting out an ocean of evil.—Calcott.

Must Have Him in Hearts

They only can understand the Holy Ghost who have Him dwelling in their hearts. They only can worship in the Spirit who have the Holy Spirit as an abiding comforter.—N. H. Mack.

Dublin.—Eamon de Valera and his republican followers have been sharply repudiated by the Irish electorate. In nine bye-elections distributed about the free state the Cosgrove government swamped the irreconcilables by winning seven and so nearly winning the other two that there can be no question of the sentiment of the people.

A Moving Picture Free Tomorrow

Bootleg Tactics, Failures and a High-life Raid at Local Church

The new law enforcement film "The Triumph of Justice", will be shown in connection with address by Rev. W. J. Herwig, Superintendent, Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, in Halsey Christian Church tomorrow evening.

The enforcement of the prohibition law is largely dependent upon the prosecuting attorney and sheriff. These officials are therefore made the leading characters in the play.

The picture brings out clearly the reasons for the continued operations of moonshiners in certain districts, the failure of crooked or inefficient officers to enforce the law, and the part that good citizens should play in bringing about better conditions.

Devices used in deceiving officers and methods of delivering moonshine to avoid detection, also the filthy and poisonous conditions under which it is made, are depicted.

One of the interesting features is the showing of a booze party in a fashionable home, in which one of the ladies becomes bilious, ill and then permanently blind through the drinking of so-called "bonded liquor."
