from my person

RURAL ENTERPRISE

An independent-Not neutral-newspaper, published every Wednesday, By Wm. H. WHEELER

$1.50 a year

Advertising, 20c an inch; no discoun for time or space; no charge for com position or changes, am "Pald-for Paragraphs," 5c a line. We advertising disguised as news.

TRAITORS IN OFFICE

Tomorrow night at the Christian church there will be a moving picture illustrating some phases of the booze traffic and the efforts to enforce the law suppressing it. That law has been enforced far enough to make America a better and safer place to live in, but its enforcement is hampered by members of the minority, traitors to their country, who get into official places and there work against enforcement.

Every boozer, every bootlegger, every congressman or state legislator, who conives at law infractions is a traitor. Through the acts of men sworn to uphold the law but who violate their oaths and betray their country, great numbers of the law enforcement officers are chosen from the miniority in the country who oppose prohibition.

The Dearborn Independent recently made a thorough investigation in the state of New York and reports that 95 percent of the prohibition enforcement officers there are men who oppose prohibition. Further, that men in our national lawmaking bodies have dictated the appointments that are responsible for this state of affairs.

New York has repealed her prohibitory laws and the federal law is being administered there by its enemies, and federal senators and congressmen are to blame. Mrs. Poindexter gave us a few hints of the rottenness among the Washington lawmakers, and they breathed easier when she was sent to a South American consulate.

The citizen who deliberately violates a law is a potential traitor to the country.

MUZZLE DIDN'T FIT

Secretary Weeks says Brigadier General Mitchell was not muzzled. That seems to be true. The supposed muzzle was applied, but it was defective, and Weeks and Mitchell's other superiors made a roar and demoted him, because he talked. but it is evident that he knows nome. Other favored dodgers what he is talking about. In are treating Mellon very civilly fact, Weeks himself admitted specifically that Mitchell knows more about the air service than any of the rest of them. Mr. Mitchell says that the fight for better air service has only just begun. Yes, and several Weeks may pass before it is finished. He says:

"What can swivel chair officers know about aerial conditions and airplanes needs? My demotion is simply politics. 1 don't care anything about it. The iederal government is top-heavy. Those in charge must have in their departments men who coordinate with their ideas."

Meantime that army officer who was sent to the California state insane asylum because he complained of the attentions of his superior officers to his wife. has been taken from the state where the case was causing too much talk and is to be examined over again in Washington, with the threat broadcast that if he is found sane he will be court martialed by the gang for talking about them.

Do you notice that your taxes are less this year? That is because they were levied under an income tax law. The tax dodgers, raging because they had been caught and forced to contribute to the cost of the government which protects them, raised a slush fund, which was used in spreading campaign falsehoods which resulted in the repeal of that law. Now they will snugly pocket profits off Oregon industry, 50,000 of them paying nothing, and taxes will be up again next year.

A RIP-ROARING CIRCUS

Hardly have we settled down to business after the referee's decision in the Salem fight in which the governor treated his hecklers to a knockout when shricks and yells and howls and growls come by radio from Washington.

The storm raised by Mr. Dawes when he disturbed the dignity and lumber of the senate by telling it ome truths about its asinine rules shrinks to the dimensions of a tempest in a teapot when compared with the relations between Mr. coolidge and that august (or lisgust) body.

During the late campaign the epublican slegan was "Keep ool with Coolidge." Now the enate has so far obeyed that inunction that an iceberg thrust etween it and him would shed a enial warmth. Nothing like the present relations between president and senate has existed since the days of Andy Johnson.

Senatorial dignity has reached a oint where one senator the other lag asked the presiding officer if it would violate the rules of courtesy for him, in debate, to call another several kinds of a liar. For some eason he was advised not to do so -perhaps because "the truth hould not be spoken at all times.' That is an interesting aggregasition at Washington.

The Junction City Times and he Cottage Grove Sentinel ardiscussing the misspelling of exhilarate" by a contemporary. They might turn their guns on exhonerate,' which we often meet in exchanges. Last week the Enterprise attempted to differentiate between the head editor of a news paper, who heads the editorial staff, and the head-editor, who dits the headings of its contents, out the linotype operator used typhens in both terms. An tempt to eliminate one of the yphens when going to press misarried and the linotype man had is way, despite our efforts.

Secretary Mellon is the head of he aluminum trust, said to be the vorst violator of the Sherman law n the country. Senator Couzens coused him of conniving to keep erge sums of income-tax money out of the treasury. Mellon virnally confessed by starring proedings to collect a million or twe f overlooked tax en Cousins

Excavators have found the tomb of an Egyptian king who reigned 1700 years before Tut, but be oo dead to be of any use now.

International

S. S. Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean of the Evening Schoel, Moody Bible In-stitute of Chicago.) (©. 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for March 22 THE FORTY DAYS AND THE AS-

CENSION

LESSON TEXT—Luke 24:18-83.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Ye are witnesses of these things."—Luke 14:48.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Goes Back to His Father.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Ascends to Heaven.

Heaven.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOP-IC—The Forty Days and the Ascension.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Ever Living Christ.

I. The Walk of Two Discouraged Disciples (vv. 13-15).

Emmaus was seven and a half miles northwest of Jerusalem. Just why they were walking this way we do not surely know. Perhaps their home was there, or they were merely walking to seek relief from their stunning sorrow. If they had believed what Jesus told them about His death and resurrection they would have escaped this great disappointment. The topic of conversation was the tragedy of the cross and the resurrection rumors. If they had believed what He said about coming forth from the grave they would have been expecting to hear just such reports as were being circulated. II. The Unrecognized Companion (vv. 16-24)/

1. Who He Was-Jesus (v. 15). While they reasoned together on the wonderful events of the last few days Jesus joined them. Even when He questioned them concerning their sadness they did not recognize Him. Many times we are so taken up with our sorrows and disappointments that we do not recognize Jesus walking by our side.

2. His Question (v. 17). Perceiving their sadness and perplexities, He sought to help by calling orth a statement of their grief.

3. Their Answer (v. 18). His question so surprised them that hey jumped at the conclusion that He was a stranger in Jerusalem, for the ondemnation and crucifixion of the great Prophet of Nazareth were so recent and notorious that no one that had lived in Jerusalem could be ignorant of them. One valuable feature of the unbelief of the disciples was that it revealed the fact that they were not credulous enthusiasts, but hard to convince. Out of this incredulity of the disciples developed unshaken faith in Christ's resurrection. III. The Scriptures Opened (vv. 25-

1. His Rebuke (vv. 25-30).

He did not rebuke them for not bedeving the strange stories that they had heard, but for ignorance and lack of confidence in the Old Testament Scriptures. They had only accepted such parts of the Old Testament as suited their notions. Men and women who do not believe all that the Scriptures say about the work of the blessed Savior are entirely blameworthy. The very center and heart of the Old Testament Scriptures set forth the death and resurrection of Christ. It is ignorance of the Scriptures and unbelief of the wonders and complete redemption wrought by Christ that robs us of many joys, and power and efficiency as workers for Christ.

2. Jesus Recognized (vv. 31-35). While sitting at meat with the disciples their eyes were opened as they saw Him bless the bread and distribute It to them. We, too, can see the Lord on such common occasions as eating a meal, if we have open eyes.

Indeed we ought to see Him when eating, selling, buying and in our recreations, for He has promised us His presence. They were so filled with joy over this revelation of the Savior that they hastened back to Jerusalem to tell the other disciples of His res-

IV. Jeaus Stands in the Midst of the Eleven (vv. 36-47).

1. He said, "Peace be unto you" (vv. 36-47), but they were terrified and affrighted. Sinful man in the presence of God is ill at ease.

2. He showed them His hands and His feet (vv. 38-40). In order to convince them of His personal identity He gave them tangible evidence that He was not a mere spirit.

3. He ate before them (vv. 41-45). 4. He commissioned them to evangelize the world (vv. 46-49).

They were to testify concerning His shed blood and resurrection, and on this ground they were to preach re-pentance and remission of sins to all nations.

V. Jesus Ascends Into Heaven (vv.

Having given them the parting mesage to evangelize the world, He ascended into heaven. Just as we treasure the last words of our departed loved ones so we should ponder this farewell message of the Lord.

& Mary Graham Bonner

PETER'S VISITS

The people in Fairyland were al ways very much interested in hearing what the children were doing, of their games and their frolics and Peter Gnome often used to go to chil dren's parties and watch them at play. It really wasn't rude of him for he put on his invisible robe so no one could see him and he wasn't in the way at all.

He had a beautiful time early one morning watching two children playing the telephone game.

They each had a little toy telephone and they played that they were tele phoning people just as they had heard their mothers talk.

"Hello," said one, "please give me 145 Party J." And the other an-

"Yes, this is 145 Party J. Did you wish to speak to me?" "Oh, yes, my dear, how are you this morning? Well, I had the loveliest time yesterday afternoon. I called you up to tell you all about it." Next he saw two children sitting in a big box and the big box was in a still bigger puddle and they were playing that they were on a boat. Another little girl was playing 'house" with her friend and she was saying: "Dear Mr. Iceman, why didn't you leave ice for me today? De you know now where I can get any?" And the other girl who was supposed to be the iceman answered in a gruff voice: "Go to the North pole and you'll find some, lady." Some other children were starting out with their dolls for a trip and they were saying to their dolls: "We have to pay to ride on the cars, but you are young enough to travel free,"

Perspective of O. A. C. Memorial Union Building for Which Funds are Being Raised Among Students, Alumni and College Friends

The accompanying cut illustrates the massive size of the proposed building to be on the O. A. to commemorate the active part Oregon heroes played in the Spanish-American and World wars. The building will tower 180 feet high and will be 200 by 200 feet. The building materials used will be such as to blend with the present campus architecture and yet be distinctive. The building will house all student and alumni activities and organizations. More than half of the total $500,000 needed for construction is now raised.

construct a building which will be a permanent memorial to the college and state heroes of the Spanish-American and World wars and to American and World wars and to house all student and alumni activities on the O. A. C. campus, has been completed among students and is present plans. Alumni are organized, present plans. Alumni are organized,

More than half of the sum needed are located. was raised on the campus in an inwas raised on the campus in an intensive drive of a week. Inspired by the record of O. A. C. and Oregon heroes in the war, the undergraduates and faculty of the college pledged more than half of the total in three days. President W. J. Kerr, who was seriously ill at the time, sent in his pledge of $1000. pledge of $1000 on the second day of the drive. Alumni in Portland have responded with more than $25,000 and the campaign is now reaching into the smaller cities and communities of the will seek to draw together the four component parts of the college: students, alumni, faculty and friends. will be a great gathering place for college interests, a magnet to attract students and alumni in all walks of life and a melting pot to create a college democracy, say those in charge. Loyalty of individual students and alumni, who mortgaged their future earning power to help pay back to their alma mater part of the training received, gave an impetus to the campaign that makes the total objective assured, according to campaign lead-ers. One freshman student from Cali-mittee. One thousand persons will be year from next fall.

More than $325,000 of the total is now subscribed and construction on ties on the O. A. C. campus, has been ties on the O. A. C. campus, has been completed among students and is moving into different districts of the moving into different districts of the horizontal present plans. Alumni are organized, not only in Oregon but in Washington, California, Hawaii, and many states where former students

The building will have rooms for student activities, faculty meetings, assembly halls for large gatherings, trophy rooms where athletic awards of the Varsity "O" association may be permanently kept, shop rooms for building of campus dramatic productions and many other types of rooms. All the student publications rooms. All the student publications will be housed in the new building which will be a big advancement of which will be a big advancement of publicathe old inadequate system of publication offices scattered over the entire

"The Memorial union building will release much needed class room in the buildings provided by the state," said E. B. Lemon, registrar. "College life is highly organized and many of the student groups require accommoda-tions which are needed for instructional purposes. The Memorial union building is being built without cost to the state, which is an important feature in Oregon's educational pro-

Of much interest to students and

The O. A. C. Memorial union campaign to provide $500,000 needed to construct a building which will be a were received. tainment may be given for the campus from time to time. A pipe-organ will be installed in the theater which will djoin an immense rotunda where student and alumni gatherings may be arranged Since the announcement that a class B, 500-watt broadcasting station will be installed at O. A. C., an effort is being made to tie up the activities of the Memorial union with this feature. The college is host to many speakers of national repute and authorities on educational, scientific and economic subjects. In addition the lyceum numbers bring artists of international fame to the campus. In the past few years such singers as Geraldine Far-rar and Madame Schumann-Heink; Mischa Elman and Erna Rubinstein, violinists, and many others have been entertainers on the campus. The high-powered broadcasting station will make their artistry vailable to the entire state. A massive entrance to the building will lead into the main lobby to be called "Memorial Hall." Finest examples of art and sculpture will decorate the hallway. Leading back from it will be the rotunda, where alumni gatherings will often be held and where from 500 to 800 persons may be served at special banquets and luncheons for which the college tea room is inadequate.

A cafeteria for students and faculty is another feature planned for the new faculty is the plan for the theater in building, which is expected to be the building, says the governing com-

Then Peter went to a zoo where most of the people about spoke apother language, for he went a long.

Played That They Were Telephoning.

ong way this time. But the animals still grunted and squealed and chatted in their own way to Peter's great relief.

Coming back he sailed on an old schooner and had a most adventuresome time. He sang to himself at times and this was one of the songs he sang: The ocean and the sky,

And our boat plowing steadily on
While trees and land and streets

Are quite completely gone

It was quite true, too, that they had left trees and streets in the far distance now for quite awhile.

He listened to the sea gulls saying the same things over and over and he thought how much they were like some people who said the same things over and over. But they were so graceful and so beautiful and they always made the scenery more interesting. Then he liked to hear their funny laughing volces and he thought their good appetites showed how healthy they

He certainly would tell them in Fairyland, how he could see, when he looked from the top of the mast, only where the sky and sea met all around. There was a blue ridge in the listance and beyond he couldn't see. He thought of all the curious things he had seen on this trip-the donkey and dog wagons and how much they had to work. But then, too, he had been in one little place and every day the dogs had all met together on the beach and had gone in swimming

It had seemed just as if they had named an hour to meet on the beach. He had seen woolly white sheep lying on stones on rocky blis, and he had watched scampering wild rabbits and had played and had a beautiful and great flocks of wild birds,

He had made friends with a dear little dog as they had warmed themselves before a fire when everyone was out and the little dog had felt so blissful lying on his back by the warm fire and having Peter Gn rub his chest.

Oh, Peter had made many a visit and had seen many a quaint and interesting sight at home and far away, but the best thing of all was always, he thought, to go back home again!

HALSEY STATE BANK

Halsey, Oregon

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $35,000

Commercial and Savings accounts Solicited

Dr. C. FICQ, Dentist "PLATES THAT FIT"

Growns, bridge work and fillings. It will pay you to get my prices on your dental work, Cusick bank building, Albany

American Eagle Fire Insurance Co.

Hay is worth just as much in storage as you might get for it in case of fire. The American Eagle Fire Insurance company will pay you 85% of the cash value in case of loss by fire.

C. P. STAFFORD, Agent

 Any Girl in Trouble

may communicate with Ensign Lee of the Salvation Army at the White Shield Home, 565 Mayfair avenue, Portland, Oregon.

 The wisest girls keep out of rrouble