F. S. Gutzman has traded his Brownsville place for one at Clovis, Cal. A Montana man is the new owner here. Mrs. Gutzman's health caused the change to California.

At Brownsville Charles Fullager's team ran away Thursday of last week. Mrs. Fullager and two children were thrown out but not seriously hurt. The team then smashed the White hardware filling station and stopped, slightly the worse for wear. Fullager got a thorough shaking up.

Mrs. Lillian Howe of Brownsville has been nursing Mr. Southworth through the siege of flu and pneumonia which carried him to the brink of the grave. Dr. Marks is his physician. Mr. Southworth passed the crisis a week ago and is slowly recovering. George Morse of Brownsville drives the stage.

About the time the Enterprise went to press last week Miss Ruth Finley took advantage of her option on the lease of the Ribelin property, so Mr. Hoffman will not take his chickens and cow to those six acres after all. Rumor has it that the lessee may take a partner. There is room enough for that in the Ribelin house, and some.

Angry Arabs After Balfour

Damascus, Syria.—Algerian cavalry galloping through the streets of Damascus with drawn swords and eight armored cars maneuvering with the troops are credited with having saved Lord Balfour from the hostile mob of 6000 people which attempted to attack his hotel. Two were killed and many injured before the disturbance was quelled.

The mob almost succeeded in reaching the hotel where the veteran British statesman was staying.

The demonstrations against Lord Balfour are due to his work in the establishment of a national Jewish home in Palestine. He is the author of the Balfour declaration by which Great Britain announced support to the Zionist movement. Lord Balfour went to Palestine recently to participate in the opening ceremonies of the new Jewish university on Mount Scopus.

COLD SUMMER EXPECTED

Aide to the Naval Hydrographer Predicts Unusual Chill.

Washington, D. C.—Unless scientific signs fail, says Lieutenant-Commander George E. Brandt, aide to the naval hydrographer, this summer will be a cold one, and the summer of 1926 even colder.

A study of solar radiation and ocean temperatures has convinced him that next year "summerless" 1816 may be duplicated.

Lieutenant-Commander Brandt points out that cyclonic disturbances are the unknown quantity in the weather equation, and that while the present outlook is for a decided temperature drop, actual conditions at the time may be far different because of factors that are now known. He believes, however, that ocean temperatures greatly influence the weather, and that the 1925-6-7 weather already has been largely determined by the heat of the sun that was stored up in the ocean during 1922-3-4, when solar radiation was below normal.

Coolidge May Slash Boards.

Washington, D. C.—More than 40 independent commissions and government boards have come under the focus of President Coolidge's economy program with a view to their abolition or reduction. Some of these independent establishments draw rather heavily on the treasury for salaries, among them the employees' compensation commission, which requires about $150,000 annually.

Dorothy Ellingson Taken to Asylum.

San Francisco.—Seventeen-year-old Dorothy Ellingson, the pretty bronze-haired girl whose pursuit of jazz and joy rides culminated last January in a quarrel in which she killed her mother in a bedroom of their home, was adjudged insane by a jury and taken to the state asylum for the insane at Napa Cal.

Arsenic May Have Caused 5 Deaths.

Gary, Ind.—Finding enough arsenic to kill scores of persons in the home of Mrs. Anna Cunningham, an attractive widow of 50, authorities decided to exhume the bodies of the woman's husband and four children, all of whom died suddenly at intervals during the past six days.

Poisoned by Mushrooms

If everybody could be made to understand that all toadstools are mushrooms and that many mushrooms are poisonous there might be fewer cases of mushroom poisoning. The papers continually prate of "toadstools mistaken for mushrooms" and some people, once certain that a plant is a mushroom, eat it and die. One of Webster's definitions of "mushroom" is: "Any large fungus, especially one of the genus agaricus; a toadstool. Several species are edible but many are very poisonous."

Last Saturday E. Jewett and Frank Massek of Albany became very ill after eating mushrooms, but their lives were saved.

The same day George Kean, his brother Silas and a nephew, Kenneth, aged 3, became ill after eating canned corn, put up at a factory, but they recovered.

Alternate smiles and tears have greeted us from above the last few days, and how the grass and gardens grow!

Most Immigrants from Near Neighbors

New York.—During the first six months of operation of the new immigration law, Mexico and Canada provided by far the greater part of the total net immigration to the United States and these countries now are the chief sources of the foreign labor supply for the United States, the national industrial conference board announced. The board had made an analysis of immigration during July 1, 1924, when the new law became effective, until January 1, 1925.

During the same period, there was "an enormous rate of return of immigrants," from the United States to Europe. A total of 79,741 aliens arrived from the eastern hemisphere and 69,916 returned. At the same time 88,948 aliens came in from the western hemisphere—principally Canada and Mexico—and only 6898 returned.

The net permanent increase in the population of the United States through immigration during the first six months of the new law was 104,875, compared with 43,719 for the corresponding months of 1923, a decrease of 75.3 per cent. Of this net immigration, 22,825 came from the eastern hemisphere—meaning principally Europe—and 82,050 came from the western hemisphere.

THOMPSON IS SENTENCED

Former Employee in Oregon State Treasurer's Office Gets 9 Years.

Salem, Or.—Clarence W. Thompson, who was indicted by the Marion county grand jury on a charge of appropriating $3000 from the state treasury department, was sentenced by Judge Kelly to serve a maximum term of seven years in the state penitentiary. Thompson entered a plea of guilty to the charge in the indictment.

In passing sentence Judge Kelly also revoked the parole previously granted to Thompson when the defendant entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve a term of two years in the penitentiary on a charge of taking $931 from the state treasurer's office. The seven-year sentence imposed on the defendant will start when the previous sentence of two years has been served.

Extends Whipping to Money Offenses.

Dover, Del.—The Delaware house passed two bills which would add lashes to the punishment of embezzlers. One bill provides that misappropriation of funds collected by executor, guardians and attorneys be punished by ten lashes and five years imprisonment. By the other bill 20 lashes and 10 years' imprisonment would be given to cashiers, servants or clerks convicted of embezzlement.

End of One of Life's Tragedies

Mrs. Marcella Kirk died this morning at 11:30 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Corcoran.

A few years ago she was a bappy bride, flushed with health and the joy of living. In time came motherhood and fond hopes for the future to which she would train her son.

Then domestic trouble and separation and the brave woman prepared to make her way in the world by taking a full trained nurse's course. That completed, the future seemed to promise competence and happiness. But about the last work that came to her was when the hospital sent her as custodian of a patient being transferred to San Francisco. On the return trip she stopped at Halsey for a visit with her parental family and her little son.

Hardly had she gone again when word came that she was in a sanitarium, not as a nurse but as a patient. And following this came the dread, the fatal announcement, "tuberculosis." After a time she was brought home for the ministrations of parents, brother and sisters and for the closing days of appreciation of the lovable characteristics of the child on whom her hopes and efforts had been centered.

And then the end came. One more tragedy rung off life's stage.
