Mesdames A. A. Tassing, C. P. Moody and B. M. Bond attended the Eastern Star at Shedd Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mornhinweg and little daughter of McGlynn were week-end visitors at Claron Gormley's.

Mrs. Bert S. Clark expects to be out of the hospital in a day or two and go to her mother's, in Lebanon, to complete her recuperation.

B. M. Bond, cashier of the Halsey State bank, and J. W. Moore, cashier of the Harrisburg National bank, with their wives attended the bankers' meeting in Albany Tuesday night.

A couple of men who said the sun on their windshield blinded them ran into a truck carrying 300 pounds of giant powder in Jefferson Monday. Luckily there was no explosion, so the only damage was to the cars. When one finds that, for any reason, he cannot see the road, is it wise to go it blind?

Cleona Smith was at Brownsville Saturday.

Mrs. G. G. Stevenson of Beaverton visited at J. A. Stevenson's and with her mother, Mrs. Hannah Cummings, at the end of the week.

The King sawmill on McDowell creek was totally destroyed by fire Friday. Twelve men were employed and the cut was about 10,000 feet a day.

People with radios will be able to hear Thomas F. Green of the staff council of the Red Cross at 8 o'clock next Saturday evening, from the Oregonian broadcasting station. He has just returned from a tour of the east in which he spoke in twenty large cities.

J. D. Pittman and wife and little daughter Doris left Monday for a visit to relatives at San Jose and at the city of Morgan Hill, Calif. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

Somebody got uneasy about our water supply, so last Friday the city reservoir was emptied and scrubbed. Not a single dead cat or living microbe was discovered, so we breathe (and drink) easy again.

According to Stenberg Bros.' survey, strawberries will give a big yield this year. And Halsey territory is not raising enough strawberries for home consumption.

John Standish blew into the Enterprise office Thursday morning. He had arrived the evening before, on his way from Idaho to a job on the daily paper at Reedsport. He went on that evening.

Dairy Jubilee of Linn County

"Jersey Isle of America" Shows Its Right to the Title

Saturday, the 28d, at Bryant park, Albany, are the day and place for the Jersey jubilee of the county which has more Jersey cattle than any other in Oregon, which state, among other Jersey honors, contains two of the three medal-of-merit Jersey sires in the country.

It is not surprising, in view of the facts, that United States Jersey breeders dub Linn county "the Jersey Isle of America."

Oregon's farmer-governor has tentatively promised to be present and address the Bryant park gathering.

Horace Addis writes: "A Jersey bull, to qualify for a silver medal, gold medal or medal of merit, must have three daughters that have won medals in their respective classes. There are 52 Jersey cows qualified for medals of merit in the Jersey class. Of these Oregon has 18. Just three have qualified in the 305-day class and all are Oregon cows."

Lady Mary of Ashburn, with 14,019 pounds of milk and 844 63 pounds of butterfat to her credit, is a mature cow bred and owned by J. M. Dickson & Son of Shedd.

G. E. Jackson, who will experiment with flax, was reported from Albany as a Halsey man and so called in last week's Enterprise. The Harrisburg bulletin claims him for that locality and says he will sow two acres of the fiber plant, instead of one, one on good land and one on soil that has been over-cropped. That will be instructive.

Levens, state prohibition director.

Miss Joy Starr of Bellfountain visited Iona Albertson Sunday.

Mrs. A. L. Knighten and daughter were Albany visitors Monday.

Mesdames N. E. Chandler, R. K. Stewart, Myrel Settle and E. E. Hover attended the missionary meeting at Mrs. George Bayne's Thursday afternoon.

The program given by the school Friday evening was much enjoyed. The main feature was a two-act musical play, "The Enchanted Wood." The stage, trimmed in flowers, green branches and real trees, looked a veritable "wood." Lulu McNeil as "Mother Goose," Emma Johnson as "The Old Lady who lived in a shoe," Verne Eagy as Tom, the piper's son and Rose McNeil as "Little Miss Muffett," were a few of the characters, though all the rest were there from "Simple Simon" to "Mistress Mary." Gertrude Nichols as "queen of fairies" and her six small fairies were lovely in their dainty costumes. A song and drill, "Ladies of Japan," by Margaret Heinrich Ida McNeil and Helen and Jeanette Settle, in costume, was very good.

A Musical Visitor

Mrs. James W. Cary, who has been spending the winter in San Diego and Los Angeles, (her husband died on shipboard before reaching Panama and was buried at sea) left Halsey Saturday, after visiting about two weeks with her cousins, Edwin Russ and Mrs. Russ Kneeland, for Boston.

Mrs. Cary was the honor guest at several dinner parties.

At the S. P. Brock farm Mrs. Cary sang a number of Scotch songs, to the great delight of "Mother Brock," who said Mrs. Cary's singing of those songs was the best she ever heard. Mrs. Russ Kneeland and Mrs. Meda Forbes were also guests there.

Mrs. C. J. Powell and daughter-in-law served a genuine farm dinner, to the delight of Mrs. Cary and Mrs. Kneeland.

Mrs. Cary and Mrs. Kneeland were guests of Rev. J. W. and Mrs. Craig at Brownsville. After dinner and a visit Mrs. Craig accompanied her guests to Lester Walker's, where Mrs. Cary played and sang.

Mrs. William Turner gave a dinner on May day honoring Mrs. Cary. Other guests were Mrs. Kneeland and Mr. Russ. In the afternoon Mrs. Cary sang a number of Scotch songs and, by request, "The Ninety and Nine."

Mrs. Cary sang at the Baptist church, Brownsville, Sunday before last.

Mad Dog! Mad Dog! Look Out!

Chain Up Your Pet and Save His Life...The Plague Spreads

As to the strawberry, it was under a cloud last year, but this season there is promise of an abundant crop and satisfactory prices. A good deal of money will come into Linn county for this crop this year. Canning will probably start next Monday.

Rabies is epizo-otic at Sweet Home. Dogs, various domestic animals and men are suffering from it, though in the case of humans prompt steps have been taken which will probably prevent loss of life from it.

Despite all efforts to prevent its spread, the plague has already spread as far this way as Crawfordville.

Brownsville is under quarantine, no dogs or cats being permitted to run at large.

There is no such thing as being too safe.

This terrible disease has been chronic among coyotes in some sections east of the mountains for years. Last season food conditions were such that an unusual invasion by coyotes came over the coast range, they, as well as bears, preying upon livestock along the western foothills.

It is presumed that near Sweet Home a dog had a fight with a rabid coyote and came out alive but infected by a bite from the wild animal. Rabies appeared in Sweet Home and had a considerable foothold before it was correctly diagnosed.

Six days a week a mail stage runs from Halsey through Brownsville, Crawfordville and Holley to Sweet Home and return. Look out for your dogs!

School Notes

Brownsville defeated Halsey in a 13-inning baseball game here yesterday. It was unanimously declared the best game seen on the local diamond. The final score was 11 to 9. Each side used two hurlers. Woolley substituted for Norton and Overton for Tycer. After the 8th inning the game seemed a cinch for Brownsville, thus:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Brownsville	0	3	1	0	2	0	0	6
Halsey	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	1
but the finish came out:
	9	10	11	12	13
Brownsv.	6	0	0	0	5	—13
Halsey	1	and	5	0	0	0	3	—9

Both sides staged rallies in the thirteenth, but Halsey was unable to score two men on bases. Halsey, both in the 9th and 13th, scored with two out. The game was called at 7:30.

Wednesday was flunk day for the seniors and the rest of the school missed their shining faces. The juniors prepared to initiate their elders, but their plans were vetoed by the principal. They had a party in the evening.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 the junior-senior English class will present "A Day with Bobbie Burns in Bonnie Scotland," a varied literary program to which the public is invited. A charge of ten cents will be made, the proceeds of which will be used to help pay the expenses of the Brownsville baseball player who was injured in the game with Halsey in the early part of the season.

On the resignation of Mrs. Blackburn Grace Weddle of Lebanon was employed to finish her term as teacher in the Halsey schools.

John Standish and Mearle Straley visited the school last week.

In Friday's baseball game at Shedd Brownsville won, 9 to 3.

Prof. English's mother and sister of Eugene and brother George and wife of Junction City visited his family Sunday.
