

RURAL ENTERPRISE

A Weekly Chronicle of Local Events and Progress on Linn County Land

Agriculture
Horticulture
Livestock

HALSEY, ORE., U.S.A.

AUG. 2, 1923

Dairy
Poultry
Wool

Halsey Happenings and County Events

Doings of Our Populace Chronicles in Brief Paragraphs

Gilbert Carey is home.

Frank Porter police started his red polls on the road of the fire.

Over 700 China pheasants from state game farms have recently been liberated in this county.

It is inspired that one horse was nearly if not hit by a horse in the Park Ave. reported by our Kirk correspondent.

F. M. Maxwell, formerly school principal at Tangent, and family visited here and at Tangent Sunday. They are now located at Drain.

Oscar Chambers, farmer between Lebanon and Waterlon, escaped when sheriff Richards seized a still in operation on his farm, together with six gallons of moonshine.

Funds have been slow in coming in for the Big Brothers farm at Lebanon, and that's a pity, for those boys are getting some joy out of life and a help towards going straight.

A. A. Tussing got home Saturday from a trip to the Blue River mines which had occupied most of the week. Mining and ore-crushing are in progress there. He brought home some fine black huckleberries.

A car of cattle belonging to Roy Stewart of Brownsville was overturned in the freight yards at Albany Wednesday night. One animal was killed outright and it was buried. Two others with broken bones were slaughtered and the 800 pounds of meat they yielded was presented by the Southern Pacific to the W. C. T. U. children's home at Corvallis.

Following "As Man Desires," the play presented on page 10 for next Sunday, and Monday, August will be filled out at the Globe, Albany, with "Off the Highway," August 11 and 12; "De Class," August 13 and 14; "Soul Fire," August 15; "Zandis the Great," August 16, 17 and 18; "Waking Up the Town," August 19; "Love's Wilderness," August 20 and 21; "I'll Show You the Town," August 22; "The Marriage Whirl," August 23 and 24; "Playing With Souls," August 25 and 26; "My Son," August 27 and 28; "The Signal Tower," August 29 and "His Supreme Moment," August 30 and 31.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morgan, and wife.

A daughter was born to J. W. Pugh and wife at a Corvallis hospital July 29.

Comment sidewalk is going in front of the Oddfellows' to a road Hill & Co's store on second street.

Over 700 China pheasants from state game farms have recently been liberated in this county.

It is inspired that one horse was nearly if not hit by a horse in the Park Ave. reported by our Kirk correspondent.

F. M. Maxwell, formerly school principal at Tangent, and family visited here and at Tangent Sunday. They are now located at Drain.

Oscar Chambers, farmer between Lebanon and Waterlon, escaped when sheriff Richards seized a still in operation on his farm, together with six gallons of moonshine.

Funds have been slow in coming in for the Big Brothers farm at Lebanon, and that's a pity, for those boys are getting some joy out of life and a help towards going straight.

A. A. Tussing got home Saturday from a trip to the Blue River mines which had occupied most of the week. Mining and ore-crushing are in progress there. He brought home some fine black huckleberries.

A car of cattle belonging to Roy Stewart of Brownsville was overturned in the freight yards at Albany Wednesday night. One animal was killed outright and it was buried. Two others with broken bones were slaughtered and the 800 pounds of meat they yielded was presented by the Southern Pacific to the W. C. T. U. children's home at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Armstrong and Helen were in Albany Friday and Tuesday.

W. A. Cummings and wife and Mrs. Hannah Cummings were in Albany Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stahlaker are visiting here and intend to go on to Crater lake.

Leone Palmer is in a Corvallis hospital suffering from flu, with pneumonia threatening.

Miss Ethel Chensworth visited her sister, Mrs. Horace Armstrong, over the week end.

Nettie Spencer is home from Corvallis, she proposes to go back for more education, for she is one of those who know that nobody's education is ever complete.

D. H. Sutherland and wife and Miss Jean went to Portland yesterday. Also started with them, intending to stop off to visit at Salem.

Erl, Orville, and Dorothy Armstrong, grandchildren of A. C. Armstrong, came last week to visit their grandparents, with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Baker, from Lafayette, visited Mr. Baker's mother, Mrs. Davi, over the week end. Mrs. Baker was Oruga lay.

Tasboards have been stripped from the concrete of the new Burbank garage like the top from a tin being brought at a possible parade and the passer by can see what's what.

Mrs. W. B. Kewling of Portland, with two children, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Armstrong and Helen were in Albany Friday and Tuesday.

W. A. Cummings and wife and Mrs. Hannah Cummings were in Albany Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stahlaker are visiting here and intend to go on to Crater lake.

Leone Palmer is in a Corvallis hospital suffering from flu, with pneumonia threatening.

Miss Ethel Chensworth visited her sister, Mrs. Horace Armstrong, over the week end.

Nettie Spencer is home from Corvallis, she proposes to go back for more education, for she is one of those who know that nobody's education is ever complete.

D. H. Sutherland and wife and Miss Jean went to Portland yesterday. Also started with them, intending to stop off to visit at Salem.

Erl, Orville, and Dorothy Armstrong, grandchildren of A. C. Armstrong, came last week to visit their grandparents, with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Baker, from Lafayette, visited Mr. Baker's mother, Mrs. Davi, over the week end. Mrs. Baker was Oruga lay.

Tasboards have been stripped from the concrete of the new Burbank garage like the top from a tin being brought at a possible parade and the passer by can see what's what.

Mrs. W. B. Kewling of Portland, with two children, is in the city.

Albany's only
EXCLUSIVE
OPTICAL PARLORS
EVERYTHING OPTICAL
Bancroft Optical Co.
21 West First Street, Albany, Ore.

Preferred Stock Canned Goods

"Preferred Stock" means all that the name implies—the choice of the pack.

When you buy Preferred Stock goods you have wisely chosen incomparably the best, selected for size, flavor and quality.

Make the test yourself. Compare Preferred Stock with other brands and it will most with your discriminating choice.

Preferred Stock goods are not packed to meet a price. They are sold only to those who appreciate first quality.

It is true some brands are sold cheaper, but they are sold solely on price appeal.

We are distributors of about thirty varieties of Preferred Stock goods.

M. V. KOONTZ CO.

HALSEY, OREGON

Partial List of Contents

News of Halsey	Page 1
Brownsville	2
Alford	3
Blue Grove	4
Life	5
Ill Oregon	6
Church Announcements	7
Personal story	8
Friday school lesson	9
Editorial comment	10
Kitchen cabinet	11
Favorite story	12
Tommy's success	13
Illustrated column	14
Great Outdoors—Farm Items	15
Blue Grove	16
Home on Farm	17
Longford's Dream	18
That New Machine	19
Millions Voted	20
A Fortune in a Gift	21
Amateurism of Halsey	22
Waking up	23
Street Cleaning	24
Heads Not No Here	25
John Standish Going	26
Country	27
Mother's Cook Book	28

Alford Arrows

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rieck and sons Sunday afternoon callers at Lee Ingram's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Damm and children of Stead visited at E. A. Starnes' Sunday.

P. I. Troutman and family of Stead visited Mr. Troutman's sister, Mrs. D. I. Ison, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Troutman of Albany called on Mr. Troutman's sister, Mrs. D. I. Ison, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lena Gourley and husband, Miss Bernice Bond of Los Angeles, called on Mrs. E. W. Ison Saturday afternoon.

Miss Esther Starnes came home from the Hoffman home, where she was working Sunday. She is on the sick list.

Miss Lillie Richard returned home Wednesday from Portland, where she had been in a hospital for the removal of an ovarian tumor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Robinson and daughter Doris and C. E. Member of Eugene visited Mrs. D. I. Ison Wednesday evening and took Mrs. C. E. Member back with them for a few days at home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cogwell and son Philip of Portland stopped at their farm for a while Friday on their way home from Klamath Falls, where they had been to visit their daughter, Mrs. Richard Stanton.

Sunday evening callers at Chester Curtis' were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bond and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Falk and four children. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith of Portland spent Sunday and Monday with the Curtises.

Wednesday Mrs. L. E. Ison and daughter Vera of Albany and their guests, Misses Lena and Grace Erdgruber of Woodland, Wash., called on Mrs. E. D. Ison, who accompanied them to Corvallis to visit her sister, Mrs. W. C. Heflin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Ison of Oakridge arrived Tuesday last week to be at the bedside of Mr. Ison's mother, Mrs. B. I. Ison, who is quite ill. Mr. Ison returned to his work Thursday, while Mrs. Ison stayed to help care for her mother-in-law.

To Ask Help of Our Uncle Sam

Portland, Ore.—Plans for a concerted drive upon Washington to obtain federal aid for the development of the Columbia basin irrigation project were outlined at the organization meeting of the trustees of the project here.

Most important of the items taken up at the meeting of the trustees was the appointment of E. K. Gordon, former secretary of the project, as the Washington representative of the league. He will give the entire time he is spending here from the department of the interior and from the treasury for the development of the project.

Fred A. Adams was appointed secretary. He will have no salary. This action was deemed necessary for economy. Adams has recently held the position as educational director.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Harvey Gardner, Seattle; vice-presidents, W. L. Jones, Portland; J. V. Landon, Valla, Valla; and Carl Nelson, Bend, Bend, White.

President Gardner presented an on-leave committee report to the trustees. The committee has been working on the distribution of water in the Columbia basin. The committee has been working on the distribution of water in the Columbia basin. The committee has been working on the distribution of water in the Columbia basin.

The water allocations in the Columbia basin will be necessary in the plan for the development of the project, which will be necessary in the plan for the development of the project, which will be necessary in the plan for the development of the project.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Harvey Gardner, Seattle; vice-presidents, W. L. Jones, Portland; J. V. Landon, Valla, Valla; and Carl Nelson, Bend, Bend, White.

President Gardner presented an on-leave committee report to the trustees. The committee has been working on the distribution of water in the Columbia basin. The committee has been working on the distribution of water in the Columbia basin. The committee has been working on the distribution of water in the Columbia basin.

GERMANS WANTS POLES

Washington, D. C.—The German government has demanded that the United States government should immediately cease the German with continuing in Poland. It pointed out that Germany is prepared to make immediate reparations.

Germany in Poland who used the German in the past in 1921, which resulted in the division of upper Silesia between Poland and Germany, have been ordered by Poland out of the territory awarded to her. Thousands of Germans are leaving Poland and have been assembled at Schindlerheim, on the German side of the frontier.

There still remains in upper Silesia Germans who were ordered to leave if they are finally ordered Germany will retaliate by sending out of Germany all Poles who were ordered to leave in the past. Some 400,000 or 500,000 of such Poles have already left Germany, leaving only small number subject to forcible eviction if Germany takes that step.

East, South Russia Again Hits Texas.

Houston, Tex.—The first second time within less than a year that an south disease has been found in cattle near Houston, according to announcement by Dr. E. J. Hurd, member of the state livestock sanitary commission.

Allen Ford Dead Investigated.

Washington, D. C.—The return in 1921 by the alien property custodian of several million dollars is being held by the American Social company in order investigation by department of justice agents here and abroad.

L. E. Miles Burns to be Reorganized.

Washington, D. C.—Reorganization of the United States Bureau of mines was started August 1 when a committee appointed for the purpose met here with Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Pine Grove Points

(By Special Correspondent)

Albert Heinrich was a Corvallis visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Ruby Darney left Friday to visit her sister in Washington.

John Abertson and Ruth McNeil were Albany visitors Friday.

W. G. McNeil and family attended the next meeting at Albany Sunday.

Charles Gibson and son Ross of Corvallis visited at the Gibson farm Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Githens and Mrs. A. L. Kington were in Corvallis Saturday.

Miss Grace Robinson returned to her work at the H. P. English home Sunday.

The River and Haynes fire-trail will finish the fall run about Wednesday (today).

Mr. Elsie Pierce of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. George of Eugene visited at E. K. Stewart's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sylvester and Mrs. Stewart were having dental work done at Brownsville Saturday.

Dr. Churchill of Los Angeles visited E. K. Stewart Monday. Dr. Churchill lived in the Lake Grove neighborhood years ago.

Mr. W. G. McNeil, Mrs. Agnes McNeil, Mrs. L. E. Egg, and Mrs. E. E. Haver visited Mrs. Mary Palmer at the Lyman Palmer home Friday afternoon.

Mr. A. L. Kington and Mrs. E. E. Haver drove to Corvallis Wednesday morning after some cream, which the Haver and Haver thrashing crew enjoyed at the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Crook and daughter Bernice and Pauline Smith visited at Harry Crook's in Halsey Sunday.

Gertrude Gengsbach and Nella Raster left Saturday for their home in Portland, after being with their grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Falk in several weeks.

Lila Bodley was in Albany Friday.

Brownsville Briefs

(Special Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison drove to Lebanon one day last week.

Miss Mabel Loveman left Friday for Salem to visit her aunt, Mrs. E. E. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Williams of Lebanon spent the week end at their home in north Brownsville.

Dr. and Mrs. Gossard spent the week end at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Starnard, Harvey Starnard, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Starnard and sons Boyce and James and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Starnard attended the Starnard reunion in Salem Sunday.

Miss Cynthia Blum was married to A. E. Howard of Siskiyou a week ago. Mrs. Blum is a well-respected citizen at Brownsville, a happy, cheerful woman, and Mr. Howard is a well-known citizen of that city. Mr. Howard has lived a number of years and is well known by all who know him. This worthy couple will make their home at Siskiyou for the present.

Louis Geist and Belle Burton and Bruce Burton and Gladys Hoy were married at Albany Monday morning at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. Mr. Gagnon. His wife is a young young people are well known, the Burtons having been born and raised there, and there are no better young people anywhere. Louis Geist is a young business man at Lebanon and a fine boy. Gladys was a graduate of the local high school this year and is a good all-around girl. Mr. and Mrs. Burton expect to live on the Millwood place, where Bruce has been manager for the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Geist will make their home in Lebanon.

Harry Falk is off on that mission.

Charles Holloway has sold his farm to F. A. Bond of Vancouver, who has moved here with his family.

John D. Brown and Daniel married Mary E. Davis in Portland. Mrs. Davis formerly taught school, but now owns the "Imperial Shopper" in Albany. She is the daughter of A. C. McDaniel of Brownsville. Mr. Davis is the son of J. E. Davis of Albany, is a graduate of the U. S. C. and is a large business with the Southern Pacific. The couple will make their home in Albany, where the groom owns property.

Church of Christ

Sunday School, 10
Christian Endeavor, 7
Prayering, 10 and 8

The services in the morning will be on "Who Should Preach of the Lord's Supper?" the last of a series of four.

The Christian Endeavor topic will be "Whosoever Will" the topic for the evening services.

Cliffs of Casey, pastor.

W. E. Church

Robert Butler, pastor.
Sunday school, 10
Prayering, 10
Junior League, 8
Inter-Grade League, 7
Episcopal League, 7
Prayering, 8
Days meeting, Thursday.

Kirk Kniks

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

A new barn is being erected on the Varnice farm southeast of town.

Edith Blyen visited her sister, Mrs. A. L. Falk, Wednesday afternoon.

The Falk thrashing machine began work Monday, thrashing for Harry Falk.

The A. L. Falk family and Albert West were at Harry Falk's Sunday.

Mrs. A. M. Snodgrass visited her sister, Mrs. Henry Falk, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Henry Beckfield and daughter, Mrs. Alice Jones, are on the sick list this week.

Nellie and Grace Falk visited Gertrude Gengsbach and Nella Raster Friday afternoon.

L. E. Wathen and wife have rented a residence in Hartburg. Friday Mrs. Wathen was here attending to the removal of household goods to that city. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cross have moved into the rented Wathen home.

Sunday School, 10
Christian Endeavor, 7
Prayering, 10 and 8

The services in the morning will be on "Who Should Preach of the Lord's Supper?" the last of a series of four.

The Christian Endeavor topic will be "Whosoever Will" the topic for the evening services.

Cliffs of Casey, pastor.

W. E. Church

Robert Butler, pastor.
Sunday school, 10
Prayering, 10
Junior League, 8
Inter-Grade League, 7
Episcopal League, 7
Prayering, 8
Days meeting, Thursday.