

RURAL ENTERPRISE

Agriculture
Horticulture
Livestock

A Weekly Chronicle of Local Events and Progress on Linn County Land

HALSEY, OREGON

SEPT. 30, 1925

Dairy
Poultry
Wool

Halsey Happenings and County Events

Doings of Our Populace Chronicled in Brief Paragraphs

G. W. Laubner and wife are at the fair today.

H. L. Straley and wife were in Albany Thursday.

The first meeting of the Halsey Study club will be held tomorrow at the T. I. Marks home.

C. H. Davidson and wife and Mrs. Hussey and son George are state fair visitors today.

Rev. Robert Parker is at the annual conference in Eugene. The church has asked that he remain here as pastor another year.

Joe W. Drinkard and wife are moving to their farm today. Mrs. W. G. McNeil and children will occupy the house they vacated during the school year.

Mrs. M. V. Koontz has so far recovered that she has dismissed her trained nurse.

It is appropriate that Irish potatoes should be better raised at Irish Bend than if they grew at Scotch or French Bend. Irish Bend potatoes are Otis Farwell of Shedd was badly hurt when his hand was caught in a feed chopper on the Dickson farm. He came to Dr. Marks, who took him to an Albany hospital.

Kenneth Overton, Fremont Torbet, Burl Tyer and Delmar Schick, all Brownsville boys, wrecked Schick's car and injured Tyer pretty seriously when they ran into a telephone pole in turning to Halsey from the Brownsville road.

The funeral of William Brock, who died in a Eugene hospital, was at two yesterday afternoon, Rev. M. Shangle officiating. Mr. Brock left three brothers in this vicinity—Luther, Randall and Henry, and four sisters, Mesdames C. S. Williams and Thomas Ardry of Halsey, Ed Wigle of Browns-

Albany's only
EXCLUSIVE
OPTICAL PARLORS
EVERYTHING OPTICAL
Bancroft Optical Co.
313 West First street, Albany, Or.

Preferred Stock Canned Goods

"Preferred Stock" means all that the name implies—the choice of the pack.

When you buy Preferred Stock goods you have wisely chosen incomparably the best, selected for size, flavor and quality.

Make the test yourself. Compare Preferred Stock with other brands and it will meet with your discriminating choice.

Preferred Stock goods are not packed to meet a price. They are sold only to those who appreciate first quality.

It is true some brands are sold cheaper, but they are sold solely on price appeal.

We are distributors of about thirty varieties of Preferred Stock goods.

M. V. KOONTZ CO.
HALSEY, OREGON

Harrisburg. Guy Herman of Newport.

J. W. Rector is home from Newport.

advertised in this paper at less than 2c a pound.

L. E. Walton was in town from Harrisburg Sunday.

T. J. Skirvin was at the I. O. O. F. grand lodge in Portland.

Lillian Sneed was home from Portland for the week end.

Miss Ida Mitzner was home from Albany over the week end.

C. P. Stafford and wife visited the Shislars at Harrisburg Sunday.

Curtis Veach and family attended the county fair at Eugene Friday.

Mrs. Glenn Chance came from Corvallis Saturday and visited at H. W. Chance's.

Mrs. R. H. Dougherty notified of a change of address from Pomeroy, Wash., to Seattle.

O. W. Frum and family, Mrs. E. E. Gormley and Dorothy Corcoran were at the county fair Friday.

T. P. Patton and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. O. B. Stalnaker, at Corvallis Thursday and called at Albany.

Lyman Palmer and wife were in Albany Friday to see the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Palmer, off for her home at Sierra Madre, Calif.

Half-fare tickets to Salem and return are good on any train within the twenty-four hours of Friday, Oct. 2, the big day of the state fair.

George Maxwell went home to Washington with the Chialvos and Sawyers Saturday for a stay of a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bressler were at Newport Saturday.

The accepted version of the Bible does not say that it was an apple that tempted Adam to his fall. It might have been a peach. There are some peaches in Halsey that could tempt any ordinary man to go there way.

The Enterprise when going to press amended a local item in accordance with what it found in another paper and joined John M. Porter and Mrs. Robnett with Mrs. LaFollette's proposed venture in Corvallis. This was an error, the news-gatherer soon found out.

Partial List of Contents

| | | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------|------------------------------------|---|
| News of Halsey..... | page 1 | Column of Fun..... | 3 |
| Pine Grove..... | 1 | To Revolutionize Printing..... | 6 |
| Kirk..... | 1 | The Meat We Eat..... | 6 |
| All Oregon..... | 5 | Vets Get $16,000,000 in Year..... | 6 |
| Church Announcements..... | 2 | Cooking Recipes..... | 7 |
| Daddy's Fairy Tale..... | 1 | Home Canning of Peaches..... | 7 |
| Editorial Comment..... | 4 | Daddy's Fairy Tale..... | 7 |
| Serial Story..... | 2 | Veterans' Conventions..... | 5 |
| Fashions..... | 7 | Long Railroad Hearing..... | 5 |
| Great Outdoors—Farm Items..... | 4 | French Debt Controversy..... | 5 |
| Markets..... | 8 | Work Refuses Moratorium..... | 5 |
| Biggest and Best County Fair..... | 4 | More Harrisburg Drownings..... | 1 |
| Women, Wine and Stanfield..... | 1 | Millions Against Booze..... | 1 |
| Sunday School Lesson..... | 2 | Prosecutor at Kelso..... | 1 |
| "Adirondack" Murray..... | 3 | Nuts in Sandwiches..... | 7 |

Alford Arrows

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

J. H. Rickard and family visited at Charles Jenks' at Tangent Sunday.

E. D. Isom and family attended the county fair Thursday of last week.

Joe Cersovski and family spent Sunday at Joe Stroda's near Harrisburg.

One of the victims of the accident at the Harrisburg ferry was buried at Alford Sunday afternoon.

Henrietta and Esther Starnes called on Thelma Ingram Sunday afternoon.

Chester Curtis and family were Sunday evening callers at Bert Clark's in Halsey.

Thelma Ingram accompanied her friends, Edith and Ruth Long, to the fair at Albany Friday.

Mrs. L. E. Bond of Albany spent Tuesday evening of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Isom.

E. A. Starnes spent several days last week in Oregon City and Portland, visiting relatives and attending the sovereign grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. in the latter city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitbeck went to Portland Tuesday. Mr. Whitbeck, who attended the sovereign grand lodge, returned the latter part of the week, while Mrs. Whitbeck remained for a longer visit.

Several families in this community are moving this week. Sam Greene's are moving to their new home near Coburg. Ellsworth Curtis has moved to the Seth Mills place and Brian Perry is moving to the place vacated by Mr. Curtis. E. A. Starnes and family are moving to a place about two miles northwest of Shedd.

The accident happened early Friday morning. The men had come from the north and supposed they were on the east-side highway until they started down the incline to the ferry. Their brakes, about which they had been warned at a filling station, failed to stop the car and it dashed across the boat, broke the safety chains and plunged into the river.

We need that bridge.

A Big, Big Steal

In their eastern trip Mr. and Mrs. Sickels visited a daughter near Teapot dome. And they saw the dome. A great tract is laid out with an oil well every 400 feet each way and pumps running day and night.

This looks like one of those cases where the thieves got enough booty so they could purchase immunity. They didn't steal a dollar and a half or they might have gone to jail.

Prosecutor Named for Kelso Cases

Olympia, Wash. — Appointment of Assistant Attorney General R. G. Sharpe, as a special prosecutor in the case of the murder of Thomas Dorey, Kelso editor, was announced here by Attorney General John H. Dunbar.

The governor's action was taken at the request of Prosecuting Attorney H. R. Imus, Sheriff Clarke Studebaker of Cowlitz county, and Mayor Smith of Kelso, who assert that matters have progressed to such a state that the local authorities are powerless to handle the situation. Sharpe, an assistant attorney general, will proceed to Cowlitz county and take full charge of the matters of prosecution of all charges which may come up legally.

French Governor of Morocco Quits

Fez, French Morocco. — Marshal Lyantey, governor general of French Morocco, has resigned.

Church of Christ

Sunday School, 10.
Preaching, 11.

Christian Endeavor, 6:30.
Preaching, 7:30.

Remember that the evening services are one-half hour earlier.

There will be 131 present at the Rally day next Sunday. Basket dinner after church. Obey first half of Rv. 22:17.

Clifford Carey, pastor.

M. E. Church

Robert Parker pastor.
Sunday school, 10.
Preaching, 11.

Junior League, 3.
Epworth league, 7.
Preaching, 8.

Prayer-meeting Thursday.
Bible Study Tuesday, 2:30.

Good Potatoes from Irish Bend

$1.90 a hundred.

N. H. HESS, Brownsville

Pine Grove Points

(By Special Correspondent)

A. L. Knighten was an Albany caller Saturday.

Fred Sylvester has a carbide lighting system installed.

Dean Bilyeu is building a new chicken house on his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler and son were Albany visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pyle attended the Lane county fair at Eugene Wednesday.

There will be a community meeting at the schoolhouse next Friday evening.

Bert Haynes took a load of cattle to the new home near Crabtree for Ira Minor Thursday.

Miss Nora Pehrsson left Tuesday for Salem to take up her studies at Willamette university.

Mrs. Sylvester's brother and family of Beaverton spent the week end at the Sylvester home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hover and son Robert visited R. K. Stewart and family at Pleasant Hill Sunday.

Misses Agnes Chandler, Iona Albertson and Grace Pehrsson went to Monmouth Saturday to attend Normal.

John McNeil went to the fair Wednesday and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols were among those attending Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler and son Richard and Miss Agnes Chandler attended the county fair Tuesday.

Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. N. E. Chandler and Miss Agnes Chandler attended the Missionary meeting at Mrs. J. W. LaMar's Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. L. E. Eagy and Mrs. Hover visited Mrs. Mary Palmer at Lyman Palmer's Wednesday. Mrs. Palmer left Friday evening for San Jose, Cal., to visit Mrs. Ben Ivey, before going on to her home at Sierra Madre.

Among the Pine Grove people attending the fair Friday were N. H. Cummings, Fred Sylvester, Bert Haynes, W. G. McNeil, W. D. McLaren, Floyd Nichols and Fred Heinrich and their families, Mrs. J. A. Johnson and daughters and Mrs. E. E. Hover and Robert and Mrs. Pehrsson.

Millions Needed to Fight Booze

Washington, D. C.—Congress will be asked to appropriate about $30,000,000 to enforce prohibition and narcotic laws for the year ending June 30, 1927.

This was made known at the treasury in connection with the completion of hearings on the prohibition budget. Eleven million dollars was fixed specifically for administration of the Volstead act and a similar amount to balance expenditures in 1925 and 1926.

Approximately $11,000,000 more will be sought for law enforcement activities of the coast guard, while several million dollars will be added to the department of justice budget for operations incident to dry enforcement.

There is a possibility that an additional appropriation to make permanent the all-Atlantic coast rum patrol will be authorized, Assistant Director W. H. Lord said.

APPROVE ARMS CONFERENCE

Preparations for Meeting to Be Begun at Once.

Geneva.—Leaders of the assembly of the league of nations, including representatives of Great Britain and France, reached an accord regarding a future disarmament conference, preparations for which will be begun immediately.

Under the terms of the agreement, the disarmament conference, which will be convoked by the league only when the council is convinced that security has been achieved, will be undertaken by a new organization to be known as a "commission to study for the reduction and limitation of armaments," with the distinct understanding, however, that all states having special interests in the disarmament problem and which are not now represented in the council will have a place on this commission.

Women, Wine and Stanfield

Hilarity Leads to Gloom Bail is Forfeited and Trial Evaded

Last Thursday's Portland Journal contained an interview with the policeman who arrested Senator Stanfield at Baker on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He said:

"I had just left my home and proceeded to the Senate restaurant. I did not notice anything unusual until I took a seat at the counter. There was rather loud talking — not too loud — but it was such that it attracted my attention. I turned and saw a man sitting with two women. He was slumped down a bit and as I looked I saw him being fed French fried potatoes by one of his companions.

"He expressed satisfaction over the potatoes and asked for some more, reaching over with his fingers and picked up one of them.

"I ate a bowl of soup and the talk continued, and it was embarrassing. It was attracting attention and I simply had to do my duty.

"As he started up the aisle, he staggered and I got off the stool. I stepped up to him in a gentlemanly manner and told him he was under arrest for being drunk and disorderly. He had reached the cashier's counter and as I said that he picked up a match holder and raised it as if to strike me. With that he said, 'You little (—), I'll kill you.' I grabbed his right hand with my left and then swung for his jaw. He was too big and heavy for me to handle and the blow did not slow him up a bit.

"With his strength he swung me around, facing those who were in the restaurant. A man came up to the desk and I appealed to him to take hold of Stanfield's left hand. His name was S. W. Lewis, a tourist from California, but I didn't know him nor had I ever seen him before.

"We got him out on the sidewalk and I saw J. J. Troy, also of Baker, and appealed to him to help us. He came up and took hold of his right hand with me. Then it was that Stanfield told me who he was, adding, 'You can't arrest me; I'm a United States senator.'

"I said I could and would do so. He wanted me to go to the hotel but I insisted that he be taken to the city hall.

"I explained the situation to my superior and it was agreed that Stanfield should be booked on the police docket.

"We've had enough blow-offs in the Baker police department," Hallock said, as he turned to the chief, "and Waldo this will ruin you if you put his name on the docket."

"Well, I guess we can stand another blowoff" said the chief, and he ordered that Stanfield be booked.

"Bail was placed at $50 and it was put up. When the trial was called, no one showed up to defend the senator and the bail was ordered forfeited.

"Mr. and Mrs. Lewis remained in Baker two days to tell what they had seen and there were other witnesses who were willing to testify."

An article on page six, after showing that more pork per person is eaten in the country than in town and more beef in town than in the country gives as a reason the difference between outdoor and indoor life. We are inclined to think the reason is that shops where fresh meat can be had are not at hand for many farmers to patronize, therefore they use cured pork, which is more easily had than cured beef.