

Albany Directory

This is good advice: "If you live in Albany, trade in Albany; if you live in some other town, trade in that town." But in these automobile days many residing elsewhere find it advisable to do at least part of their buying in the larger town. Those who go to Albany to transact business will find the firms named below ready to fill their requirements with courtesy and fairness.

The final chapter in action brought by Jefferson county against H. C. Toppling, defaulting sheriff, under American Surety company of New York, his bondsman, was closed when the surety company paid to the county clerk the sum of $2633.19. The county court authorized the clerk to satisfy the judgment in full.

Verne C. Gorst, of North Bend, pioneer in motor and aerial transportation circles, will receive the contract for carrying air mail over the branch line from Los Angeles to Seattle with a stop at Portland if he can satisfy the postoffice department he has means available to establish and operate such a line successfully.

As a result of interest payments, expenses and various items, the state's general fund after January 1 will probably be the smallest in 10 years. This is asserted by State Treasurer Kay in commenting upon the withdrawal in September of more than $3,000,000 of the general fund on deposit in various banks in Oregon.

Thousands of ducks and geese lie dead in Tule lake as a result of a strange malady, believed induced either by alkali water or by rank, stagnant ponds. To cope with the situation the United States biological survey has been notified, and will conduct an examination to determine what is the cause of the wholesale deaths.

Plans for the new St. Helens pulp and paper mill to be built at St. Helens by a company in which the total of 9149 China pheasants and 614 Hungarian partridges have been liberated from the three state game farms so far this year, according to the September report of E. F. Averill, game warden.

The Associated Stores, of Salem, was incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000. The enterprise now owns 12 stores, located in Salem, Dallas, Newport, Toledo, Silverton, Monmouth and Hebo, and has options that probably will increase their stores to 40.

By an overwhelming majority the people of Medford at a special election voted for a new $975,000 city water system with a source at Big Butte springs, more than 30 miles away. A bond issue of $50,000 for a new temporary city hall was also voted.

Of 43,721 tourist automobiles inspected at the station at Baker, more than 50 per cent were operated by persons who were either "dead broke" or on short rations, according to a report filed with Governor Pierce by H. H. Weatherspoon, commissioner for the fifth horticultural district.

A crash between a Troutdale interurban street car and an automobile at Arata station, near Portland, resulted in the death of the three occupants of the auto. The dead are J. R. Grathwohl, 36, farmer; Alta Grathwohl, 19, his wife, and Betty Grathwohl, their 2-year-old daughter.

Creamery robbers, believed to be the same who have looted numerous creameries all over the Willamette valley and at various places in the state of Washington, took 700 pounds of butter from the creamery at Jefferson, piled it on the creamery platform and left it there, evidently having been scared away before they could complete the job. Thousands of pounds of butter have been taken from the various Oregon creameries during the past few months.

Hawley Pulp & Paper company of Oregon City holds the majority of the stock, will be drawn at once. Ground then will be broken and it is expected that the first unit of the plant, costing $1,500,000, will be ready for operation in November, 1926.

Robert N. Stanfield, United States senator, conferred with farmers along the River road north of Eugene Saturday regarding means of curbing the overflow of the Willamette river during freshet seasons. During the past few years the water has been washing away considerable land and it was hoped that some means might be provided to construct a breakwater to prevent it.

Oregon pensions have been granted as follows: Samuel J. Grimer, Portland, $15 per month; Fred Hargreaves, Portland, $12; Marvin W. Joy, St. Johns, Portland, $12; Eliza A. Obert, Milton, $30; Morris A. G. Christenson, Eugene, $12; Bela H. Zimmerman, Strassel, $12; Silvey Wood, Junction City, $18; Charles L. Stephens, Banks, $12; Henry M. Marsh, Medford, $24; Johanna C. Perry, Salem, $20.

A heavy snow storm early in the week, which turned into a hard rain, following several other such storms at Crater lake national park recently, caused all paving work for the winter to be called off. The various camp tents were struck and equipment stored until the paving work, which will probably last nearly all next summer, can be resumed next spring or early summer, weather permitting.

The Oregon-California Hydro-electric company of Portland has been granted a preliminary permit for two years for a power project on Zig Zag, Salmon and Sandy rivers in Clackamas county, the federal power commission has announced. The project consists of diversion dams, a storage dam, conduits and a power house. The estimated capacity of the project is 23,000 horsepower and the installed capacity 70,000 horsepower.

The action of Governor Pierce in vetoing the much-discussed special election measure passed by the 1925 legislature was upheld in a decision by Justice Brown following mandamus proceedings in the Oregon supreme court. The decision follows the action filed by Representative Swan of Albany, who had demanded that Secretary of State Kozer comply with the provisions of the act as passed by both houses. Secretary Kozer assumed the position that he could not authorize a special election after Governor Pierce had vetoed the bill.

Hydro-electric power, state-owned and operated, became a possible problem for Oregon voters with the filing of a proposed constitutional amendment with the secretary of state at Salem. The measure was presented by the Housewives' Council, Inc., of Portland, through Josephine M. Othus, president; Clara M. Simonton, director, and Mary A. Dean, chairman of the legislative committee. The proposition presents a plan for promoting hydro-electric power development, control and distribution, financed and protected by the state.
