

Albany Directory

This is good advice: "If you live in Albany, trade in Albany; if you live in some other town, trade in that town." But in these automobile days many residing elsewhere find it advisable to do at least part of their buying in the larger town. Those who go to Albany to transact business will find the firms named below ready to fill their requirements with courtesy and fairness.

Mitchell Backers Testify for Him
Mitchell Counsel Says "Criminal and Almost Treasonable" Action Will be Proved.

Washington, D. C.—Another reverberating cannonade of accusations was turned loose Monday by Colonel William Mitchell against those in charge of the military and naval air services. Through his counsel, Representative Frank R. Reid, the colonel informed the court-martial trying him because of his previous utterances in the air controversy, that he was fully prepared to prove his charge of "criminal and almost treasonable" negligence in government aviation.
Among the multitude of offenses of which the defense counsel promised to furnish proof were these:
That the Shenandoah went on her fatal western trip unfit and against the will of her commander, Zachary Lansdowne.
That a naval officer sought to have Lansdowne's widow give false testimony.
That those who arranged the unsuccessful Hawaiian flight of the PN-9, No. 1, were "incompetent."
That high army and navy officers had testified falsely before committees of congress.
That Colonel Mitchell himself "was demoted and transferred because he told the truth."
That government aviators are put to unnecessary hazards and many killed as a result.
That the government has failed to thwart a project to give a foreign flight organization a foothold near the Panama canal and to have provided adequate air protection to Hawaii and the Philippines.

The state of Oregon through the apportionment of funds derived from the sale and lease of lands within its national forests, will receive from the federal government $168,804.20, according to information received at the executive department at Salem. Following receipt of a check covering this amount, the state treasurer will apportion the funds among the various counties in which the national forests are located. There are 12,199,358 acres of land in the national forests in Oregon, according to the federal report.

Whether the state highway commission has authority under the law to limit the weight of loads moved over the state highways will be determined in a legal action to be tried in the United States district court in Portland November 25. J. M. Devers, assistant attorney-general, will represent the state. The suit to test the validity of the law was filed by R. B. Morris, doing business as Morris & Lowther; the John Day Valley Freight line, Bend-Portland Transit and the Portland-Hood River Truck Line company. Two federal judges will hear the case.
