Halsey Happenings and County Events

Doings of Our Populace Chronicled in Brief Paragraphs

Charles Bafford was indicted by the grand jury for assault and battery and Jim Howard for moonshining.

A meeting of stock buyers interested in stabilizing prices was held in Corvallis Saturday. Bert Minckley attended from here.

The demand for sheep and for pasture land for them exceeds the supply. Confidence in the wool and mutton industry is high.

If you don't want your dog in the soup, or the sausage, or wherever it is that delinquent pups go, get a license this month.

Two carloads of cured prunes, 30 tons to the car, went from Lebanon for New York one day last week and a carload for Louisiana.

James Murray, indicted with others for having possession in Portland of bonds stolen from the Shedd bank, has been released on bond.

A day of good luck was last Friday, though it lacked 24 hours of being the 13th. It was Lincoln's birthday and the day of the new moon and the sun shone all day, and in the evening was the diversion of a trial in the recorder's court.

are drawn on the county grand jury.

Don't forget the basket social next Monday.

Mrs. Carrie Overton and family were in Halsey today from Brownsville.

Sam Garland may be the joint state senator from Linn and Lane counties this year.

The Linn-Benton Cattle club plans an all-day meeting and basket dinner at Shedd tomorrow.

Francis E. Williams of Halsey and Lillian G. Vanderwerk of Eugene are announced as newly-weds.

Douglas Taylor of Halsey, C. P. Kizer and A. L. McAfee of Harrisburg and C. H. Brown of Shedd are on the new board of directors of the county fair.

Inez Merritt is ill and out of school. Mrs. L. A. Pray has been caring for her while Mrs. Freeland is away.

At the last meeting of the Rebekahs Miss Gladys Willbanks was elected as a candidate for initiation.

The Jefferson editor is in a bad fix. He says: "We have mumps in our midst." Surely a most inconvenient place to have mumps. —Harrisburg Bulletin.

Work of tearing down the old Albany bridge will be started immediately. This work had been held up pending disposition by the state supreme court of the injunction involving the same bridge.

Mrs. Arnold, the nurse employed at J. W. Clark's, became ill Monday and had to return home. Mrs. Clark has improved enough to be up and around the house.

Roy Reynolds celebrated his fifteenth birthday with a party Monday evening. About twenty youngsters were present with birthday remembrances. Refreshments were served.

John Morgan and wife of Long Beach, Cal., have been visiting relatives here. Mesdames F. M. Gray, O. R. Bond and J. T. McNeil are Mr. Morgan's sisters and J. W. Morgan a brother.

There will be a meeting of all the ordained ministers of Linn county in the Methodist church Albany at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, March 3 to discuss matters of interest and to take charge of the program of the Albany chamber of commerce at its noon luncheon.

Another State

Prison Outbreak

Nine Rioters Receive Lead Pills and All Become Quite Meek

About 5:30 last evening after the convicts in the state prison entered the dining room for a meal they attempted a riot. Guards were summoned and, when an order to desist was ignored, fired on the leaders and wounded nine. Thereupon the convicts became very peaceful and obedient to orders. One of the wounded was Frank Davis, a thief sent from this county two months ago.

One or two of the wounded will probably become permanently good and missing as a result of the lead treatment.

UNLESS WE HELP THEY WILL PERISH

One hundred thousand exiles from Turkey were homeless in Syria three months ago. The French and Druse war created about 40,000 more refugees, among whom are multitudes of children.

In Bulgaria are a half million destitute refugees among whom are scores of thousands of orphans whose condition is heart-rending. Without aid they are doomed to misery, ignorance and suffering for life. Thousands upon thousands of children could be guaranteed a chance for a happy, useful life by our aid for only a year or so.

We have helped rescue more than 100,000 children and have trained them for useful lives. Thirty-five thousand of these are still in our care, besides at least 15,000 in refugee camps asking only a meal a day.

Will you give as liberally for these as you would have others give if yours were among the homeless?

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Falk sr., Albert West and the H. J. and A. L. Falk families entertained the flu last week. R. C., H. W. A. and Webster Falk assisted the sick families with their work.

Drs. Garnjost and Howard settled their claims against the Nancy Palmer estate at $20 a visit, instead of the $30 they claimed, and the residue goes to an aged brother and sister of the decedent and perhaps other relatives.

Happenings in Public Schools

Principal and Mrs. Patton Entertain ... P. T. A. Has Birthday

(School Reporter)

Halsey high school has elected the three delegates to the O. A. C. educational exposition. They are Frank Koontz, Curran Miller and Martin Koontz.

Saturday evening those who participated in basketball were entertained at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Patton. Present were Mrs. Shotwell, Mr. McWilliams, Thomas Palmer, Frank and Martin Koontz, Ruth McNeil, Delora Wells, Harry Hussey, Lillian and Elsie Reynolds, James Rector, Elias Robins, Clara Blood, Mary Heinrich and Ralph McNeil. Mrs. Patton served a dinner which was much enjoyed. Afterwards everyone listened in on the basketball game at O. A. C.

Since all the basketball games have been canceled, the boys are practicing baseball.

Many of the students who have been absent from school due to the flu are now back at the "old grind."

Wednesday afternoon a program was held in the High School room in honor of Lincoln's birthday and arbor day. The Freshmen and Sophomores furnished it.

English Teacher—I will not tolerate this noise much longer. Bright Student—No, I guess not. School will be out in a few weeks.

(Enterprise Correspondence)

The P. T. A. celebrated its 29th birthday anniversary at the meeting Friday evening. There was a birthday program and a two-tier birthday cake, baked and donated by Mesdames B. M. Bond and D. H. Sturtevant. The program was carried out as follows:

Song, "America."

Reading, Miss Enid Veatch.

Song, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean."

"Athletics and Games for Children," Prof. Patton.

"History and Significance of Child Welfare Day," Mrs. Irma Shotwell.

"Sketch of the Life of Mrs. Theodore Birney," Mrs. Coleman.

Song, "Oregon, My Oregon."

A feature of the program was the lighting of the candles of the birthday cake and an alphabetical reading was given by each one present as each candle was lighted. After the program, the cakes were cut and sold at five cents a slice. The proceeds, $1.50, went to the association.

A vote of thanks was given to Mesdames Bond and Sturtevant for donating the cakes.

Lois Pugh was absent from school on account of illness and at last accounts the whole family were ill.

Miss Agnes Hayes has returned to school after a month's absence on account of illness.

Messrs. Conner and Goldsmith are newly enrolled high school students.

Prof. and Mrs. Patton were host and hostess to the boys' and girls' basket ball teams Saturday evening. A three-course dinner was served at 6 o'clock. Unique place cards representing basket balls marked the place of each guest. Prof. Patton acted as toast master and responses were given by Mrs. Shotwell, Helen Williams, Elsie Reynolds, Frank Koontz and Thomas Palmer. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and listening to radio news.

Misses Nora Coldiron and Georgina Clark assisted the hostess in serving. James McWilliams was also a guest.

Helen Carter, Louise Seefeld, Nellie Falk and Jess Walton were among the absent last week.

Ione Miller and Alice Sturtevant were absent from Mrs.

Coleman's room Thursday on account of sickness.

Prof. Patton, Thomas Palmer and Frank and Martin Koontz go to Corvallis Friday evening to attend the annual educational exposition for high school students at O. A. C., lasting from Friday to Monday noon.

Various Results of a Little Booze

Fifty Dollars Fine Paid in Albany...Nothing in Halsey

A Scotch jury, if it believes a man guilty but lacks sufficient evidence, brings in a verdict: "Not proven."

A western jury's verdict was: "Not guilty, but he'd better not do it again."

Present-day courts sometimes say, in effect: "Guilty, and I'm glad of it. Fifteen dollars fine. Fine remitted."

The two steamed-up women from Eugene whom Night-Watchman McDowell arrested a week ago Sunday night for drunkenness on the streets here paid $25 apiece at Albany and were turned loose.

They had walked into Halsey after ditching their car north of town. McDowell told them to wait on the street while he telephoned for the sheriff. Grant Reynolds thought the hotel was a better place for them and they went there, where Sheriff Richard found them.

McDowell caused Reynolds' arrest in a charge of resisting an officer. The trial was Friday evening before Recorder Cross and a houseful of spectators.

Reynolds was convicted, but, instead of being hanged, drawn and quartered, he was fined $10 and costs and the penalty was remitted.

The owner of the car came from Eugene, said his name was Carey and took it away.

Reports are that one woman threw a bottle over the fence and the other sank one in the mud. Don't obstruct traffic in your rush to find those bottles.

Alford Arrows

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

Joseph Cornely went to Eugene Saturday.

Keith Hayes spent the week end with Carl Isom.

E. D. Isom and daughter Beverly went to Albany Saturday.

E. D. Isom and family visited at F. M. Bond's, near Rowland, Sunday.

Mrs. Geer, county superintendent, visited the school Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitbeck called at Lee Ingram's Sunday afternoon.

Charles Jenks and wife of Tangent visited at J. H. Rickard's Sunday.

Edward Perry has been absent from school for over two weeks with a hard cold.

R. E. Brock and family moved to their farm near Brownsville, in the Ash Swale district, Thursday.

Frank Kropf and family visited at John Yoder's Sunday. A birthday dinner in honor of the third birthday of Leslie Yoder was served at noon.

There were several burials in the cemeteries at Alford this week. A Miss Benson of Harrisburg was buried Saturday. Mr. Schludel on Sunday. Mr. Hall, from Harrisburg, and a Mrs. Butler of California Monday and Mrs. Perley True of Harrisburg today.

Mrs. M. M. Ward came home from Albany Thursday, her daughter, Mrs. David Froman, bringing her.

Foreigners Borrow Another Billion

Washington, D. C. — Public flotations of foreign loans in the United States last year amounted to $1,097,627,000, the Federal Reserve board announced, or nearly $200,000,000 less than in 1924.

In addition to the public flotations, probably a quarter of a million dollars was invested abroad by American capitalists.

Of the new issues from abroad $64,433,000 were corporate and $53,250,000 governmental. Individual issues of more than $10,000,000 were made by German and Italian corporations, by the Swedish-American investment company and by the Province of Ontario.

Flotations of $182,525,000 in November were the largest in any month since October, 1924. This was accounted for chiefly by the $100,000,000 loan to Italy.
