

Albany Directory

This is good advice: "If you live in Albany, trade in Albany; if you live in some other town, trade in that town." But in these automobile days many residing elsewhere find it advisable to do at least part of their buying in the larger town. Those who go to Albany to transact business will find the firms named below ready to fill their requirements with courtesy and fairness.

MRS. LANDES NAMES NEW POLICE CHIEF

Seattle, Wash. — Mrs. Bertha K. Landes, president of the Seattle city council and wife of Henry Landes, dean of science in the University of Washington upon her return from a fortnight's vacation in California, named the man to be appointed police chief when she becomes mayor of Seattle June 7 and published a program of reform. The city, she warned, must be clear of vice and corruption and perhaps a bit more.

Captain William H. Searing, named for police chief, "is best qualified to carry out quietly and efficiently the necessary reorganization, build up the department and give the promised law enforcement," said Mrs. Landes.

Captain Searing held the office of police chief when Dr. Edwin J. Brown became mayor four years ago. Brown removed Searing and appointed William D. Severyns, a lawyer.

Strict enforcement of the prohibition law through an augmented staff of secret investigators; more flexible control of traffic, and abolition of the dancehall girl, were changes in the policies and methods which Mrs. Landes announced she would put into effect.

BRIEF GENERAL NEWS

A report from Geneva states that Brazil has abandoned its right to veto, which hindered Germany's projected entry into the league of nations.

William B. Clover, former chairman of the federal trade commission and nationally known newspaper man, died at his home in Washington after several months' illness.

The Rev. W. O. Thompson was elected moderator for the Presbyterian church at the general assembly of the church in Baltimore. He received 385 votes against 382 for the Rev. Lapsley McAfee.

Bishop William Montgomery Brown, deposed bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church lost his fight to have the courts of the state of New York review the action of the church authorities in deposing him as a bishop of the church.

The long colonial warfare in Morocco which Spain has been waging for years and which France has been carrying on for a year apparently has come to an end with the surrender of Abd-el-Krim, leader of the Riffian rebels. Deserted by tribal followers, the Moorish chieftain placed himself, his family and property under protection of France.

Coolidge Order Up to Committee.

Washington, D. C.—Five of the leading jurists of the senate were designated by the judiciary committee to inquire into legality of the president's executive order designating state, county and municipal officers as federal prohibition agents. The quintet appointed as a sub-committee includes Senators Cummins, republican, Iowa, chairman; Borah, republican, Idaho; Goff, republican, West Virginia; Walsh, democrat, Montana, and King, democrat, Utah.

April Production Highest Since 1919.

Washington, D. C.—American manufacturing production in April was the greatest for any month since the war, the department of commerce announced. In every major industry, save agriculture and leather, production figures for April reached new high levels, the increases ranging from 9 to 157 per cent. The April record was the best for any month since the boom year of 1919.

BURBANK CACTUSES GROW THORNS AGAIN

Santa Barbara, Cal.—When Luther Burbank, late plant wizard, perfected the spineless cactus a large lot here owned by S. G. and J. L. Kelley was planted to the desert growth and thousands of persons marvelled at the plant that grew without thorns and bearing delectable pears.

In the last few weeks, since Burbank's death, spines have appeared on the cactus and the city of Santa Barbara served notice on the owners of the patch to destroy them as weeds.

Those who believe in the supernatural are speculating as to whether or not the plant wizard's passing has anything to do with it.

FUNDAMENTALISTS BEATEN

Dr. Brougher of Oakland, California is Elected President.

Washington, D. C.—The ultra fundamentalist faction of the northern Baptist convention suffered an overwhelming defeat when its ticket for officers of the American Baptist foreign missions society, the only election in which there was a contest, was defeated, 1708 to 481.

The winning ticket was headed by Carl E. Milliken, ex-governor of Maine, and represented the conciliation group of the convention.

A resolution, providing for a six-months' truce on controverted subjects between fundamentalists and modernists, was adopted.

Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher of Oakland, Cal., was elected president of the convention.

The expected opposition from fundamentalists to the election of Brougher, did not materialize.

Whipping Post Law Reduces Burglary

Wilmington, Del.—Delaware's drastic whipping post law, credited by the national bureau of casualty and insurance underwriters with having reduced the state's burglary and theft insurance rates 33 1-3 per cent, will function again in June. John F. Fee and Thomas Kelly, both of Philadelphia, were sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment and the maximum of 10 lashes for highway robbery.

Wet Bill is Offered in Massachusetts.

Boston.—A bill calling for a statewide referendum on the question of modifying the Volstead act so as to permit the manufacture, sale and distribution of beverage liquors to contain more than one-half of one per cent alcohol, yet to be non-intoxicating, was filed in the house by Representative Roland D. Sawyer of Ware.

President Signs Alien Bill.

Washington, D. C.—The bill to permit admission to the United States of aliens who served with the American forces in the world war without regard to immigration quota restrictions was signed by President Coolidge.

HISTORY IN CAKE

This replica of historic Independence Hall in Philadelphia is a fine example of the baker's art. It was made by the chef of one of Philadelphia's leading hotels to advertise the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, which will open in that city June 1 and run to December 1 to celebrate the 150th anniversary of American independence. The "State House" stands on a table at the entrance to the main dining room of the hotel.
