This is good advice: "If you live in Albany, trade in Albany; if you live in some other town, trade in that town." But in these automobile days many residing elsewhere find it advisable to do at least part of their buying in the larger town. Those who go to Albany to transact business will find the firms named below ready to fill their requirements with courtesy and fairness.

SENATE COMMITTEE FAVORS APPOINTEES

Washington, D. C.—President Coolidge's appointees to the new railroad board of mediation were favorably reported to the senate for confirmation by the interstate commerce committee. The committee decided to turn over the Western Maryland railroad labor dispute involving a reported lockout and strike of engineers to the new board.

The nominees are: Samuel E. Winslow, Massachusetts (five year term); Edwin P. Morrow, Kentucky (four-year term); Carl Williams, Oklahoma (three-year term); G. Wallace Hanger, Washington, D. C. (two-year term); and Hywel Davies, California, (one-year term).

YANKEE MANNERS RAPPED

Tourists Criticized for Flying Flags on Cars Abroad.

Seattle, Wash.—J. J. Underwood, representative of the Seattle chamber of commerce in Washington, D. C. in a statement published here, remarked that the state department would be gratified if some Americans traveling in foreign countries improved their manners. He mentioned Americans who fly United States flags on their automobiles in Canada.

"This is a gross breach of international courtesy," he declared. "Since the British debt settlement, Americans are not particularly popular with the Britons."

Market News

Hot weather has hastened maturity of winter wheat and harvest is under way, says G. R. Hyslop of the O. A. C. farm crops department. Drought and heat in eastern Oregon will result in a good deal of hard wheat. Growers of either soft, common white, or white club wheat should follow the market closely for premium prices.

The oriental market has been strong according to the bureau of agricultural economics.

Forage market continues fairly strong for this time of year as the clover acreage is not large and considerable vetch suffered from aphids. Shortage of irrigation water is affecting some alfalfa districts.

Hairy vetch seed demand is strong at $15 to $15.50 per hundred wholesale at Atlantic points, higher prices prevailing in the interior. Common vetch is quoted at $4.50 to $5 per hundred at Atlantic points with the market not yet established on this coast.

Clover mildew which frequently wipes out the seed fields in western Oregon in dry years, has appeared. It is controlled in some areas by lime-sulphur spray made, 1-1-3 gallons of lime-sulphur to 100 gallons of water. Also by thoroughly dusting with a dusting machine applying common dusting sulphur. It sometimes takes more than one dusting to accomplish the result.

Idaho Man Dies at 100.

Wallace, Idaho — Colonel John Hackett, 100, believed to be the oldest man in Idaho, died here. The colonel, who was blind, had been at the hospital for two years. His one ambition was to live to be 110 years old. Colonel Hackett had been in this district since 1866, coming here as an employe of the Northern Pacific railway to investigate mining possibilities of this region. He served in the Irish brigade of New York in the civil war.

Washington State Funds Increased.

Olympia.—With receipts of $771,209.11 and expenditures of $1,129,484.20 by warrants paid, for the week ending June 22, total state cash balance was $16,774,911.91, as shown by report of State Treasurer W. G. Potts. This makes deduction of the overdraft in the capitol building construction fund of $434,029. The general fund is still going strong with $2,884,328.
