

Albany Directory

This is good advice: "If you live in Albany, trade in Albany; if you live in some other town, trade in that town." But in these automobile days many residing elsewhere find it advisable to do at least part of their buying in the larger town. Those who go to Albany to transact business will find the firms named below ready to fill their requirements with courtesy and fairness.

GREAT SESQUI STADIUM OPENED AT PHILADELPHIA

The giant arena in the centre of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition site in Philadelphia was built in approximately 300 working days. It was completed and in use a month before the opening of the big exposition which celebrates the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This photograph, made from the air, shows nearly 3,000 boys on the playing field, massed there for the dedicatory exercises on May 1 which formally opened the structure. In the stands are seated 10,000 persons watching the program. A group of 10,000 persons is a large crowd but they are only a "drop in the bucket" in the big Philadelphia stadium. The boys paraded onto the field to the accompaniment of fourteen bands and there went through their drills and athletic exercises for the benefit of city officials and parents.

HART SLEW DOVERY, ACCUSED MAN SAYS

Kelso, Wash.—Thomas Dovery, Kelso editor, murdered June 19, 1925, was killed in a scuffle with Frank T. Hart, ex-convict, who had been prevented from staging a boxing match in Kelso, according to a statement made at St. Louis to Clark Studebaker, former Cowlitz county sheriff, by John Owen, alias John W. Smith, Hart's partner in promoting the boxing match. Studebaker and Archie Leonard, of the Portland police department, are returning to Kelso with Owen, who faces a first degree murder charge, following his arrest at St. Louis. Details of Owen's statement, telegraphed by Studebaker, recite that the fight was to have been held June 20, but the bout was called off June 19 following bitter opposition on the part of Dovery, Kelso clergymen and others.

A few days previous, Owen said, he had secured a gun from a friend. "I was at the hotel when Hart came in," Owen said. "He said he had just bumped Dovery off and that he would have to beat it. He stole an automobile and he went to Laramie, Wyo. On the way he told me he had gone to see Dovery and that they were walking down the street arguing about the prizefight when they started to fight. Hart said he knocked Dovery down and hit him over the head with the butt of the pistol and as he did so it accidentally went off."

Hart has not been apprehended.

BRIEF GENERAL NEWS

William Tilden II of Philadelphia upheld his reputation as national tennis champion by defeating Lewis N. White of Austin, Texas, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3.

A call for 60,000 outside harvesters for wheat crops has been issued by Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta authorities. Grain men estimate crop of three provinces at 375,000,000 bushels, 40,000,000 less than yield of last year.

William A. Westfall, Mason City, Iowa, was announced as the new president of Lions' International at the meeting in San Francisco. Miami, Fla., was selected as 1927 convention city. Westfall succeeds Benjamin F. Jones, Newark, N. J.

President Calles of Mexico has proclaimed regulations giving effect to the constitutional prohibition of religious teaching in private schools. The rules prescribe that no minister of any religious cult may act as the director of or teacher in a private school.

In response to attacks by the British press on the subject of the present prohibition conference in London, it was stated emphatically in official circles that the United States has not asked for the right of search and seizure, nor made any unreasonable request.

Lincoln's Last Son Passes On
Manchester, Vt.—Robert T. Lincoln, only surviving son of President Abraham Lincoln, was found dead in bed at his summer home here. His death was discovered by servants who went to call him. Mr. Lincoln, who had served as secretary of war, minister to Great Britain and for years as president of the Pullman company, of late had been in feeble health. He would have been 83 years old on August 1.

RAILROAD WORK IS URGED

Oregon Service Board Appeals to I. C. C. to Get Action.

Salem.—Failure of the several railroads involved in the proposed Central Oregon railway development program to start construction operations, or agree to common carrier privileges on the Natron cutoff, caused the Oregon public service commission to prepare a petition requesting that carriers be cited to appear before the interstate commerce commission and show cause why they have not complied with an order issued by the commission on May 3 of this year.

The Interstate commerce commission order authorized the extension of the Northern lines from Bend to Klamath Falls, either via the Natron cutoff, or an independent road. The Natron cutoff is now under construction by the Southern Pacific company and should be completed next month.

It was said by members of the public service commission here that the officials of the Northern lines and the Southern Pacific apparently had made no effort to reach an understanding relative to common user privileges on the Natron cutoff. Delay in reaching such an agreement, it was said, had retarded construction work and had resulted in serious injury to the state of Oregon.

Premier Orders Americans Guarded.

Paris.—Premier Poincare ordered Paris police to provide greater protection for American and other tourists in France. The premier was disturbed by the recent anti-American manifestations in the streets and in some of the resorts of Paris. He summoned the prefect of police and ordered that all tourist motor busses be supplied with an escort of bicycle police, that a police guard be posted at tourist agencies, and intimated that if these measures were ineffective the use of motor busses by tourists may be temporarily suppressed.

Alleged Tippling Dry Chief Ousted.

Washington, D. C.—Ned Green, the San Francisco prohibition administrator who said publicly he had been giving "parties" with confiscated liquor, was suspended from office by Acting Secretary Winston of the treasury. The suspension will remain effective pending an investigation into formal charges of misconduct by Green, now being conducted by the district attorney at San Francisco.

Dallas, Tex.—Attorney General Dan Moody, running for the democratic nomination for governor against "Ma" Ferguson, the incumbent, and four other candidates, apparently polled more votes than all of his opponents put together, on the basis of unofficial returns.

If Moody can poll a majority of all of the votes cast, he automatically becomes the democratic candidate, which is equivalent to election in Texas. Should he fail to receive more than half of the votes cast, he would enter a run-off primary next month with Mrs. Ferguson, who ran second, more than 100,000 votes behind.

The lead Moody maintained over Governor Ferguson held interest because of the challenge issued to Moody at the opening of Mrs. Ferguson's campaign. That in effect was that if Moody led her by one vote she would resign, provided Moody would agree to resign his position as attorney-general if she led him by 25,000.

30 KILLED BY POISON LIQUOR

Buffalo, N. Y.—Thirty deaths had been recorded Monday in Buffalo and vicinity from wood alcohol, presumably sold at soft drink stands. Two dealers have been arrested, one on a homicide charge. The police were seeking James Volker as the distributor of the liquor.

Over the week end the death toll in Buffalo was 13, while an equal number died in Toronto and other Ontario towns, and four died in Lockport, N.Y.

Acting Dry Chief Regan stated that 90 per cent of the liquor being sold in Buffalo as gin contains poison. Medical Examiner Danser diagnosed most of the cases as "wood alcohol poisoning." A combined drive by American and Canadian officials in an effort to dry up the source of the poison liquor and punish those responsible for its distribution will be made.

ASK RESTORATION OF FISHING RIGHTS

Spokane, Wash.—Resolutions to the United States government calling for the restoration of Indian fishing rights and adjustment of difficulties on the various reservations were passed here by the second national Indian congress, attended by 400 delegates of more than a score of tribes.

Paul Wapato of the Okanogan tribes was elected chairman of the 1927 Indian congress, which will be conducted entirely by Indians. One of the concluding acts of this week's congress was the organization of a permanent representative body of tribal delegates which will hereafter deal with the government.

The resolutions also asked establishment of an Indian tubercular hospital on the west coast and also the appointment of local instructors to reservation vacancies.

Descendants of Indian fighters and Indian chiefs gathered after the congress and held a fraternal pow-wow.

BEER-BY-GLASS DEFEATED

Citizens by Vote of 1816 to 1451 Decide Against Project

Vancouver, B. C.—Citizens of New Westminster by a vote of 1816 to 1451 decided against beer-by-the-glass. They already have government liquor stores where hard liquors, wines and bottle beer may be obtained.

This action, following the rejection by plebiscite vote of the same proposal a short time ago in Revelstoke and Cranbrook, is considered indication of a changing attitude in British Columbia toward liquor reform.

The breweries in British Columbia sell to the government, which through its liquor control board handles all orders and collects from them $3.50 a barrel. The chief breweries are banded together into an organization known to the public as the British Columbia Amalgamated Brewers and these charge the government $18.50 a barrel. One of the features in the campaign now going on is the profits the brewers are making as compared with other businesses. In floating brewery stock here some time ago, it was said brewery officials told the public that 800 per cent profit was assured.
