Light and Power

When the late Charles Albert Coffin set out in the '80s to sel electricity to the people, he was inspired, according to his own words, by "a holy faith." That faith has been abundantly justified, though there remains plenty of opportunity for his successors in the industry in the development of new fields of activity. As late as 1912. according to the Washington statistics, the electric light and powe stations produced 14,000,000 thous. and-kilowatts of current. In 1924 the public utility power plants alone produced 60,000,000 thousand- kilowatts. The number of customers served by the central stations was less than 2,000,000 in 1907, but nearly 13,000,000 in 1924. With insurance, electric current holds the rare distinction of

There are those who foresee social revolution, by the elimination of our overgrown cities, through the distribution of power to smaller centers. There is to be a lessening of the lure of metropolitan life, by endowing the small town with the comforts of the urban apartment and the splendors of the metropoliten life, by endowing the small town with the comforts of the ur- C. One advantage which electricity holds over its elder sister, steam, is cleanliness. The latter brought power and wealth, but along with them it brought dirt and grime. Electric current offers power in combination with cleanliness.

explained the Bible's practical application to daily life; how it describes the life hereafter; what the Bible parables mean when spiritually interpreted.

His theological works—as issued by himself—have been published by the Houghton Mifflin Co. in most modern translation from the original Latin, in the Rotch Edition of 32 volumes.

The first twenty give the spiritual sense of Genesis and Exodus as understood in Heaven; and volumes 26, 27, 28 give likewise the spiritual sense of the Book of Revelation. Volume 20, Marriage Love, views from the union of the Divine Love and the Divine Wisdom the Law of Sex throughout all creation. It shows the crown and jewel of the Christian Religion, the union of one with one only. Price $2.00.

Volumes 30, 31, 32, contain a full statement of the True Christian Religion as revealed from Heaven. $3.00 the set.

The whole 32 volumes in half-morocco at $125; in buckram, $40.

The following are the best introductory books to the Revelations of Swedenborg. They are in large print, bound in buckram, and contain from 260 to 487 pages.

HEAVEN AND HELL from things heard and seen $1.25

Who Was Swedenborg?

Emanuel Swedenborg, the son of a bishop, was the great Swedish scientist, philosopher and theologian, whose wast range caused Emerson to term him the mastodon of scholars. Dr. Parkes Cadman recently named him the Universal Genius. Officially connected, by appointment of the King, with the great mining industry of Sweden, he mastered all the sciences of his time, and wrote the mining industry books on metalhers, minerals, geology, astronomy, and the human brain. His life search was for the human soul, thou his spiritual senses were opened, after he was 50 years of age, that he might reveal the human soul, the life after death, and the Biste seeif, may be read in the above named, uplifting, asseful books.
