MILLIONS SPENT IN FRANCE

Total Reached $226,160,000 for 1925, According to Data.

Paris.—The tide of American tourists that flowed into France this summer is estimated the greatest ever known, and many conjectures have been made of the gold which these visitors left in this country. A basis of estimate is to be had in a report just issued by the French Touring association, which says 220,000 Americans visited France in the calendar year of 1925 and spent $226,160,000. That sum, figured at the average rate of exchange for the year, would amount almost to 5,000,000,000 francs.

Statistics of the touring association classify American visitors and their spending into these classes:

Millionaires, 2 per cent, $5000 each. Well-to-do, 18 per cent, $1760 each. Pleasure and business, 8 per cent, $1590 each.

Business men, 44 per cent, $850 each. Students, teachers, clerks on vacation, 28 per cent, $425 each.

The British Isles sent 759,097 tourists to France in 1925, it is estimated, and Spain was next on the list with 685,148.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller Sunday were Ed Ward and son Ferris and Mrs. Florence Leeper of Eugene.
