P. T. A. Hold First Meeting

The P. T. A. held its first session of this term at the school building Friday, Oct. 8. Mrs. D. H. Sturtevant, who was elected president at the last meeting, resigned the position and Mrs. Inez Freeland was elected to fill the place. Delegates elected to go to the Parent-Teachers' congress at Salem were Mrs. B. M. Bond and Mrs. A. H. Quimby alternate and Mrs. C. P. Moody alternate to take the place of Mrs. Freeland, who is unable to attend. A discussion of fair and club work was held at this meeting, with the hope of arousing more enthusiasm along that line in this community. A literary program followed the discussion, as follows:

Piano duet—Nellie Falk, Louise Seefeld.

Song by the 4th and 6th grade girls.

Reading—Eloise Smith.

Reading—Keuneth Workinger.

Telephone conversation—Bessie Reynolds and Ernestine Coleman.

Song—Leila Gansle and Vivian Frum.

Solo dance—Fern Rossman.

Piano Trio—Nellie, Pearl and Mamie Falk.

There will be a further discussion of fairs and club work at the next meeting and plans are being made to have a speaker present at that time.

Gilbert Carey has gone to Portland, where he will be a student at the North Pacific Evangelistic Institute this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gansle and Leila drove to Kingston Sunday, visiting Frank's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Huntley, and also to Mehama, where Mr. and Mrs. Louie Fritz, relatives of Mrs. Gansle, reside.

W. A. Muller and wife and son Harold spent Sunday in Albany as guests of relatives.

Mrs. Chester Osburne of Portland arrived Thursday to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Brandon, for a few days.

The Christian church is planning soon to have a new concrete sidewalk north of the church property.

Miss Ellen Varnice, who teaches school at Alsea, spent the week end with her brother Merwyn and family.

Mrs. Fred Taylor has been visiting at the home of her father, J. C. Standish, and wife. Fred recently purchased a modern home on Oswego lake with lake frontage. He goes back and forth to and from his work in Portland.

Three young people from Halsey will be enrolled at the North Pacific Evangelical Institute this winter. Miss Amanda Mitzner, who has been spending her vacation at home, returned there Monday to resume her studies, as did Gilbert Carey, while Harvey Wright has decided to become a student there this term.

Misses Mary Smith and Goldie Willbanks were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carey of Eugene. They attended the Bible Univeafity reception Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Safley drove to Newport Sunday and were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Albertson and daughter Vida and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsay spent Sunday with Joe Elliot and family.

High School Notes

(High School Reporter)

The high school classes have elected their officers for the year, as follows:

Freshmen — Bessie Reynolds president, Allan Beene vice-president, Ernestine Coleman secretary and treasurer, John Miller sergeant-at-arms and Professor Patton class advisor.

Sophomores — Bessie Harvey president, Frances Norton vice-president, Ruth Sturtevant secretary and treasurer and Professor Patton class advisor.

Juniors—Charley Wright president, Roy Safley vice-president, Mary Smith secretary and treasurer, Carl Sperling manager and Mrs. Freeland class advisor.

The seniors have not yet elected their officers.

The freshman class also made plans for a retrna party to be given to the sophomores Oct. 22.

Ruth McNeil and Edward Blood have both visited the high school rooms during the last week.

Delora Wells, a former high school student, was in town Friday evening.

Iris McPherson, who was a high school student last year, is now going to school at Monroe.

Floyd Walter and Goldie Carter returned to grade school here on Tuesday, Oct. 12.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Halsey Church of Christ served lunch at the Clark Smith sale and made $22 above expenses. The Endeavorers wish to express their appreciation to the ladies who donated pies.

Rev. Joseph S. Miller and wife arrived Saturday and are now settled in the M. E. parsonage. Rev. Miller delivered two interesting sermons to his new congregation at the Sunday services.

Judging from the number of "No Hunting" signs that have been distributed by the Enterprise office the past two weeks the greater portion of the farming lands in this district will be posted against hunting by the morning of the 17th.

Veteran Passes Away

Frank Venner, 82, veteran of the civil war, died at his home in Brownsville Monday morning. Mr. Venner was one of the surviving members of the Brownsville G. A. R. post. Mr. Venner had been a resident of Linn county for the past 55 years. His first residence in the county was at Halsey in the early 70's when he operated a photographic studio for about two years.

Arthur Robnett has sold his property located a short distance east of Halsey on the Brownsville road to A. A. Barber. Mr. Barber expects to reside there with his daughter, Miss Lillian. The sale price is reported to be $1,000.

Geo. Tyer of Portland was a visitor at the home of John Bressler Monday. He was returning from Klamath Falls, where he had been called by the death of his son who lived with his grand parents.

Get your "No Hunting" signs at the Enterprise office.

Jay Moore has traded his residence property in East Halsey to Walter Duff for a 5 acre tract of land adjoining the city of Grants Pass. Mr. Duff and family expect to move to their new home in Halsey within a short time. Paul Popman and family who have been occupying the Moore property have moved into the residence recently vacated by Tom Hover and family.

Mrs. Adda Leeper who recently moved to Albany has returned and will occupy the lower rooms of her Halsey residence. Mrs. Lloyd Byerley, her daughter, will be with her for a time, and Miss Maude Ferguson will have rooms there also.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stevenson and the former's brother, Baird Stevenson of Portland, who has been visiting here for several weeks went to Eugene for a visit with Stanley Stevenson and family Wednesday and returned Thursday.

Gilbert Carey and wife were guests of John and Mary LaRue Sunday.

VOTE AGAINST HIGHER TAXES

Oregon's total bonded debt is already

$166,000,000

Its per capita state debt is the highest in the Union

The Housewives' Council "Water and Power" Amendment would permit a new political board to issue $53,000,000 more bonds, or an increase of 32 per cent to start state adventures in irrigation and power.

VOTE 337 X NO

- Against an issue of $53,000,000 of new bonds
- Against an unlimited amount of new taxes
- Against creating a board of politician-dictators
- Against enrolling a new army of public officials
- Against paralyzing industry by bureaucratic despotism
- Against revolutionizing our form of government
- Against a wild joy ride without brakes at your expense
