

RURAL ENTERPRISE

U. O. Library

Agriculture
Horticulture
Livestock

A Weekly Chronicle of Local Events and Progress in Linn County

VOLUME 15

HALEY, OREGON WEDNESDAY NOV. 10 1926

NUMBER 28

Dairy
Poultry
Wool

P. T. A. Holds Interesting Meeting

The P. T. A. held an especially interesting meeting at the school building Friday evening. J. E. Calavan, state industrial field worker of Oregon was present and gave a very helpful address on club work. It is planned to organize a few clubs in the country surrounding Halsey, and Mesdames S. J. Smith, Nora Coleman, Ed Kizer, O. W. Frum, Chas. Straley, and Miss Ferguson were named as club leaders.

Program by the pupils was as follows:

Halloween play, Primary room.
Recitation, Kenneth Workinger.
Song, "The parents won't visit the School," by Intermediate girls.
Piano Duet, Georgina Clark and Mary Smith.
Recitation, Cedric Moody.
Song, Topsyturny Band.

Miss Agnes Hayes who has been attending school at Monmouth, is convalescing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hayes after a twelve day stay in a Corvallis hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laubner attended the stock show at Portland Friday.

Pine Grove Items

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

W. G. McNeil and family attended church at Ingrams island Sunday and also visited Ralph McNeil at Junction City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson of Corvallis visited at Frank Gibsons one day last week.

Fred Sylvester and wife were business visitors in Eugene Monday.

L. E. Eagy and John McNeil called on Newt Cummings Tuesday morning.

Fritz Torgenson and sons of Albany visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoyer from Friday until Sunday.

The community meeting for Nov. 5th was postponed indefinitely, as the committee had no program ready.

H. L. Blood and wife were Albany visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hoyer and son Robert visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank McManamus at Corvallis Sunday.

Study Club Meets With Mrs. Laubner

The Halsey Study club met at the home of Mrs. George Laubner Thursday afternoon with twelve members present. Mrs. S. J. Smith had charge of the lesson and Mrs. James Drinkard gave the lesson on "Art of the recent war," illustrated with seven pictures by Percy Smith.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. T. I. Marks. Mrs. W. L. Wells and daughter, Miss Genevieve were guests.

Miss Eunice Sylvester spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sylvester. She has just concluded several weeks of practice teaching at the childrens Farm home near Corvallis and will resume school work at Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Morris motored to Albany Tuesday evening.

S. P. Excursion Well Patronized

Many Halsey folk took advantage of the excursion via the S. P. to Klamath Falls Sunday, motoring to Eugene to board the excursion train.

An extra train had to be made up there owing to a larger number of people on hand than was anticipated. The regular one way fare of $9.40 was reduced to $5 for the round trip for this occasion.

Those going from Halsey were: Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cross, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Frum, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Veatch, J. R. Mode, Douglas Taylor, James McWilliams, Ben Holt, Frank Kirk and J. C. Walton.

Services at the Methodist Church

Sunday school, 10.
11 a. m. Public service sacrament of the Lords Supper.
2:30 p. m. Junior League.
6:30 p. m. Epworth League.
7:30 p. m. The regular service.
All are cordially invited. Hope to see all the members present Sunday morning.

Jos. S. Miller, Pastor.

Your Presence Appreciated AT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

MORNING SERMON:
"And He arose up early in the morning"
EVENING SERMON:
"Millions now living are already dead"

Local and Personal Mention

Rev. Audley Brown and wife of Brownsville drove to Halsey Tuesday and took Rev. Miller and wife to Bellfountain where they attended the convention of the Holiness association.

School boys are responsible for breaking a large glass in the front of the Koontz store Saturday—one pushed another through it.

The P. T. A. will hold its regular business session at the school building, Friday, Nov. 12. The reports of the delegates to the P. T. congress will be heard at this time.

The Epworth Leaguers accepted the invitation to the get-together banquet at Eugene and many are planning to go Friday evening.

J. J. Corsoran finished building a septic tank for Brad Moss the latter part of last week and has lately been making the concrete walk at the Christian church.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Miller were given a canned fruit shower at their home Thursday evening after prayer meeting by a number of the members of their congregation. Unfortunately, many heard of the affair too late to attend, it seems.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Skirvin were Albany visitors Friday.

High School Notes

(High School Reporter)

Mrs. E. D. Isom visited the grade rooms last Tuesday.

The juniors have received their class rings and are well pleased with them.

Meiba Rossman visited the high school rooms Friday afternoon.

The high school party Saturday evening was well attended. Several contests were taken part in by various students.

Kenneth Smith, who returned home last week, started to school Monday.

Lillian Reynolds was absent several days last week.

Services at the Church of Christ

Sunday School 10.
Preaching 11.
Christian Endeavor 6:30.
Preaching 7:30

The bill for the furnace was burned Sunday morning. Now we are prepared to give people a warm welcome. We want 100 in Sunday School Sunday morning. Your assistance and your presence will be appreciated. Morning sermon, "And He Arose up Early in the Morning." Evening sermon, "Millions Now Living are Already Dead."

Clifford L. Carey, Pastor.

Ladies Aid to Have Sale

We have been requested to announce that the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will hold a stamped goods and cooked food sale Saturday, November 20th at Hill and Company's store, beginning at 10 a. m. Proceeds to go to the aid. Everyone invited to attend.

Mrs. Franklyn Stafford is spending several weeks with relatives at Emmett, Idaho.

Spoon River Sparks

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Templeton spent Sunday afternoon at Beulah Millers.

Miss Vida Albertson visited with her friends, the Misses Louise and Esther Seefeld Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Elliot and sons were Sunday dinner guests at Robert Ramseys.

R. E. Bierly and family spent Saturday night and Sunday at Oregon City with the Titus Bierlys.

Mrs. Charles Straley spent Sunday and Monday at H. L. Straleys helping care for Mrs. Straley who is quite ill.

G. J. Rike, Herman Stienke and Frank Kirk spent several days last week enjoying the stock show at Portland.

J. N. Elliot and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kirk and sons were among those who attended the entertainment at Charity Grange Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Falk visited at Roy Bilyeus in Portland Sunday.

Mrs. Merwyn Vannice was called to Portland Thursday evening on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Falk visited relatives in Washington the fore part of this week.

Guests at the G. J. Rike home Sunday were Mrs. F. W. Falk and daughter, Herman Steinke and family, Arleigh Falk and Jennie Nicewood and Andrew Falk. The evening was spent listening to the radio.

Mrs. W. A. Carey of Salem is spending a few days in this vicinity visiting her children.

Momen's Society Holds Session

The W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church held its monthly meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Beulah Miller with 18 ladies present. The names of Mrs. Joseph Miller and Mrs. Charles Hamer were taken as new members. Mrs. B. M. Miller was program leader and made the lesson very interesting with maps showing the spread of the Moslem religion.

The hostess served delicious candies at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Wright.

Reynolds Again in Charge of Hotel

Mrs. Evelyn Johnson who has successfully conducted the Halsey hotel for the past six months left for Marshfield Tuesday where she expects to engage in similar business. The hotel is now in charge of Grant Reynolds, the owner, who is well and favorably known to the public, having operated the establishment for several years previous to Mrs. Johnson. Mr. Reynolds promises to maintain the high standard of hospitality the place has long been noted for.

Notice to Merchants and Patrons

You are requested not to charge accounts against our school or classes thereof, unless persons making the purchases bear an order signed by some member of the faculty and the secretary of the student body or class concerned.

After 16 Years

An eight pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Chance at the Albany general hospital, Monday, November 8th. This is their first child after sixteen years of married life.

Mother and child are reported as getting along nicely at the hospital and the neighbors are kindly looking after the father who is staying quietly at home this week.

National Canned Foods Week

November 10 -- 20 Stock your Pantry

Here is the opportunity the thrifty housewife has been looking for.

Buy your Canned Goods by the dozen assorted as you like and get 10 per cent in Free Goods.

During this sale we are giving away free a new Colonial 8 day clock. One clock dial ticket with each 75c cash sale and one with each $1.50 on accounts in full.

There are over 200 varieties of canned foods. Here are some of them—check the ones you want.

Preferred Stock is Quality Vegetables

Asparagus, Beans green, Baked beans, Corn white or yellow, Hominy, Olives green ripe or stuffed, Peas tender and melting, Peppers green or red, Pimentos, Pumpkin, Potatoes sweet, Sauerkraut, Spinach.

Fruits

Apple butter, Apricots, Cherries red, Cranberries, Figs, Fruits for salads, Grapes, Grapefruit, Peaches, Pineapples.

Fish and Specialties

Catsup, Chili con carne, Chili sauce, Jellies, Milk, Mince meat Salad dressing, Syrup, Tomato sauce, Clams, Herrings, Salmon, Sardines, Tuna, Oysters, Shrimp, Spices, Extracts, Baking powder, Salad oils, Lard, Pancrust, Tea, Coffee, Fruit gelatins.

See The Colonial Clock on Display

M. V. KOONTZ CO.

REAL VALUE

Clothcraft Suits == Overcoats

Every man wants and has a right to expect real wearing qualities in his clothes. There is a low-water mark in buying clothes, for instance, we suggest to the men who want a staple suit that

$29.50 is not too much to pay to get the most for the money. They are an all wool serge in grey, brown or blue, guaranteed to fit and wear, and you can buy extra trousers at a nominal price.

Ask for Clothcraft 5130

Mallory Hats

Edmond Shoes

