High School Conference

Elsie Reynolds, with Hope Hussey as substitute for Mary Smith, as high school students and Mrs. Freeland as faculty member were the Halsey representatives at the annual high school conference at the U. of O. last week end. More than 500 students, representing nearly every high school in the state, were present.

There were sessions in four divisions: Editors and managers of high school publications, student body officers, girls' leagues and faculty advisers.

Besides a program in which were discussed secondary school problems, there was the Oregon-Willamette basketball game and the banquet Friday night.

Middle Ages Defined

The middle ages generally are considered to include the period from A. D. 476 to the beginning of the Reformation in the Sixteenth century.

Making for Victory

The American workman who strikes ten blows with his hammer whilst the foreign workman only strikes one, is as really vanquishing that foreigner as if the blows were aimed at and told on his person.—Emerson.

Young Wife Afraid to Eat Anything

"I was afraid to eat because I always had stomach trouble afterwards. Since taking Adierika I can eat and feel fine." (Signed) Mrs. A. Howard. ONE spoonful Adierika removes GAS and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Removes old waste matter from intestines which you never thought was in your system. Excellent for obstinate constipation. Halsey pharmacy.

(By an Enterprise Reporter)
Jan. 15 there was a joint installation in the subordinate and juvenile granges. Five members were initiated in the fourth and fifth degrees. It was decided to hold a carnival at the grange hall Saturday evening, Feb. 5, the proceeds of which will be used to get better lights for the hall.

Clarence Waggener is still quite ill, though a little improvement is reported in the last few days. Lucile Spertling spent Saturday night with the Veatch family and they all saw "The General" at Brownsville that evening. This show was filmed at Cottage Grove last summer. Uncle Jim Waggener was over from his home beyond Brownsville and spent the week end at A. G. Waggener's.

Decline to Mix

"Young blood and old brains" are said to be a good combination. The trouble is to get either one of them to find any use for the other.

Or Dodging Them?

Bertrand Russell points out that the best way to learn courage and daring is not in physical combat, but in achieving mastery over physical things—running machinery, driving motor cars and piloting airplanes.
