

Rural Enterprise Supplement

Halsey, Oregon, Feb 17, 1927

NEWS

(Continued from page 6)

and children, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Albertson, Mr. Lester Albertson, Willis and Henry Kirk and the Misses Vida Albertson and Henrietta Starnes were guests at J. N. Elliot's Sunday.

L. R. Falk and family were Sunday dinner guests at R. N. Bierly's.

Morwyn Van Nice and family were Sunday dinner guests at H. J. Falk's.

Mrs. C. R. Gillette was called to Salem last week on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. W. A. Carey.

Lake Creek Locals

(I eJed moxj penurpnoC)

Mrs. C. R. Evans and Miss Mary Evans drove to Corvallis Tuesday.

Martin Cummings and wife and Mrs. J. S. Nicewood and son visited friends in Eugene Tuesday.

Earl Brock has been helping Thomas Ardry build fence this week.

George Ledgerwood and Martin Cummings canvassed the country between here and Harrisburg in interest of an electric power line. A meeting is to be held soon.

Thomas Palmer, who has been ill with the mumps, is much better.

Mesdames Charley Shaw and Gussie Hughes of Peoria spent Wednesday afternoon at Martin Cummings'

Bob Allen and family of Lebanon spent the week end at Henry Brock's.

Mrs. Lillie Nixon, who has been visiting here, went to Halsey to visit her sister, Mrs. W. C. Smith, and family.

The horsebarns at the school-house have been moved to the back of the school ground.

Meetings that have been in progress two weeks at the church closed Sunday evening. Rev. W.

B. Smith of Peoria did the preaching.

Rev. H. S. Shangle of Corvallis preached here Sunday evening.

J. S. Nicewood has been suffering with rheumatism.

Mr. Hoyt of Harrisburg has been doing carpenter work for C. S. Williams this week.

Several men worked on the church grounds Wednesday of last week and improved the appearance very much.

Bert Clark and wife of Halsey were dinner guests of Thomas Ardry's Sunday.

Russell Githens and wife of Peoria spent Sunday with Roy Owen and wife.

Ray Barley spent Sunday in Eugene.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise correspondent)

Doris Hayes spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her teacher, Mrs. E. D. Isom, who Wednesday took her eighth-grade class, Doris, Cedric Williamson and Dick Hussey, to Salem to visit the state legislature and institutions. They accompanied the Halsey seventh and eighth grade party.

Velda Curtis spent the week end with Violet Burnett of Harrisburg.

Hattie Starnes spent Sunday with Beverly Isom.

Chester Curtis went to Albany Wednesday of last week.

Bertha Cernely called on Velda Curtis Monday afternoon.

The Brubaker family are on the sick list this week.

Brian Perry and family were Sunday afternoon callers at Chester Curtis'

Guests at J. Ringler's Sunday were J. D. Brubaker and John Roth and families.

B. E. Cogswell and son Philip of Portland spent the week end at the farm.

Mrs. Willard Hamlin called on Mrs. Chester Curtis Friday.