George Maxwell was filing suit for divorce when the Enterprise was going to press last week. In confirmation of the cynical proverb that "courtship is bliss but matrimony is blister" he charges that Anna began to be disagreeable within two weeks after the wedding and kept it up until, after securing a property settlement, she left him Feb. 1.

S. J. Halsey High Delegates to O. A. C.
Representatives from Halsey high school who will attend the fourth annual educational convention at O. A. C. Feb. 18, 19 and 20 are Lyman W. Patton, principal, and Maud Ferguson of the faculty and Mary Smith, Lillian Reynolds and Martin Koontz, students.

More than 150 high schools will be represented, with nearly 850 authorized delegates.

The college hopes to stimulate thinking along the lines of higher education in preparation for the vocation which the student intends to follow.

Halsey School Notes
(High School Reporter)
The high school student body held the regular meeting Wednesday. The girls who participated in baseball the past two years were awarded their letters for those years. Misses Mary Smith and Lillian Reynolds and Martin Koontz were elected as representatives to the educational exhibition to be held at Corvallis.

The civics class attended the legislature at Salem Thursday and also visited the penitentiary, asylum and blind school. Those attending were Hope Hussey, Mary Smith, Lillian Reynolds, Professor Patton, Harry Hussey, Carl Isom, Carl Sperling, Elias Robins, Max McCord, Roy Saffley, Martin Koontz, Euriel Corbbin, Henry Kirk and Charley Wright. Mr. Clark Smith and Mr. Ernest Gourley acted as chauffeurs. All are reported as getting home safely.

The high school is preparing a program to be given at the schoolhouse to celebrate the birthday of George Washington February 22. All parents are cordially invited to attend.

The basketball team went to Crabtree Friday night, where it engaged in combat with Crabtree high school. Score, 2 to 57 in favor of Crabtree. The boys are not so downcast, however, as they succeeded in gaining the victory on our home floor when Crabtree visited us Jan. 7.
