

School News

(Continued)

junior class. The program consisted of a song by the student body, "Wearing of the Green," reading, "Life of Robert Burns," by Edith Smith; Song, "Auld Lang Syne, by the junior class; dialog, "Dividing a Wiener Between an Irishman and a Dutchman," by Carl Sperting and Charley Wright. The newly elected song leader, Keith Hayes, suddenly developed a bad cold and could not lead the singing. He paid for it by reading a theme.

Bessie Reynolds is out of school

Special Offer March 3rd to 15th

"Wear-Ever" Aluminum Baking Pan

Reg. price $1.95

for

baking ham, apples, bread, rolls, and making candy

Aluminum Tubed Cake Pan with anti-falling feature

Two Sizes
9 1/2 or 10-in. diameter

for baking all solid cakes—angel, sponge, etc.

98c EACH

Hill & Co.

HALSEY PHARMACY

F. Buford Morris Proprietor

due to injuries received in an auto accident Saturday night.

Mary Smith returned to school Monday, after a two-week siege of mumps.

Ruth Quimby and Mary Smith were out of school all last week, due to mumps.

The boys are practicing for the baseball season, which will open as soon as the weather will permit.

Spoon River Sparks

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. Lillian Templeton and daughter Helen and Rice Blackburn were visitors at J. P. Templeton's Sunday.

Ellen Vannice came over from Alsea and spent the week end with Merwin Van Nice.

Kathleen Anna Munkers was very ill last week.

Mr. McDaniel and wife were visitors at W. R. Kirk's Monday afternoon.

J. P. Templeton and wife visited at A. M. Templeton's at Brownsville last week Wednesday.

Mrs. Alex Snodgrass called at H. J. Falk's Friday.

W. R. Kirk and wife attended the funeral of Oscar Wilson at Shedd last week Tuesday.

Mrs. R. E. Bierly and son Kenneth spent Friday evening with Mrs. Lester Powell, who stays at the home of C. L. Falk sr., while Mr. Bierly attended a board meeting of the federal loan association at Harrisburg.

Vida Albertson spent the week end with Louise and Esther Seefeld.

E. E. Carey and family attended an all-day church meeting at Harrisburg Sunday.

Raymond Kirk spent Sunday afternoon with his friend, Raleigh Falk.

Robert Ramsay and wife, Herman Steinke and A. L. Falk and families and Misses Louise and Esther Seefeld and Vida Albertson were Saturday evening visitors at J. N. Elliott's.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steinke were Tuesday visitors at G. J. Rife's last week.

Miss Ava Falk was a visitor of Busy Bee Sewing club meeting at