PETER AT THE TRANSFIGURA TION

LESSON TEXT-II Peter 1:16-18; Mark 9:2-29.

GOLDEN TEXT—And a voice came out of the clouds saying, This is my beloved Son, hear ye Him.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Shows Peter His Glory.

JUNIOR TOPIC-The Beauty and Glory of Christ, INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOP--What Peter Saw and Heard in the Mount.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOP-IC-The Majesty and Glory of Christ.

I. The Meaning of the Transfigura

These verses are an inspired interknew all that transpired. The hope was to take place on the cross, they were unable to see how victory could issue from death. Jesus took with Him, Peter, James and John, and they went into the mountain by themselves. Before going into the mountain He declared that there were some standing in His presence who would not taste of death till they had seen the kingdom of God come with power.

Two men from the upper world were sent to converse with Jesus about His approaching death at Jerusalem-the very thing about which the disciples refused to talk. Then, too, God's own voice was heard in words of approval of Christ's course, directing them to hear the Master.

II. Jesus Christ Glorified on the Mountain (v. 2, 3). He took the disciples "by themselves" and was "transfigured before them." This shows that the purpose of the transfiguration terminated upon the disciples and not on Christ Christ's rebuke of Peter for his unwillingness to hear concerning His death apparently for a time estranged the disciples from Him., His appearance on the mountain typifles His visible appearance on the Mount of Olives (Zech. 14:4, 9).

III. Peter, James and John Represent Israel in the Flesh in Connection

With the Kingdom (v. 2). Christ is peculiarly the King of the Israelites are to be the central people in the kingdom. This people shall be gathered from among the nations and united as one in that kingdom, in their own country.

IV. Moses and Elijah Appeared In

Glory With Jesus (vv. 4-13). These men in the glorified state are typical of the saints in glory. Moses who was once denied an entrance into Palestine appears now in glory representing the redeemed of the Lord who shall pass through death into the kingdom. Elijah represents the-redeemed who shall pass into the kingdom through translation. Some shall be living upon the earth when the Lord shall come and they without dying shall be changed and thus pass into the kingdom (I Cor. 15:50-53; I Thess. 4:14-18).

1. Peter's proposal (vv. 5, 6). So definitely was the method of the kingdom unfolded before Peter that he proposed to erect tabernacles for Christ, Moses and Elijah. It is true that the unveiling of the majestic person of Christ and the panoramic display of the kingdom somewhat discon certed Peter, yet he grasped its central meaning and proposed to celebrate the advent of the kingdom which had been prefigured in a tangible way

2. The divine voice out of the cloud (vv. 7, 8). God declared Jesus to be His Beloved Son in whom He was well pleased. If one would know what is pleasing to God, let him study Jesus Christ who perfectly did His Father's

3. Jesus' charge (vv. 9-13). He charged them that they should tell no man concerning the things which they had seen until He had risen from the dead. V. A Demonstration of the Purpose of the Establishment of the Kingdom (vv. 14-29).

When they descended from the nountain of transfiguration they witnessed a great multitude in a state of perplexity. The immediate cause of this state was the grievous condition of a young man possessed with a demon (v. 18). This young man's state easy. is representative of the nations who this young man was grievously oppressed, causing him to cast himself into the fire and into the waters, so the nations today in their great perplexity are doing the things which will result in their own destruction.

CHEESE FILLING MADE FOR GINGERBREAD

Brighten Up Somber Color of Gingerbread.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.) Almost all kinds of gingerbread are good, but there are some ways of serving gingerbread that make it even better. Serving it warm, for instance; adding some contrasting flavor or texture; brightening up its somber color with a bit of white. One of the ways of achieving all these points is to use cream cheese, nuts, and dates with it, as suggested by the bureau of home economics in the recipe below:

2 neufchatel or cream cheeses 2 cupfuls chopped dates 1 cupful chopped nuts

1/2 teaspoonful salt

Mash the cheese and mix with it enough cream to give it the consistency pretation by one who was present and of a soft filling. Add the dates, nuts, and salt, and mix well. Split open a thin loaf of hot gingerbread, spread the cheese mixture on the lower half, replace the upper part and press it down lightly. The quantity of cheese filling given here is enough for a loaf of gingerbread about 8 by 10 inches. Serve the gingerbread at once while still hot.

KITCHEN CURTAINS IS LARGE PROBLEM

Draperies of Some Sort Add Note of Cheerfulness.

(Prepared by the United States Depart-ment of Agriculture.)

Is your kitchen bright and sunny—

a cheerful place to work? Do you like the view from the window, or would you rather shut it out? Is the room easy to ventilate? Or does it present such problems as the shadow cast by an overhanging porch roof, or the tooclose proximity of your next-door neighbor's entry, or a northern exposure, seldom visited by the sun? The question of curtains for the kitchenif one decides to curtain it at allhinges on such points as these.

You are tempted to have curtains of some sort because they add a note of cheerfulness and gayety that somehow makes the work seem easier. Any type of curtain you select will need fairly frequent laundering because cookery tends to saturate dfaperies with greasy steam. Sturdy, washable materials are therefore best. In making up the curtains it is well to run in a tuck near the upper casing to al-Israel. According to Ezeklel 37:21-27. lcw for shrinkage. Good fabrics to use are unbleached muslin, gingham, glass toweling, English prints or Japanese crepe. Curtains made of any of these may be hung at the sides of the window only, or arranged to draw across it.

The curtains in the illustration, taken by the United States Department of Agriculture, are made of unbleached muslin, brightened up by hems of red and white checked gingham. There are little squares of the gingham in the lower corners. They are hung at the extreme edge of the window frame, and connected by a very narrow double-headed ruffle of the gingham instead of a valance. It was necessary in this kitchen to admit as much light and air as possible. Sometimes, as the city dweller knows, a curtain hung close to the window is necessary for privacy. Light weight but durable fabrics which will admit a good deal of light are scrim marquisette, voile or dotted swiss The material may be banded with a bright color or it may have a few appliqued motifs on it. Such glass curtains may be full length, or they may be of the Dutch or double-sash type, shirred on rods, to make ventilation

Many variations are possible in are oppressed by the devil. Just as kitchen curtains, Checked and flowered hems may be used on plain materials, and plain gingham on figured materials. One of the newest ideas is to make the kitchen shades of the oilcloth which comes in plain cream, rose, blue and green, and in figured patterns. These shades are mounted on rollers just like an ordinary window shade and can easily be made at home.

Cause of Rancidity

Rancidity in lard is caused by chemical action of the air. The federal meat inspection service advises that lard should be well rendered, free from moisture and particles of scrap. Lard should be placed in completely filled, tightly closed containers, preferably of glass or earthenware and kept in a cool dark place for preserva-

Frequent Dusting Keeps Glass Clean and Bright

Daily or at least frequent dusting of windows and mirrors keeps the glass clean and bright a long time without special cleaning. When more thoroughgoing treatment is necessary, either liquid or dry cleaners may be used, says the United States Depart-men of Agriculture. The most common liquid cleaners are clear water, or water to which washing soda, borax, ammonia, kerosene or alcohol has been added. Clear alcohol is excellent for use in cold weather, because it does not freeze, but it is too expensive for ordinary use. Soap should be used in a very light suds, if at all, for it is likely to leave a film on the glass. With liquid cleaners good results depend quite as much upon the method of application as upon the cleaner itself. The best general method is to dip a cloth in the liquid and wring it as dry as possible; then, to wash the glass with this cloth, using even, overlapping strokes, and dry it by rubbing briskly with paper, cloth or chamois. If the liquid dries without rubbing, the window will be streaked. On large windows a quick method is to use water freely and wipe it off with a rubber "squeegee" drawn smoothly and evenly across the pane with overlapping strokes. Special care must be taken to protect the woodwork from water. For dry cleaning, whiting or a commercial powder of the same fineness is used. The powder is made into a paste with water or alcohol, applied thinly to the glass, allowed to dry thoroughly, and then rubbed off with a soft cloth or paper. This is an easy method of obtaining clear windows and is a good way of cleaning mirrors, picture glass, and the like, which might be injured by water. It is, however, a dusty process and should be used before cleaning a room.

Scalloped Onions and Peanuts Are Excellent Scalloped onions and peanuts are almost like an answer to the conundrum, "When is an onion not an onion?" In this combination the flavor of the peanuts blends with that of the onions and makes something different from the taste of either alone. This dish is substantial enough to serve as the mainstay at lunch or supper. The recipe is from the United States Department of Agriculture:

to 6 medium- cream sauce sized onions % to % cupfuls of peanuts, ground
1 cupful of thin
cupful of milk

Cook the skinned onions in boiling salted water until tender. Drain the onions and slice them with a sharp knife. Place the onions in layers in a greased baking dish, cover each layer with the cream sauce, and the peanuts, continue until all the ingredients are used. Cover the top with buttered crumbs, and bake in a moderate oven until golden brown. Serve from the baking dish.

Choice Cuts of Lamb

Roast leg of lamb, broiled lamb chops and crown rib roast are three choice cuts of lamb. The United States Department of Agriculture says that the method of cooking each of these cuts is selected because in each case the meat is julcy and tender. It should be seared quickly on all sides. using intense heat, which is then re duced so as to cook the meat through more slowly, but without adding any liquid. Other methods of cooking must be used with the more exercised and consequently tougher portions of the lamb.

Fried Egg Sauce

A fried egg sauce has an altogether different flavor from egg sauce made with hard-boiled eggs. It is especially good for use in creamed vegetable dishes, such as creamed celery or vegetable oysters or onions, suggests the United States Department of Agriculture. Fry an egg very slowly and gently in butter, without stirring, until the yolk becomes mealy. Take pains to prevent the edges of the white from becoming horny; then cut into thin threads and add to one cupful of white or cream sauce.
