

HALSEY AND VICINITY BREVITIES

We sympathize with postmaster Bramwell, he's collecting box rent this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Waggoner of near Halsey were Albany visitors Saturday.

Curtis Veatch returned from Cottage Grove to visit Mrs. Veatch at the home place in the Brandon district.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Frum and family of Halsey spent Sunday at Salem at the state fair. They report a good crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Chastain and family spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Chastain's sister, Mrs. Ira Van Epps of Holley.

Wayne Veatch of U. of O. spent the week end at the home of his parents near Halsey, returning to Eugene Sunday evening.

A. H. Quimby declares that the fall rains are spoiling his little potatoes to such an extent that he expects to harvest only very large ones.

William A. Smith who is attending high school in Corvallis spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fruitt.

J. W. Veatch was a caller in the Brandon neighborhood Friday and from here went to Salem to attend the state fair. Mr. Veatch lives in Cottage Grove.

A social will be given by the Christian Endeavor society at the Church of Christ next Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. All high school students and young folks near high school age, are invited. Don't miss it.

In a discussion Monday evening as to early rising, each trying to outdo the other, the bouquet fell to Karl Bramwell who says he met the night watch going home, but the truth of the matter is the night watchman was going to work.

Ever since he and his Ford sedan got bumped off the highway, Mayor Clark vowed that henceforth the car he drives must carry a protective banner, so he purchased a coupe, bearing the warning on the radiator where all may see, "Dodge Brothers."

Miss Adah Nelson of the Halsey high school, and who is in charge of the Glee club, has been elected choir leader of the Church of Christ, and is featuring a young folks choir. They will meet at the home of Mrs. Cross this evening at 7:30 o'clock for choir rehearsal.

Miss Nelson is a graduate of Reed college, Portland.

Ned Callaway was over from Brownsville yesterday and took delivery of a couple of tractors, R. N. Matlock was acting as assistant in the preparation for the drive to Brownsville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Owens of Enid, Oklahoma, have been visiting the A. H. Quimby family the past few days while enroute to southern California to spend the winter. The two families were neighbors for many years when the Quimby's also lived in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brubaker, who for the past year have been living on the B. E. Cogswell farm near Alford, are moving to Harrisburg, where they will temporarily make their home with Mrs. Brubaker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Ringler. Mr. Cogswell expects to return to the farm from Portland.

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Saturday evening a wedding of unusual interest to Halsey people took place at the Methodist parsonage when Mrs. Effie Wesley became the bride of A. J. Hill. Rev. J. S. Miller performed the ceremony which took place at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Hill is the senior member of the firm of Hill of Co., of Halsey, and has made a host of friends during his five years residence in this city.

Mrs. Hill has been a resident of Halsey for a number of years and is active in both the church and social life of the community. They will make their home in South Halsey.

Monday evening a large party of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hill met at their home and treated them to a real old fashioned charivari.

Tuesday evening the members of the Gamma group of the Delphian chapter of Albany drove to Halsey and met at the home of Mrs. H. F. Lake. At 7:30 o'clock a covered dish supper was enjoyed. A glass basket filled with gold colored dahlias formed the center piece for the table while the Delphian colors of black and gold were carried out further in the desert, which consisted of black angel food cake and orange and chocolate jello. In keeping with the study of the Italian Renaissance which the class is studying at present, and to the fact that Italy is the home of early sculpture a small statue was placed in the center of each dish of jello.

As this was the informal meeting the members remained seated around the table during the discussion of the lesson the topic of which is "The Renaissance of Italy."

One of the pleasant features of the evening was the fact that every member of the Gamma group as well as Miss Flora Mason, president of the Delphian chapter, were present. The personnel of the Gamma group is Mrs. Guy Lelling, Mrs. Ethel I. Braden, Mrs. Estella Kendall, Mrs. W. H. Rhodes, Mrs. Dora Flood, Mrs. Irene Graham, Miss Lenore Powell, Miss Sue Breckenridge, Miss Magdalene Kuntz all of Albany.

Concluded on page 8.

THE MARCELLER from Brownsville, Mrs. Vadnaiz, will be in Halsey on Thursday, in Miller's Barber shop. Make your appointments early. $22-013*

COSTUMES OF PRINT WITH PLAIN QUALIFY AS EXCEEDINGLY CHIC

THOSE tiny print silks which came early in the season, and according to fashion's prophecy, will stay late, have completely captured the fancy of the fashionable world. Not only are they charming made up alone, forming their own self-trim, but they have such a companionable way of combining with other silks. These tiny flower-patterned prints seem to take on even more color glory, used with solid navies and blacks.

Composed costumes, such as here pictured showing wee print with plain, have gained a place of distinction in the season's styles. Another interesting point about the little patterned silks is that they print so effectively. Note that the skirt of the frock illustrated is neatly plaited, its hemline adopting a narrow border of the solid silk. This solid border treatment is being much featured this season.

The blouse is navy, of course, for this color is at present outstanding. The drape which appears at the left is really a huge kerchief of the figured silk which may be worn in the pocket as shown or knitted about the shoulders at the sweet will of its wearer. That's the way of sports frocks this season, most of them have a matching, dashing silk square somewhere in sight if not loosely tied about the neck and shoulders.

The large navy millan hat which accompanies this costume deserves special mention, for it expresses millinery at its smartest. Not only is this costume timely for immediate wear, but it will serve admirably throughout the soon-to-be autumn days.

As to prints, the future promises revelations in the way of handsome patterned velvets with wee figures somewhat after the silks which are at this moment so popular.

These incoming costumes of print velvet follow the system of the summer silk prints, in that they are made entirely of the figured material or of print with plain. One can readily foresee the treat in store of a handsome black or navy velvet with panels, revers and other details of the patterned weave.

Advance novelty velvets show in addition to gay colored design, a fetching introduction of metal embellishment. The two-piece frock of velvet print, consisting of blouse and skirt, is among newest styles.
