HOME COMING TREK TO O.A.C. OCT. 29

Football Game, Noise Parade and Other Sports Events

The annual trek to Corvallis will be on Saturday, October 29, when alumni, editors of the state and football fans in general flock to the Oregon State campus for homecoming events.

The football game, Oregon State vs. Washington State, at 2 o'clock will be the feature event of the day. Guests will be met at the trains by official cars and conveyed to the men's gymnasium for registration. Seats have been reserved for the editors as guests of Dr. W. J. Kerr, president of the college, for the football game.

Although the main program of homecoming will be Saturday, other events are scheduled to start Thursday with the homecoming sign display and the pre-rally dances. The notorious noise parade to be Friday evening at 7:15 o'clock has become a tradition of the O. A. C. homecoming. The parade will move through streets lighted by burlap torches and preceded by the famous Gold Beaver.

Saturday's events will include swimming meet, mounted wrestling, tug of war, rook-sophomore bag rush and push ball contest.
