

Halsey and Vicinity Brevities

Mrs. B. M. Bond of Halsey spent Saturday in Albany.

Elsie Reynolds was an Albany visitor Tuesday.

J. Stevenson of Halsey spent Wednesday in Harrisburg looking after business affairs.

P. A. Matheny of Albany spent Saturday in Halsey and vicinity in the interest of his insurance clients.

Louise Seefeld and Lillian Reynolds have returned to their school work at the state normal after a three day vacation.

Kenneth Smith of Halsey was a passenger on the stage Wednesday, going to Harrisburg where he is taking music lessons.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCaslin of Portland were visitors over the week end at the home of Mrs. McCaslin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Sneed of Halsey.

Owing to the thoughtfulness of J. A. McWilliams of Halsey and Charles R. Goltra of Albany the editor of the Enterprise, and his family have had two fine pheasant feeds this fall, both of which were greatly enjoyed.

Two very large potatoes were left the Enterprise office today by Mrs. W. F. Carter. One weighs two and a quarter pounds and the other two and a half pounds. They have not yet attained their growth as the peeling slips easily. They were grown on the Carter farm two miles west of Halsey and the seed was planted the latter part of June.

The Linn-Beuton county I. O. O. F. association will convene at Crawfordville October 22, at 2:30 p. m. A. E. Murphy will give the address of welcome and Will am Obermeir will respond. Regular routine of business will follow with the election of officers and selection of the next meeting place closing the afternoon session. At 6:30 p. m. a supper will be served to those attending and at 8 o'clock an open meeting will be held with music and speeches predominating. The Odd Fellow lodge of Halsey belongs to the association.

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Following a short business session last evening members of Vine Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, enjoyed a social time and banquet. During the latter, four members whose wedding anniversaries occur during October, were honored. Those honored were Mrs. W. F. White, Mrs. J. J. Corcoran, Mrs. George Taylor and Mrs. M. Miller, all of whom, with the exception of Mrs. Miller who is ill, were present and were accompanied by their husbands. The tables were lovely with bouquets of gay colored flowers and greenery and at each honor guest's place was a wedding cake. The one at Mr. and Mrs. White's was decorated with the same trimmings used on the original wedding cake 45 years ago when the White's were married in Peoria, Ill. For 33 years they have been residents of Halsey. This was the first time the cake trimmings had been used since they were taken from the original cake. Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran were married in Oxford, Iowa, 36 years ago and for the past 20 years have lived in Halsey. The Taylors and Millers were both married in Linn county, the former 32 years ago and the latter 20 years ago, and both families have made their homes continuously in Halsey.

Hostesses for the evening were Lita Miller, Sadie Robertson and Ella Rossman.

Peoria—The Potter Sewing club members held their first meeting after vacation at the home of Mrs. Charles Ronenkamp. The first part of the afternoon was spent in tacking a comfort for the hostess and the remainder of the time was passed in conversation. Mrs. Muller won first honors in a contest. Mrs. Ronenkamp served a delicious lunch to her guests at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Koch and Mrs. Freerkson assisted during the refreshment hour.

Albany—Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bussard entertained their employees of the Wardrobe at a pheasant dinner, with Mr. and Mrs. A-lo Hildebrandt, whose wedding was an event of a short time ago, as guests of honor. Places were marked at the daintily appointed table for Mrs. A. M. Goltra, Mrs. J. W. Roberts, Mrs. W. F. Yates, Mrs. Hildebrandt sr., the two guests of honor and the host and hostess.
