

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondent

Lake Creek—Friday evening the members of the Epworth League held their regular business and social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey. A short program, consisting of a song by the members, instrumental solo by Jennie Nicewood, reading by Rev. Metcalf, instrumental solo by Lucile Herndon, and a reading by Mrs. Metcalf, was greatly enjoyed.

It was unanimously voted that a Christmas program be given at the church.

Miss Bessie Harvey, whose seventeenth birthday occurred on this date, was honor guest for the evening. Several hours were spent in playing games after which delicious refreshments, chief among which was a large angel food cake prettily trimmed with 17 pink candles, were served by Mrs. Harvey. Miss Dodd of Benton county was a complimented guest for the evening.

Mrs. Edith Drinker was hostess to the members of the Halsey Women's study club Thursday afternoon. During the business session the club voted to sponsor the annual sale of Christmas seals and Mrs. G. W. Laubner and Mrs. M. Cummings will have charge of the work. "China" is the topic being studied now and Mrs. Curti Veatch gave a very interesting talk on the "physical features." A large map was used and consequently the descriptions were very easy to follow. Mrs. Sidney Smith followed with a splendid talk on "History and Government."

Following the close of the study period, Mrs. Drinkard served a dainty luncheon in the dining room which was attractively decorated in keeping with the Halloween season. Mrs. T. I. Marks assisted the hostess in serving. Mrs. C. H. Koontz was a complimented guest. Sixteen club members were present. Mrs. Martin Cummings will entertain the club at its next meeting which will be November 3.

Mrs. Paul Bierly and infant son, Donald Ellis, were the motives for a "shower" Friday afternoon with the members of the ladies Sunday school class of the Christian church as hostesses. The aid room of the church was used for this affair. Many pretty gifts were received by the honor guests. The afternoon was spent in sewing for Mrs. Bierly. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. L. Falk was honored last Wednesday by a number of friends and relatives, the affair being planned as a surprise. Mrs. Falk received many pretty gifts. The afternoon was spent socially and was brought to a close by the serving of refreshments by Mrs. J. N. Elliott and Mrs. R. E. Bierly. Those present for the afternoon were Mesdames F. W. Falk, Alex Snodgrass, E. E. Cary, R. E. Bierly, J. N. Elliott, H. J. Falk, and L. R. Falk, and the Misses Ava and Edna Falk, Doris and Lila Falk, Margaret Carey, and Betty Jean Falk, and Robert Carey and Louis Falk.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Karl Bramwell entertained for the pleasure of her son, Landon, the event being in honor of his ninth birthday. The guest list included the pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the Halsey school, and his teacher, Mrs. Nora Coleman. The afternoon was spent in playing games and was brought to a close by the hostess serving lunch. Landon received many nice presents from his young friends.

Peoria—Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Ernest Abraham was hostess to the members of the Potter Sewing club. Each member present responded to roll call with a recitation they recited as a child. The afternoon was spent in sewing carpet rags for the hostess. During the luncheon hour, the hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ida Robson of Shedd, Mrs. Edna Abraham and Mrs. Laura Abraham, of Potter community.

Mrs. George Taylor was hostess to the P. N. G. club members Wednesday afternoon with twelve members present. The rooms were lovely with their decorations of autumn flowers. During the brief business meeting it was decided to entertain the husbands and families of the members at a dinner in the Odd Fellow hall on Nov. 30. During the social hour which followed, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Melissa McMahan, served two course luncheon.
