SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

The Halloween dinner which was given under the auspices of the members of Purity Rebekah lodge, at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening was well attended. The dining room, which has recently been newly papered and painted, was decorated with black cats and witches, while the same decorative scheme with the addition of bouquets of autumn flowers, was carried out in the table decorations. Following the delicious two course dinner a program consisting of a group of musical numbers by the orchestra, instrumental trio by Georgina Clark, Nora Belle Coldiron and Mary Smith; song, "I've Got the Rheumatiz," Vivian Frum and Fern Rossmann, accompanist, Retta Armstrong; instrumental duet, Beverly Icom and Retta Armstrong; and a vocal solo by Carl Icom, was given in the hall and the remainder of the evening was spent socially.

Friday afternoon Miss Howard of the Kirk school gave a party for her pupils, with a number of additional guests present. A delightful time was had by everyone present. Miss Howard treated her guests to candy, peanuts, popcorn and apples. Additional guests, for the party and also for the Frances E. Willard program which was given by the school in the morning, were Edna and Betty Jean Falk, Viola and Dorothy Ringdorf, Margaret Carey, Margaret Harding, Eloise Babcock, Willard and Lawrence Gillette, and Jimmy Van Nice.

Pine Grove—Friday evening a party of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Will McLaren jr., with an old time charivari. Mrs. McLaren was Pauline Corothers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Corothers of Peoria, and Mr. McLaren is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Will McLaren of Pine Grove. The wedding took place October 25, in Albany.

Lak. Creek—The school gave a Halloween program Friday afternoon after which Mrs. Ledgerwood treated the scholars and visitors to a wiener roast and Mrs. Ardy furnished home made candy.

Among those enjoying the occasion were Mes James N. H. Cummings, Henry Brock, Williams, Wilson, George McNeil, Ardy, and Dickey Brock.

Fayetteville—The Priscilla club members met at the home of Mrs. R. W. Brown Thursday afternoon and spent the afternoon socially. On Saturday evening the members accompanied by their husbands, enjoyed a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Zimmerman.
