SOCIETY NEWS
From Our Regular Correspondents

Saturday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Waggoner was the scene of a gay party, the affair being in honor of Miss Madge Abel, Mrs. Waggoner's sister.

The guests had been asked to dress as hobos. Each one was required to earn their "hand-out" and a variety of work, among which was the patching of tires, peeling potatoes, milking a bogus cow, etc., was done. The hobos told hard luck stories as they demolished their lunch. Ice cream was served in coffee cans, pie plates and various sizes, shapes and kinds of dishes. A circle of cookies was arranged in the center of the table with the instructions to do as a hobo would do. Fitting contests and games were then played.

Those present for this delightful evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kizer, Edith Long, Irene Quimby, Hurley Overton, Harold Laswell, Ray Wilkinson, Roy McDougal, John Quimby, Madge Abel and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Falk and two children of Salem were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Fred Falk.

Mrs. Sarah Smith and daughter, Bessie Smith, of Corvallis, and Kenneth Bacon of Jefferson, were among the Sunday afternoon callers at the Veatch home. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Harding of the Kirk district were also visitors at the same place.

Peoria—Mrs. Henry Abraham was a charming hostess of Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Potter sewing club. The time passed all too quickly as those present embroidered quilt blocks or worked on other fancy work. Several contests were also enjoyed. The afternoon was brought to a close by the hostess serving a delicious lunch. She was assisted by Mrs. May Abraham, Mrs. Edna Abraham and her daughter Bernice. Complimented guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Lynch and Mrs. Lewis Abraham.
