MARY HAYES, PIONEER OF OREGON, CALLED TUESDAY

Mrs. Daniel J. Hayes died at her home in this city Tuesday morning at three o'clock, following an illness of over two years.

Mary VanLandingham was born at Jefferson, July 8, 1857. She was the daughter of George and Almira VanLandingham, Oregon pioneers who crossed the plains from Indiana and located at Jefferson. Mr. VanLandingham was killed a few years later in a steamboat accident on the Sacramento river.

In December 1876, Miss VanLandingham was married to Daniel J. Hayes, and practically all of her 51 years of wedded life she has spent in Halsey. Mrs. Hayes was a member of the Methodist church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by four children. They are Mrs. Dora Standish of Montana, Mrs. Grace Nash of Portland, Mrs. Ruby Standish and George Hayes of Halsey. She is also survived by eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Mrs. J. C. Bramwell of Halsey is a cousin.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at two o'clock at the Methodist church. Rev. J. S. Miller conducted the service. Burial was in the Alford cemetery. Rossman and Wright had charge of the arrangements.

Trap Shoot Club Formed With A Membership of Twenty-five

At a meeting held at the city hall last night a trap shooting club was organized with about 25 members enrolled. L. W. Patton was appointed as temporary chairman and the club elected the following officers to guide the new organization through the first year.

C. P. Moody, president; Carl Hill, secretary-treasurer; L. W. Patton, James Drinkard and H. F. Lake to draft by-laws, and Frank Gansle, Jesse Cross and James McWilliams are the board of trustees. The object of the organization is recreation and sport and is not intended to secure any game preserves or other concessions.

C. P. Moody and D. C. Rossman are the promoters of the sport and if either one calls on you to sign on the dotted line, humor them by granting their request.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR N. OF W. PUBLIC INSTALLATION

Last evening about 50 members of the Christian Endeavor society met at the home of Muriel Lake and held their regular business meeting, with Carl Sperling, president, presiding. Later, games and music were enjoyed until a late hour when a covered dish supper was served.

Three new members were added to the roll call of Vine Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, when Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Bressler and Mrs. Moss were taken in by initiation. Plans were made for visiting the Shedd lodge next Tuesday evening.

On January 4, the lodge will hold a public installation. At that time Minnie E. Hiner, grand guardian of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, will visit the lodge. A program will be parts of the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Stella Blackberry of Salem will act as installing officer.

A covered dish supper and a social were enjoyed last evening after the business session.

W. E. Head and wife and W. Yapple, wife and daughter of Eugene were guests at the Florence Leeper home in Halsey Wednesday.

Unruly Freshmen Are Punished

The poor "fresh" always gets it in the neck, due to the vigilance of the sophomores and other upper classmen. Here are Richard Young, left, in ball and chain, and Ralph White, right, in the stocks, after they were found on the campus without the regular "beanie" on their heads. Both are registered freshmen of the Pasadena Junior college. White is a member of the police force.

MARY ANN GRAY, LOCAL RESIDENT, CALLED TUESDAY

Mary Ann Gray, wife of F. M. Gray, died at the family home in this city Tuesday evening at the age of 79 years.

Mrs. Gray was the daughter of Lydia and Thomas Morgan, Oregon pioneers, and was born October 2, 1848, near Brownsville. On November 3, 1870 she was married to F. M. Gray and during the past 18 years they have made their home in Halsey, although practically all her life had been spent in this vicinity.

Mrs. Gray had been a life long member of the United Presbyterian church. She was also a charter member of Purity Rebekah lodge of Halsey, having joined the order 25 years ago, and was also a member of the Past Noble Grand club.

Mrs. Gray was the mother of four children, two of whom died in infancy. The two living are Mrs. Belle Cormley of Halsey and Mrs. Margaret McClelland of San Francisco. Mr. Gray also survives, as well as five grandchildren and five great grandchildren, and the following brothers and sisters, John, Will, J. W. and Ed Morgan, Mrs. Margaret Duncan and Mrs. O. W. Bond, the latter of Halsey.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. J. S. Miller was in charge of the services. Burial was in the Pine Grove cemetery.

Members of the Rebekahs attended the services in a body.

DISTRICT CONVENTION OF REBEKAH LODGE A SUCCESS

Halsey residents may well be proud of those having in charge the details of the district convention of the Rebekah lodge, which was held here last week. Mrs. Esther Bond, as chairman, presided. Over 200 were present during the afternoon and evening sessions.

Next year's convention will be held in Jefferson with Bertha Curl as chairman and Clara B. Amos of Lebanon, vice chairman.

The visiting delegates and members were served a banquet at 5:30.

Nearly every business house decorated in the Rebekah colors of pink and green, and during the intermission between the afternoon and evening session the chairman sent out a delegation of three out of town members to judge them. Honors went to D. H. Sturtevant with the Morris pharmacy second and the bank third. Charlie Straley decorated the Sturtevant windows.

LIKE CONVENTION

Brownsville.—The sixth district convention of the Rebekah lodge was held at Halsey Nov. 10, with over 200 in attendance. The entertaining lodge is to be congratulated on the way they entertained the visitors. Eighteen attended from Brownsville.

Miller Residence Saved from Fire by Mrs. E. C. Miller

Last Saturday morning the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller narrowly escaped being burned. Mrs. Miller was sitting in the living room and heard the paper cracking but did not at first however connect it with a fire. When it continued however she decided to investigate and discovered the paper around the kitchen chimney on fire. She hurriedly obtained water and soon had the blaze extinguished.
