Fur Trimming Adds Satisfying Warmth To These Children's Winter Coats

Quality and Service In Every Garment

The tiniest miss is particular about her coat—it must be warm, of course, and it must be fashioned for service—but it also must be as smart as her older sister's.

Polaires—Fancy Coatings—Novelty Mixtures

Materials that look well and that will stand plenty of hard wear have been used to make these coats—warm linings and fur trimmings add to their serviceability.

Coats To Please Particular Mothers

The values in our children's coat stock appeal instantly to mothers because the quality and durability they demand are there—at prices that bring coats of real worth within a modest budget.

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Miss Georgina Clark, the charming young daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Bert S. Clark, was hostess to a group of friends at her home in east Halsey Friday evening. The spacious rooms of the Clark home were gay with baskets of brightly colored autumn flowers, while softly shaded lights added to the attractiveness of the other decorations. Cards were the diversion of the evening and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served. Miss Nora Coldiron assisted the hostess in serving.

Seventeen friends of Miss Clark enjoyed this pleasant affair.

Thursday evening Mrs. L. H. Armstrong entertained Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cross and Mrs. Leonard Kizer at a 6:30 o'clock dinner in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter

Hazel and the thirteenth anniversary of the birth of her daughter Retta. The dinner table was centered with a beautifully decorated cake on which were thirteen candles. The remainder of the evening was spent in conversation and music.

Mrs. Kizer is Retta's teacher in school and Hazel is in Mrs. Cross' room.

Tuesday evening thirteen members of the local lodge, Neighbors of Woodcraft drove to Shedd where they were guests of Calla Circle. The ritualistic work was exemplified by the officers and drill team of the hostess lodge. One member was taken in by initiation. Each visiting member from Halsey and also one from Lebanon was called upon for a short talk. During the social hour games were played and later a delicious supper was served. Halsey members present were Neighbors Cross, Cocoran, Taylor, Dykstre, LaFollette, Lake, White, Rossman, Isom, Miller, Thomson, Robertson, and Moss.

Peoria—The Potter Sewing club members were guests of Mrs. Dick Duncan Wednesday afternoon. One of the pleasant features of the afternoon was the shower for Mrs. Duncan and which had been planned as a surprise. Mrs. Duncan was the recipient of many pretty as well as useful gifts. Conversation and sewing were pleasant diversions until the serving of a delicious lunch brought the afternoon to a close.

Shedd—The Brownsville chapter of the Eastern Star invited 25 members of Willamet chapter of Shedd and 25 of Barzillai chapter to help them enjoy a reception for the grand lodge officers Monday night. Twenty-two from Willamet chapter enjoyed the evening. Those from Peoria attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lamar and Mrs. J. S. Lamar.
