George Schlack of Albany were guests at the L. H. Armstrong home in Halsey Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. White of Halsey started for Tillamook last Thursday but only got as far as Heabo where they ate dinner and then returned home. The trip was discontinued because of the heavy rain and the fear of slides along the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Marsters arrived in Halsey last Thursday from their home at Shasta, Calif., on a brief visit at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Marsters and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wahl. They left for home Saturday noon. Mrs. E. S. Marsters accompanied them and will visit them for a time.

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

The boys of Halsey under the capable leadership of Elias Robins, were hosts to the members of the girls B. B. club Wednesday evening, at the city hall. The evening was spent with games and music and was closed with the serving of refreshments by Herman Koontz and Ellsworth Gardner.

About forty young people were present for this enjoyable evening. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Miss Pauland of California, students at Oregon State college.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsey extended the hospitality of their home to a group of friends. The rooms of their cozy bungalow were gay with flowers while softly shaded lights added to the other attractive settings.

Games were the diversion of the evening and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

The guest list included a number of the Halsey young people as well as from the surrounding community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sickels entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner last Thursday. Places were marked at the attractively appointed table for Mrs. L. E. Bond, Lester Bond and Mrs. Hal Howard all of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bond, Melvin and Lloyd Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Isom, Carl and Bever-

Mrs. M. E. Gardner extended the hospitality of her home Friday evening to the members of the Epworth League for their regular monthly meeting. Early in the evening a brief business meeting was held, and the remainder of the evening was spent socially with games as the chief diversion. The pleasant time was brought to a close by the serving of refreshments.

Thursday of last week the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nemchick of Harrisburg was the scene of a gay party when a number of their friends met there for a Thanksgiving dinner. Those privileged to enjoy this pleasant affair were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Falk and children, Everett, Pearl, Neljie and Grace of Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass and sons, Jack and Merle of Shedd, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Phillips of Seio, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nemchick and son Bobby, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sherrill of Harrisburg.
