Sewing club. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in making sacks for their Christmas candy and looking over the little dresses the members had made for the Salvation army for Christmas distribution. Late in the afternoon Mrs. Albertson, assisted by her two daughters, served a delicious lunch. Complimented guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Elliott, Bierly, Harold Muller, Ramsey and Frances Powers, and Miss Donna Powers.

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Honoring Mrs. Karl Bramwell, whose birthday was yesterday, Mrs. J. A. Miller entertained at a six o'clock dinner at her home last evening. The table was centered with a beautifully decorated birthday cake, while vases filled with cut flowers, added to the beauty of the other table appointments. Places were marked for Mrs. M. M. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Bramwell, Mrs. Florence Leeper, Francis Leeper, Donald, Liudon and Roberta Bramwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. John Evans of Lake Creek was a charming hostess to the members of the L. C. and B. club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Twenty women enjoyed her hospitality. After the business session a pin placing and an automobile contest was conducted and later refreshments were served.

Names of the members were written on slips of paper, each one present drawing a slip, and at the next meeting of the club the one drawing the name will give the one whose name was drawn a Christmas gift. Mrs. Thomas George will be hostess to the club members at the next meeting.

Saturday afternoon a number of girls of the Spoon River neighborhood met at the home of Mrs. J. N. Elliott and organized a sewing club with Mayne Falk as president, Pearl Falk vice president and Ava Falk secretary. The other members are Nellie, Edna and Grace Falk. Esther Seefeld expects to join later. The club has been named the La France sewing club, the members to meet once a month. Mrs. Elliott was chosen leader.

Peoria — Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. Albertson entertained the members of the Potter
