SCHOOL NOTES

Edited By Wilma Wahl

A motion picture on forestry was given at the city hall Thursday at 2:30. The pictures dealt with forest fires, the causes, and their prevention to a large degree. Representatives from the bureau of forestry gave short lectures. Several schools from the rural districts were present.

The Powell children who have been attending the grade school have moved to Arizona where they will continue in school.

Norris Hughes had been absent from school the past week and has now left for good.

Mamie Falk was absent all last week except Tuesday.

Those absent from school Friday were Ernestine Coleman, Lucille Phelps, Ellsworth Gardner and Mary Smith.

Due to the lack of basketball games the last week, there hasn't been much doing in the line of athletics.

The Christmas spirit is being shown in the grade rooms and the high school by the Christmas trees. The junior class has been appointed to decorate the high school tree.
