

U. of O. Library

AGRICULTURE
HORTICULTURE
LIVESTOCK

Halsey Enterprise

DAIRYING
WOOL, MOHAIR
POULTRY

Established in 1912. Vol. 16. No. 34.

Halsey, Oregon, Thursday, December 29, 1927.

Devoted to the Interests of Halsey and Linn County

Lake Creek News

(By Special Correspondent)

Karl Williams is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Mell Dawson of Albany is a guest of her niece, Mrs. Luther Brock and family.

Mrs. Ada Cummings of Corvallis visited at the Martin Cummings home this week.

Mr. Henry Cook of West Fir was a guest at the H. E. Davis home over the week end.

Martin Cummings is at home after spending several days at the hospital in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Harvey have as their guests their son and his wife from Portland.

A number of people from here attended the program at Pine Grove Friday evening.

Revival Meetings are in progress here this week and the attendance increasing each evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Spores of Springfield spent several days here as the guests of Mrs. Spores parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.S. Williams.

The Christmas program entitled "The Heavenly Host" by Lyman Bayard, was given by the Epworth League at the church Sunday evening. About 250 persons attended this program and much praise was given the young people for their excellent presentation of this beautiful Christmas story. Miss Wealthy Traynor of Eugene was soloist and Miss Lavelle Palmer sang "Star of the East" in a very pleasing manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logan and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Owen, former residents of this place, attended the Christmas program given here Sunday evening. Others attending from a distance were Miss Martha Voyler and father of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Minckley, D. H. Sturtevant and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Bond, and Miss Georgina Clark all of Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lamar, Mrs. J. S. Lamar, Mr. L. C. Hughes and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Bayne and others from Peoria. Mrs. Lloyd Simon and family and Mr. Harold Owen of Harrisburg.

Alford Arrows

(Enterprise Correspondent)

Violet Burnett of Harrisburg spent the week end with Velda Curtis.

A good sized crowd attended the Alford school program Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKee of Eugene spent the week end at the Michael Rickard home.

E. D. Isom and family were dinner guests at the W. C. Sickels home in Halsey Friday evening.

George Jackson and family spent Christmas day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Landis Philpott and three children of Noti, visited at the Chester Curtis home Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. J. F. Isom visited at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lusby, of Springfield, the first of the week.

Mr. Fitzmorris who resides on the Cogswell place is enjoying a visit from his brother, T. A. Fitzmorris of Wisconsin.

Christmas guests at the John Rolf home were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hale and children of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. George Godwin of Suver, Miss Etta Godwin and Gail Prayther of Welldale and Deo Rolf of Sodaville.

In School at Sixty

Mrs. Mollie Kaplan, sixty-year-old grandmother of thirteen children at her desk in Public Evening School No. 150, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Christmas dinner guests at the E. D. Isom home were Mrs. L. E. Bond and Lester Bond of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Robnett, De Eita and Doris Robnett and C. E. Mercer of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Isom, Pientis and Vyrton Isom.

Pine Grove Items

(Enterprise Correspondent)

Floyd Nichols and family were Albany visitors Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Gibson was an Albany visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Eagy went to Albany Tuesday.

Nora and Pearl Pehrson came home Saturday to spend the holiday vacation.

The Fairfield family are enjoying a new radio which was installed last week.

A number of Pine Grove people attended the pageant at Lake Creek Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoyer spent Christmas with Mrs. Hoyer's parents in Albany.

L. E. Eagy and family were guests at his parents home near Oakville Christmas day.

Georgia Overton and Doris Torgenson of Albany are visiting Mrs. Ray Hoyer during vacation.

E. E. Hoyer and family spent Christmas as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McManus at Jefferson.

A very large crowd attended the Christmas program at the Pine Grove school house Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook and son who have been visiting at the Saylor home left for their California home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Chandler, George Chandler and family visited at the Laurence Zimmerman home near Shedd Tuesday.

Anna and Mary Heinrich and Fred Heinrich of Corvallis and Albert Heinrich of Portland, spent Christmas at the Heinrich home.

A number of Pine Grove people attended the Christmas tree and program at the church in Peoria Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sylvester attended the Christmas program at the Summerville school east of Harrisburg Thursday evening.

Some men from O. A. C. have been testing chickens for bacillary white diarrhoea, having tested the Pehrson flock Thursday and Sylvester's Friday, and a crew from the Russell Poultry farm tested the flock at the Gibson farm Wednesday.

Charles Poole and family were guests at the Bert Clark home last Thursday night while on their way from their former home in Lebanon to Springfield where Mr. Poole has bought an undertaking business.

No Rest for Father Time

HALSEY AND VICINITY BREVITIES

Barbara Goins of Albany has been the guest of Muriel Lake the past several days.

Miss Gladys McCornack is spending the holiday at the home of her parents in Eugene.

Mrs. M. M. Ward spent last week in Albany at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David Froman.

Miss Adah Nelson left Friday afternoon for her home in Portland to spend the Christmas vacation.

Georgina Clark spent Sunday night and Monday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Brock of Lake Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leeper spent Christmas at Brownsville at the home of the latter's brother, Ed Starr.

Mrs. Florence Leeper and son Francis went to Pleasant Hill Wednesday to visit the former's nieces, Helen and Jeanette Settle.

Rev. J. S. Miller of Halsey will preach at the Methodist church in Brownsville Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, substituting for Rev. Gray.

Next Sunday is New Year's day. Read Mt. 1, and start the year right by attending the Church of Christ. Special music at all services.

Delos Clark who is teaching at Crane, eastern Oregon, is spending the holidays in Halsey at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clark.

P. A. Pehrson of the Pine Grove community, was in Halsey Wednesday morning on a business trip and while here paid the Enterprise a pleasant visit.

Last Friday a car load of gravel was put on the drive around the Methodist church and now Rev. J. S. Miller says there is no excuse for any of the members staying away because of the mud.

Next Sunday is New Year's day. Read Mt. 1 and start the year right by attending the Church of Christ. Special music at all services.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Duford Morris and son Bobbie spent Sunday and Monday in Portland at the homes of Mrs. Morris' sisters, Mrs. Leroy Newton and Mrs. Zellen Conwell.

Bonita Tussing who is employed at the Meier & Frank store in Portland, returned to that city Monday evening after having been in Halsey to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amor Tussing.

John and Worth Bagg left last night for Lakeside, Utah, where they are employed on a construction gang. They have been in Halsey to spend Christmas with their families.

Mrs. Dora Standish who was called to Halsey recently by the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Daniel Hayes, left for Portland Tuesday, to spend a few days before going on to her home at Clieve, Montana.

Fred Brown chief deputy game warden (who retains his office notwithstanding the fact he was fired last summer, by the Albany Democrat) was in Halsey yesterday on official business, and apparently without the sanction of that paper.

A. E. Whibeck received a message Tuesday telling of the death of his sister, Mrs. Frances Bloomfield, at Rockford, Iowa, Mrs. Bloomfield, who was 74 years of age, has visited here at her brother's home several times in the past six years.

Hansel E. Miller, head of an insurance company, and Osa Miller, stenographer for the Kitham stationery company, both of Portland, and their brother Harold who is

Practical Costume for General Daytime Wear

A practical costume for general day time wear through the winter is this smart sweater costume worn by Alleen Pringle, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star.

The skirt of beige cashmere is box plaited and the striking sweater has the basic color of beige, with a formal pattern of yellow, brick red and black.

The V neckline and cuffs are band ed with the same beige cashmere of the skirt and a narrow belt of this material encircles the waistline.

Note the smart old gold jewelry so fashionable today which is worn as accessories with this costume.

Unlawful to Run Boats on Muddy

Perry Stellmacher deputy game warden was in Halsey Wednesday afternoon on official business and while here called at the Enterprise office. There has been some question as to the lawfulness of using boats on Muddy, in the game refuge at Alford, and Mr. Stellmacher states it is unlawful, as the running of boats up and down the stream would have a tendency to frighten the birds.

This game refuge embraces the Barkhart, Cogswell and Michie Rickard farms, about 1750 acres in all.

teaching in the Ryderwood, Wash., schools, spent Christmas in Halsey at the home of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Miller.

Joseph Hume, county commissioner, was a business visitor here Monday.

Velma Hodly left this morning for Portland where she will visit friends for a few days.

The case of H. M. Stevenson, of Brownsville, who was arrested near that city December 21 for hunting after hours, was heard before Justice of the Peace Bert S. Clark Wednesday afternoon. Stevenson plead guilty and the case was continued for sentence. The charge was preferred by Perry A. Stellmacher, deputy game warden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gormley of Coquille, have been spending the past week in and near Halsey, visiting at the E. E. Gormley, Ernest Gormley and James Gormley homes. Mr. Gormley expects to return to Coquille Sunday while Mrs. Gormley will go to Portland for a visit with her two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Walsh and Mrs. May Schroebor.

Frank Gansle was around town rather late last night arousing our suspicions that something was the matter and on questioning him we learned that he and Mrs. Gansle were over Sunday guests with relatives at Oregon City and that Mrs. Gansle decided to remain for a longer visit and Frank had to come home alone. Mrs. Gansle returned today noon.

Spoon River Sparks

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

W. R. Kirk and family were in Albany Tuesday.

Carl Seefeld and family were guests at the Henry Seefeld home Sunday.

Mrs. L. R. Falk and children were business callers at Harrisburg Monday.

Charles Straley and family spent Tuesday evening at the G. J. Rike home.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson were Christmas dinner guests at the W. R. Kirk home.

J. N. Elliott and family were Christmas eve guests at the Robt. Ramsey home.

The H. L. Straley family were Christmas dinner guests at the Charles Straley home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Rike and sons, Harlie and James, spent Sunday at Earl Ringsdorf's.

Mrs. Hazel Mankers of Portland and Miss Merle Straley of Marshfield spent Christmas vacation at H. L. Straley's.

Week end guests at the R. E. Bierly home were Titus Bierly and family from Oregon City and C. L. Falk of this neighborhood.

A family reunion and Christmas dinner of the Waggener family was a pleasant event at the J. P. Templeton home. Places were laid for seventeen.

R. L. Snyder and daughter Ruth, of Portland, and L. R. Snyder and wife of Salem, spent Christmas day at the Merwyn Van Nice home. Miss Ruth remained for a week's visit.

Among those attending the program of the Pine Grove school last Saturday night was the W. R. Kirk family. An excellent entertainment program was given. Miss Grace Kirk is the teacher.

J. H. Van Nice and family from Salem attended the doll social at the Kirk school house Friday night returning home the next day. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn Van Nice.

Mrs. O. O. Howard and son, Thomas, motored up from Yamhill Friday afternoon to attend the program and social given at the Kirk school house that evening. She was an over night guest at the Merwyn Van Nice home while Howard stayed with his friend Wilis Kirk. They returned home Saturday with Miss Doris Howard accompanying them.

A very enjoyable time was had at the program and social at the Kirk school Friday night. The entertainment consisted of a radio program given by the entire school. There was a vocal selection by Nellie Pearl and Mamie Falk and also a vocal selection by Edna Van Nice accompanied by Roberta Van Nice and a two act play "Finnigan's Flat" by the school. The concluding number was the "Madonna" scene and then Santa, the tree and the treats for the children. The proceeds from the doll social netted $22.21. There was a large crowd in spite of the weather.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

Early Sleep Producers

Not until the Nineteenth century were men able to find a drug that would produce anesthesia. Until that time operations were performed only in case of life or death. Dr. James Simpson, a Scotch physician, discovered the value of chloroform as an anesthetic by experimenting on himself, and Dr. Crawford Long of Georgia was the first to use ether.

(© 1927, Western Newspaper Union.)

Won the Toss and Went to His Death

Western air express pilots, C. A. Burrows (left) and J. B. Taylor as they tossed coins in Denver to see which should pilot a huge mail plane on its first trip which ended, a few minutes after Taylor, the winner, made his take off, in a burned and broken heap of wreckage, with the pilot horribly burned to death.