SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs Emma True entertained the members of Past Noble Grand club at their regular meeting. During the afternoon officers were elected. Mae Miller will head the club this year as president, Clara LaFollette will fill the office of vice president and Nellie Isom that of secretary.

Shedd—New Years eve members of the Christian Endeavor held a watch party with a large number of the young folks of Shedd present to bid the old year goodbye and welcome in the new one. The hours passed all too quickly with games and music and just before midnight a committee served oyster soup.

Pine Grove—Mrs. W. D. McLaren entertained the women's missionary society of the Peoria South Methodist church at their social meeting Thursday afternoon. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Will McLaren, served a delicious luncheon, after which presents were distributed to those present from a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. Those present were Mesdames Roy Metcalf, J. S. Lamar, J. W. Lamar, Perle Cummings, Tom Ardry, Grant Brattian, George Bayne Alice Dunn and E. E. Hover.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Albertson, whose wedding was an event of Christmas day, were surprised by their friends Monday evening. Ten car loads of young people drove to the home of Mr. Albertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Albertson, west of Halsey, where he and his bride were visiting, and for a while music (?) from all kinds of make-shift instruments was heard. The visitors were invited in and the groom was called on for a speech after which radio music was enjoyed and home made candy and oranges were served.

HONK! HONK!

In five years 100,000 dashed into eternity. What's out there? Nobody knows. Better come around and have brakes relined or adjusted. Also you can get a can of tire patching for two bits.
