

DISTRICT EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY HELD AT LAKE CREEK

Meeting Well Attended and Very Instructive

The District Epworth League Rally was held at the M. E. church South at Lake Creek Saturday and Sunday. About 50 delegates from Corvallis, Tangent, McFarland, Peoria and Yarnall were in attendance. Rev. Roy Metcalf presided at the Saturday evening session.

Reports from each league were heard. Special music was furnished by Mrs. Howells, instructor of violin at Philomath college who was accompanied by Miss Howells. Short talks were given by Rev. S. H. Shangle of Milton, Rev. J. A. McKee of Walla Walla, Washington, Dr. Harper of Corvallis, and Rev. Patterson of McFarland after which a social hour was spent, each delegation entertaining with a stunt or charade.

Sunday morning Rev. J. A. McKee instructed a large class of the young people and later preached to an appreciative audience.

A basket dinner was served at noon after which Quarterly Conference was conducted by Presiding Elder S. H. Shangle. During the afternoon a round table was conducted by Rev. J. A. McKee. A model Epworth League lesson and a sermon by Rev. Shangle closed the evening session.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Lake Creek people for their hospitality.

Lake Creek News

(By Special Correspondent)

J. S. McWilliams of Halsey has been painting at the Henry Brock home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranel Brock accompanied Mrs. Dicy Brock to Eugene Wednesday where she underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils.

Charles Wright of Halsey was a delegate from the M. E. church to the Epworth League rally at Lake Creek January 28-29.

Mrs. Laura Woodward received a message from Walla Walla Sunday informing her of the serious illness of her son and that an operation was necessary. Nothing has since been heard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dodd and children visited Mrs. Dodd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey on Sunday.

Mrs. Manlee Spores of Mohawk, Karl Williams of Portland, Helen Williams and Howard Gilbert of Corvallis, were guests at the C. S. Williams home for the week end.

Archie Hopper is suffering with a broken arm received while cranking a car.

Who was it that said the ground hog saw his shadow?

NEW SENATOR

Most recent photograph of Elmer Thomas, the new United States senator from Oklahoma. He succeeded John William Harrell.

Peoria News Items

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

Raymond Mode who has been working at Wendling has returned home for a few days.

J. W. Lamar attended a business meeting of the building committee of the Masonic lodge at Shedd Friday night.

Several from Peoria attended the district league convention at Lake Creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Finnegan of Eugene visited at the home of Mrs. Alice Dern, his mother, Sunday.

Dr. Howard of Corvallis was called to see Mrs. Alice Barcus on Monday. She has been sick several weeks.

The revival meetings at the M. E. Church South closed Thursday night. The evangelist, Rev. Patterson, returned to his home at McFarland.

Mrs. J. S. Lamar and Mrs. Fay Githens attended a meeting of the officers of the Eastern Star at Shedd Monday afternoon.

C. W. Nichols and John McNeil were Albany visitors Saturday. Mr. Nichols driving home in a new car.

Shedd Personals

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Margason and family were guests at the G. Large home in Brownsville Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arnold were transacting business in Albany Monday.

O. M. Thomson, accompanied by Carrie Reicart and Mrs. Sophia Thompson, spent Monday in Albany and Wednesday in Salem.

Jesse Walton and his sister Opal were visitors at the Charles Arnold home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Dickson, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Portland, arrived home Wednesday.

Mrs. Mae Robnet has returned to her home in Shedd from Oakridge where she had been to visit her mother.

The school board of district 37 held a meeting at the bank Monday.

The Eastern Star lodge held its regular meeting Wednesday night. A special meeting will be held on February 10 at which time the head officers will be here from Portland.

Alice Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Thompson, is back in school again after having been confined to her home for a week by illness.

Church Notices

Methodist Next Sunday:
10 a. m., Sunday school
11, preaching. Subject: Sermon, "Running Life's Race."
There will be special music next Sunday. Miss Alberta Koontz be heard in a solo.
6:30 Epworth League
7:30 public services.
Evening subject "Evangelical Preaching."
7:30 Thursday, prayer meeting
J. S. Miller, pastor.

Church of Christ
Meet with us at 10:00 and enjoy our fine Sunday school under the superintendency of W. H. Robertson.

Sunday school, 10.
11:00 a. m. morning worship and communion for all christians.
Solo "Are you a friend of Jesus," by E. Isom. Male trio, "I've Found a Friend" Sermon: "Make a Friend."

The Groundhog Thinks He's the Goat

HALSEY AND VICINITY BREVITIES

Rexall Silver Jubilee Birthday sale this month at the Dawson drug store, Albany.

A new heating and ventilating plant has been installed at the Brandon school house.

Mrs. J. A. Johnson and daughter of Pine Grove were business visitors in Halsey Tuesday.

Do not forget the Rexall Silver Jubilee Birthday sale this month at the Dawson drug store, Albany.

Save with Safety at the Rexall drug store during the Silver Jubilee Birthday sale, Fred Dawson, Albany.

Mrs. Joy Roberts and daughter Lucille of Eugene were visitors at the P. J. Forster home in Halsey last week.

Guy Hughes editor of the Harrisburg Bulletin, was in Halsey last Saturday and while here was a visitor at the Enterprise office.

Wayne Veatch came home from Eugene Friday evening. Saturday morning he motored to Monmouth returning here early Sunday morning.

P. J. Forster was busy Monday morning disinfecting the different rooms at the school house. His slogan seems to be "prevention" and the health of the pupils bears out the theory.

Elmon G. Miller of Portland spent Saturday night and Sunday in Halsey at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Miller. Sunday morning he was heard in the special music service at the Methodist church.

6:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor, Muriel Lake will be leader. Come.

7:30, song service with the orchestra of which we are justly proud. Pantomime and sermon, "The Ideal Home." During the pantomime "God Give Us Homes" will be sung by E. Isom and a mixed quartet. C. Adrian Stas, minister.

Rev. J. S. Miller will preach at the Pine Grove church Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

Willie Gallisile of The Dalles arrived in Halsey Wednesday for a visit at the A. F. Albertson home.

Mrs. W. H. Wheeler spent Tuesday night and Wednesday morning in Eugene on a business trip.

Empire C. London of Brush Creek has moved to Lompac, California, for the benefit of his health.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Waggener and children, Heleu and George, visited at the W. C. Sickels home Sunday.

Miss Gladys McCarnack, instructor in the Halsey high school spent the week end in Eugene at the home of her parent.

The Keesting place in east Halsey has been sold to J. W. Morgan of Halsey according announcement made this week.

Charles Hamer, William McDowell and Charles Ganzle drove to Lebanon Monday evening and attended the American Legion meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Sweet, son and daughter and Mr. Sweet's sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts and daughter of Eugene were guests at the P. J. Forster home in Halsey Sunday. Mr. Forster says they had a feast of ice cream.

B. M. Bond and C. H. Koontz attended the Masonic meeting in Albany Friday evening. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bond and Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sturtevant, who took in the college show during the evening.

Tuesday evening the Fred Falk home was the scene of a happy little surprise party, with birthday anniversary of Delma Falk as the motive. The hours passed all too quickly with the young folks playing games and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Fayetteville Items

Miss Dale McKinley of Eugene spent the week end at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McKinley.

Mary McConnell who is staying at the M. S. Coon home spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Childbeck and daughters Thelma and Isabelle of Vancouver, spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Childbeck's uncle, George V. Maxwell and family.

Mrs. Lottie Pate and daughter, Neoms, of Albany, were afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Coney Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brown and Mrs. H. F. Coney spent the evening at the John Pugh home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hamilton and Sam Hamilton were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coney Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Froman and Miss Elizabeth Barton were Corvallis visitors Sunday.

The Priscilla sewing club of the Greenback school met at the school house with their leader, Mrs. Olive Pugh Friday.

Ruth Haverland and Anza McConnell came home from Monmouth Friday and spent the week end at their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Duncan and daughter Anna Marie and their house guest, Mrs. Fannie Cox of Portland, spent the day at the home of Mrs. Duncan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Wilson, Thursday.

Professor Rowland instructor at O. A. C. purchased a McCormick-Deering combine harvester from Schultz Bros. This is said to be the only combine that will thresh ryegrass and clover seed successfully.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited By Wilma Wahl

The senior class has been working on their play "Ruth in a Rush." The first act has been practiced and now intensive work has begun on the second act.

Keith Hayes has been absent from school this week.

Daniel Wesley, who was absent for some time, is back in school again.

The boys and girls basketball teams went to Shedd Monday night and played a practice game with the students there. Both of the Halsey teams were defeated. The score for the girl's game was 29 to 3. The boys score was 12-18.

Monday was the beginning of the second semester of school. The high school is offering a course in economics this term.

Reine Alford has been absent from school several days on account of illness. She is able to be back again now.

Donald Neal is absent from school.

Mrs. Ganzle and Mrs. Rossman visited in the grades last week.

There are twelve students on the honor roll this six weeks. Those having "A" average are Nora Coldiron and Esther Seefeld, both seniors. Those with "B" averages are Mary Smith and Hope Hussey, seniors. Ruth Sturtevant, a junior, Herman Koontz, Bessie Reynolds and Gertrude Robins, sophomores and Ellsworth Gardner, Prentice Isom and Beverly Isom freshmen.

The student body held its regular meeting Wednesday. Carl Sperling, the president, resigned and Nora Coldiron was elected to take his place.

Esther Seefeld,
Assistant Reporter.

WORK OF INCORPORATING TELEPHONE LINES GOES ON

Final Steps to Be Taken As Soon As Stock is Sold

At the telephone meeting held last night in the city hall for the purpose of determining the number of shares and their denomination to be placed on the incorporation papers was finally left to the committee previously appointed to fix.

Several points of misunderstanding regarding the future development and policies, rates, ownership and a myriad of questions that can only be settled by the board of directors were brought to the attention of those present.

The delegates from the different rural lines were ready with definite reports from their constituents and no doubt many will join the corporation. These representatives showed a willingness to meet all questions brought up with absolute fairness that those in the city could not help but appreciate, and did.

The next general meeting will be at the call of the committee appointed by Chairman Zimmerman at the January 27th meeting.

Lloyd Sperling's auto was knocked from the highway by a car being towed, and was badly damaged by the impact. The accident happened last Saturday night.

McGraw Signs Hawaiian

The photograph shows William T. Lal, former University of Hawaii student who has been signed up by John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants. Lal, known as "Buck" has played baseball several years. He is thirty-two years old and will be tried out as third baseman.

IDLE ISLAND

By ETHEL HUESTON

It was a little spot for summer visitors on the Maine coast—a place of rest quite in keeping with its name—but into its quiet atmosphere entered, most unexpectedly, crime, mystery and adventure. Like all of this author's stories, this one has a heroine as charming as she is amusing.

Follow It as a Serial in
The Halsey Enterprise Soon

Rumpler's New Four-in-One Plane

Doctor Rumpler of Germany, renowned designer and builder of airplanes, and his latest model of a plane which will be built for transoceanic flights. This giant will be four planes in one, will have ten motors and a wing spread of 310 feet.