Becoming Costume for Outdoor Sport Events

A most becoming costume for sport events is this horizontally striped skirt with a Jersey sweater as worn by Alice White, First National player. A narrow belt is worn along with a felt hat of vagabond lines.

At noon a bounteous dinner was served, following which a business meeting was held and later a program was enjoyed. Mrs. F. H. McMeekin and daughter Helen were guests of the society.

Mrs. Scott Churchill was a delightful hostess of Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Look-Out club.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by a group of friends. The serving of refreshments brought the evening to a close.

Last evening the member of Vine Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft held their regular meeting, followed by an open meeting during which the officers for 1928 were installed by Anne A. Lake. Following the installation the following program was given: piano trio, Beverly Isom, Elta Bramwell and Retta Armstrong; duet, Donna Cross and Carl Isom, with Blanche Morris at the piano; recitation, "Flying Jim's Last Leap," Anne Lake; song, "Courtin' Peggy Jane," Elta Bramwell and Beverly Isom; dance, Fern Rossman.

The officers for this year are: Ada Corcoran, guardian neighbor; Louisa Taylor past guard; an neighbor; Clara LaFollette, adviser; Nellie Isom, clerk; Blanche Morris, banker; Ida Dykstra, magician; Mae Smith, attendant; Anne Lake, captain of guards; Delilah Miller, flag bearer; Ethyl Armstrong, inner sentinel; Maggie Bressler, outer sentinel; Donna Cross, musician; Harrison Lake, correspondent; Ella Rossman, Elizabeth J. White and Ellen Thomson, managers.

A short social period followed and then the visitors and members were invited to the dining room where supper awaited them. Lila Miller was chairman of the eats.

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of Lake Creek was the scene of a pretty wedding Sunday, when their daughter Hazel became the bride of Henry Kirk. The wedding took place at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, Rev. Roy Metcalf performing the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family. The impressive ring service was used.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kirk left on the Oregon Electric for Portland and other northern cities, on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will go to West Fir where Mr. Kirk is employed to make their home.

The bride who is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, wore a lovely dress of light peanut colored satin and carried an arm bouquet of pink flowers and ferns. Mrs. Kirk is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Davis of Albany, and Mrs. Gregg Carter of Halsey, and a niece of Mrs. Lyle Chance. Mrs. John Willbanks and William F. Carter of Halsey.

Friday afternoon Mrs. E. A. P. LaFollette entertained the members of the Past Noble Grand club at the home of Mrs. Elden Cross, Friday afternoon. During the early afternoon the regular business meeting was held and later fancy work and conversation made the hours pass most pleasantly. The afternoon was brought to a close by the hostess serving a delicious two course lunch at daintily appointed tables. Mrs. Jess Cross and Mrs. Elden Cross, both of whom were complimented guests, assisted the hostess in serving. Fifteen members were present. Master Wellington Bond was also a guest of the club.

Radio music was enjoyed during the afternoon.

Wednesday evening of last week the members of Purity Rebekah lodge of Halsey installed their new officers, with Nellie Isom, deputy district president, acting as installing officer. Following the installation a banquet was served in the dining room. A decorative scheme of pink and green, the lodge colors, was used.

The following officers were installed: Mary Patton N. G.; Sadie Gansle V. G.; Nora Coleman P. G.; Charity Clark chaplain; Nellie Isom warden; Esther Bond secretary.

One of the pleasant social affairs of the past week was the banquet Saturday evening given by the members of the "Go-Get'em" team of the Christian Endeavor society for the "Go-Get'em" team, in the basement of the Christian church. The tables were prettily decorated with tapers in colored holders and vases of roses. Games were the diversion of the evening following the banquet. Gladys Willbanks was in charge of the banquet and was assisted by Mary Smith, Georgina Clark and Muriel Lake.

About sixty were present for the banquet.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elden Cross entertained at a dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Warren and two daughters of Corvallis. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cross. Dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock. The beautifully appointed table was centered with a basket of flowers. During the evening radio music was enjoyed. Mr. Warren is a well known jeweler of Corvallis.

Aford—Several friends of Wilma Falk surprised her Friday evening, the affair being in honor of her sixteenth birthday. Games were played and late in the evening a lunch was served. Enjoying this pleasant evening were Vera Pullen, Velda, Alice and Delta Curtis, Blain and Bernard Brewer and Lois, Erma and Wilma Falk.
