

Wool of Library

AGRICULTURE
HORTICULTURE
LIVESTOCK

Halsey Enterprise

DAIRYING
WOOL, MOHAIR
POULTRY

Established in 1912. Vol. 16. No. 41.

Halsey, Oregon, Thursday February 16, 1928.

Devoted to the Interests of Halsey and Linn County

WOOL GROWERS ASSOCIATION LARGEST IN NORTH AMERICA

The Pacific Co-operative Wool Growers is the largest organization of its kind on the North American continent and handled over five million pounds of wool in 1927. The ninth annual meeting of the association was held in Portland a few days ago and elected E. A. McCornack of Eugene, president; James M. Davis of Pullman, Washington, vice president; S. D. Dorman of Ontario, Oregon, secretary-treasurer, R. A. Ward, manager, reported a gain of 646 new members during last year, and 156 since January 1st. Increased business is expected this year.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited By Wilma Wahl

Last Friday was Arbor Day and the school gave a program in the afternoon. It was opened by the singing of "America," by the school. Carl Sperling read a paper on the "Origin of Arbor Day." The third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades gave the "Alphabet of Trees." "How to make a Whistle," a reading by Kenneth Smith. "Criminal Treatment of Trees" Richard Hussey. "Talking in Their Sleep," Ellsworth Gardner. "Native Trees of Oregon," a theme by Nora Coldiron. The girls of Mrs. Coleman's room sang, "Made of Wood." "What Do We Plant?" by Russell Norton. "Age of Trees" by Kenneth Smith. "Value of National Forests" by Esther Seefeld. Song by the high school, "This Arbor Day." "Trees" a poem by Eloise Smith. "The Twig That Became a Tree," by Earl Elliott.

The school then passed out into the yard and Charles Wright and Ivan Smith planted a rose bush beside the school house. The program ended by the singing of "America, the Beautiful."

The Parent-Teachers association held its regular meeting at the school house Friday night. The following program was given.

"We're Tenting Tonight" song everyone.

Piano duet, Phyllis Holt and Linden Bramwell.

Three act play, "The Antidote."

Song, "Eenie, Meenie, Mule, Mo," by pupils from Mrs. Coleman's room.

Reading, Kenneth Workinger.

Song, "Fussy Old Maids from Lynn," Mary Smith, Hope Hussey and Beverly Isom.

Violin duet, Kenneth Smith and Walter Foote.

Reading, "The Village Blacksmith," from the Kirk school.

Dialog, "Stop-Go," Rene Alford and Frederick Robins.

Mrs. Kizer's room gave the assembly program last week. After

FIRST LADY

This new photograph of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge is one of the few profile views which she has approved and permitted to be given to the press.

Peoria News Items

(By an Enterprise Reporter)
W. G. Abraham attended the auto show in Portland last week.

Rev. Metcalf attended the revival meeting at Tangent Friday evening.

George Githens attended the community meeting at Riverside Saturday evening.

J. W. Lamar was a business visitor in Albany last week in the interest of Lamar & Lamar.

Mrs. Alice Barcus is not improving in health as fast as her many friends hoped she would.

Mrs. Will Apperson and son of The Dalles visited the former's mother, Mrs. Alice Barcus, last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Metcalf and daughter Lorraine and Mr. Mode were Corvallis visitors Monday afternoon. Mr. Mode went over to consult a physician in regard to his daughter's health.

Fred Walters of Eugene visited at Mrs. M. M. Fruit's home Sunday. While he was there the flue burned out causing flames to shoot out inside the house. With the assistance of neighbors everything was taken care of and no damage resulted, except a bad scare.

Friday afternoon Mrs. J. S. Lamar and Mrs. Fay Githens attended a special meeting of O. E. S. at Shedd, and in the evening another special meeting of the same order was held at which time Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lamar and George Githens were also present.

Tractor Demonstration

A demonstration of Fordson equipped with Hamilton transmission, will be made at the R. E. Bierly place, southeast of Halsey, next Tuesday, February 21.

Those interested in seeing high priced performance at lower cost are urged to attend. Douglas Motor Company, Harrisburg, Oregon.

Work On Telephone Lines Begun

This week saw the work of reconstruction of telephone lines within the city limits begun. The first work was the line carrying the heavy load of rural lines from the city limits to the central office and as soon as that is completed it is expected the other lines will receive attention.

The committee is moving the work along as rapidly as the weather will permit.

The program the high school student body held a meeting. The high school intends to give an "Apron and Necktie Social" to raise funds. The high school is also going to give a play to raise money to put in their community building contribution.

Several pupils of Mrs. Cross' room have been absent the last week. Marie Gormley has been absent all week and five others have been out for a day or two.

Mrs. Cross' room had charge of the assembly program this Wednesday. The first number was a Lincoln exercise, valentines by the room; poem by Kenneth Workinger. The last number was valentine play.

The seventh and eighth grades took the county tests last week and five pupils, Alice Sturtevant, Retta Armstrong, Ruth Tuttle, Gilbert Hayes and Lila Phelps made grades of 100 per cent.

The senior class play, "Ruth in a Rush," will be given at the city hall Friday night. A short sketch taken from it was given before the assembly Wednesday afternoon. The Halsey Orchestra will furnish music between acts.

Esther Seefeld,
Assistant Reporter.

Not Functioning Right

HALSEY AND VICINITY BREVITIES

Elliott McWilliams of Portland spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McWilliams of Halsey.

Miss Adah Nelson of the Halsey high school left Friday evening for Portland on a visit to her parents. She returned to Halsey Sunday.

Mrs. B. M. Bond recently celebrated her birthday and among the many gifts she received was an electric Crossley radio.

The members of the Halsey orchestra went to Shedd Wednesday evening of last week and played for the program for the Priscilla club, Beverly Isom and Elta Bramwell also took part.

Milo Taylor, editor of the Brownsville Times, and H. F. Lake of the Halsey Enterprise, spent Friday in Eugene where they attended part of the sessions of the editorial conference.

Mrs. W. H. Wheeler celebrated her birthday Monday of last week, and to help her celebrate, her son, Ole Kayser, and his wife of Silverton drove over and took her to Cottage Grove on a pleasure trip. They returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Steinke and sons Lloyd and Charles and Thomas Judson of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Roberts and daughter Lucille of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Elliott and sons were dinner guests at the P. J. Forster home Sunday.

Friends of Mrs. Ellen Gulliford a former well known resident of Halsey, received word this week of her death at Prineville last Saturday after an illness of just a week as the result of a stroke of paralysis. When a resident of this city she lived on what is now the John Porter place. She was a member of the Methodist church.

Mrs. M. M. Ward who has been visiting in Albany at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. Foman, fell on the floor Wednesday and sustained several severe bruises but it is believed no bones were broken.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Mooly and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Dana Rossman and Fern were dinner guests last Sunday at the Harold Muller home.

WANTED—An old hay carrier with four good wheels and frame, for iron track, Halsey Garage

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Tuesday evening the members of the Past Noble Grand club gave their second annual dinner with the families of the members as the honor guests. For this pleasant affair the L.O.O.F. hall was used. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock in the dining room which was prettily decorated with big red valentines. Fifty-six people were present for the dinner.

During the social time which followed the following program was given: piano duet, Georgina Clark and Herman Koontz; dialog, "Stop Go," Rene Alford and Frederick Robins; piano duet, Donald and Lindon Bramwell; reading, "Biddie's Troubles," Mrs. E. D. Isom; duet, "An Umbrella built for Two" Elta Bramwell and Beverly Isom; recitation, "It Pays to Advertise," Wellington Bond; piano solo, "Silent Night," Gertrude Robins; recitation, "The Answer," Coralea Moody; reading, The Boy with the hole in his pants," Mrs. Coleman; song, "Chester" Roberta Bramwell; saxophone duet, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Bond.

The playing of games completed the pleasant evening.

(Continued on page 8)

Fayetteville Items

(By Special Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Eichelberger and sons moved to their new home in Salem Tuesday.

H. F. Couey sold a registered Jersey calf to R. A. Marsh of Albany Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lehn and daughters of Newport are visiting Mr. Lehn's sister, Mrs. O. H. Froman.

Miss Dale McKinley of Eugene made a short visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McKinley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Shelby and daughter, Ruth and Mrs. Shelby's mother, Mrs. Ada Buchanan of Knox Butte, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman have returned from their trip to California and did not find a location there that suited them but bought a meat market in Salem and moved their household goods to their new home Wednesday.

Wednesday evening at the M. E. church the Priscilla club gave a program and supper. A short play was rendered entitled "Station Y. Y. Y." Other numbers on the program were readings by Miss Meda Brown, Veva Fay Couey and Lois Jean Moore and music by the Halsey Orchestra.

"Prohibition" was the subject of the lesson given at the silver tea by the members of the W. C. T. U. at their regular monthly meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. G. Pugh. Mrs. J. C. Brown gave the scripture reading, giving out a number of references to be read. Mrs. Pugh served refreshments consisting of chicken salad, hot buns and butter, wafers, tea and coffee. This union has pledged five trees for the Childrens Home Farm orchard.

Halsey Alphabetically

Abe's Place boasts of being in every way; one of the modern barber shops of today.
Bramwell, postmaster of our little town, sees that our mail gets distributed around.
Clark's Confectionery serves young and old, ice cream when it's hot and candy when it's cold.
Down off Second street away and First, too, Hoffman's up to date meat market awaits you.
Eldon Cross, most nimble and quick of mind, is the best book keeper that Orin can find.
Frum's yellow warehouse, by the railroad track, has hay and grain service that's never slack.
Gormley will buy your eggs, your cream, your veal and he is sure to see you'll get a square deal.
Hill's Hardware has a very busy crew that'll sell you even "gas" or repair your shoes.
If your horse or wagon needs attention, Salash will serve in his shop of ample dimension.
Jack Corcoran's work in cement or brick, in terms of vulgar slang is simply just "click."
Koontz and company throughout the years have been patient with the customer's arrears.
Lawyer Tussing works nearly day and night to keep the peoples' affairs all straightened right.
Morris' Pharmacy has won its success through Buford's joviality, should we all confess.
No hungry feeling can long withstand the fine cooking of Mrs. Reynolds' special brand.
On knowing automobiles and their parts Gansle's a man after any one's heart.
Prof. Patton agrees education's fine repeats "As the twig is bent the tree's inclined."
Quite quaint is Pearl's sgate shop

GUN CLUB SHOOT SUNDAY WILL BE INTERESTING ONE

Next Sunday the Halsey Gun Club holds its third tournament since its organization some three months ago. Several members of the club are showing remarkable cleverness at the traps and the tournament Sunday promises some surprises.

The event in which the contestants compete for places on the Oregonian Telegraphic will be the exciting one of the day.

Mrs. Sophia Thompson Dies.

Mrs. Sophia Thompson, a Shedd resident for many years, passed away at her home February 10 after a very short illness, at the age of 74 years.

She is survived by four sons, John of Los Angeles, California; Henry of Chicago, Illinois; Otto of Shedd, Oregon and Charles of Portland, Oregon; one sister, Mrs. Dora Burmeister, one brother Henry Schultz, thirteen grandchildren and two great-grand children and many other relatives.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church at Shedd February 12, Rev. Hart officiating. The pallbearers were W. W. Poland, Ed Zimmerman, John Duncan, Robt Arnold, Will Porter and Peter Freerksen.

Mrs. Thompson was a member of the Oak Plain Grange.

Mrs. Hal Howard of Albany was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Sickels, Friday and Saturday.

Frank Belle, formerly of Corvallis, now an electrical engineer in Chili, and who is now on his summer vacation, was a guest at the George Starr home last Wednesday.

Sunday visitors at the John Wilbanks home were Mr. and Mrs. Theo Heflich and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Davis of Albany.

and I know you'll not find another anywhere you go.

Rossman attends to mortuary work and usually is most delightfully pleasing.

Skirvin's business on a firm basis run, makes his warehouse for him reap a tidy sum.

Taylor, the head of the bank is always there to see for certain you are treated fair.

Usually Dr. Marks is ready to answer soon any call sent to him by you.

Voices steady on the phone daily keeps Mrs. Leeper from catching any napping sleep.

Workinger with Rusty's aid manages so the Halsey Garage work does not overflow.

Xanthic and red is the indication of Burbank's public service station Zippers by Sturtevant store are sold to ward off pneumonia, such illness and colds.

—Contributed.

Wins Skating Matches

The photograph shows Irving Jaffee of New York, who won the 1,500-meter and 2-mile races at Oslo, Norway, in the international skating matches. Jaffee did the 1,500-meter course in 2 minutes 27 second, and the 2-mile in 5 minutes 52.3 seconds. He is a member of the American Olympic team which will go to St. Moritz.

Memory of Cheesemaker Is Honored

Farmers and dairymen of Wisconsin have honored the memory of Henry Krumrey, cheesemaker and dairyman of Sheboygan county, founder and long president of the Wisconsin Cheese Producers' association, and who launched the co-operative cheese marketing movement in the Badger state. The bronze tablet on a granite bowl, shown above, has been dedicated at Plymouth, Wis., and another like it was placed on the campus of the University of Wisconsin.