SOCIETY NEWS

Over 60 people assembled in the city hall Friday evening to enjoy the leap year valentine party given by the younger people. The hall was attractively decorated in an appropriate manner for St. Valentine. Red streamers gracefully draped from an enormous red crepe paper heart made a pretty background for the photographs at the front. Streamers of red and white were serpentine from the ceiling underneath which were cleverly dangling hearts and a mass of colored confetti ribbons hanging nearly to the floor. Cupids encountered in flaming hearts relieved the bareness of the walls. Dancing was one of the diversions of the evening. At a late hour refreshments were served by Miss Georgina Clark, George Cross and Frank Koontz.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Jesse Cross, Miss Gladys McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. Buford Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Rossman, Clyde Koontz, and Mrs. B. M. Bond.

PEORIA

Mrs. Harry Springer delightfully entertained the Potter sewing club Wednesday afternoon. A good number were present. Fancy work and contests were the features of the afternoon at the close of which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Vera Springer, served delicious refreshments.

The women's missionary society met for their regular business meeting with Mrs. Alice Dunn. After an interesting business session, the hostess served a delicious lunch. She was assisted by Mrs. McLaren.

was very pleasantly surprised when a number of her friends came in to help her celebrate her birthday. Her daughter, Mrs. Mary Porter, came from Shedd, bringing some friends with her and also the birthday supper. Mrs. Dunn was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and after some time spent in admiring the presents, the guests were invited into the dining room where they found places at a beautifully decorated table. A large birthday cake with lighted candles formed the centerpiece while valentines and tall lighted tapers added to the beauty of the table. Mrs. Dale Forbes assisted Mrs. Porter with the serving. After a delightful hour spent around the table the guests departed wishing Mrs. Dunn many more happy birthdays.

LAKE CREEK

On Wednesday afternoon a number of the ladies gathered at the church where a miscellaneous stover was tendered Mrs. Mel-calf. Delicious home-made candy was served.

SPOON RIVER

Two surprise parties were given Thursday evening, one for the pleasure of Ava Falk, and the other for Charlie Bierly. Friends and relatives met at the two homes and the evening was spent pleasantly in playing games and in conversation.

The La France sewing club held their meeting at the A. L. Falk home Saturday afternoon, with Mayne Falk as hostess. After the business meeting a social time was enjoyed and the hostess, assisted by Pearl Falk, served delicious refreshments.

The next meeting of the club will be at the C. L. Falk sr., home, with Ava Falk as hostess.

During the past ten days the rehearsals for the senior class play have held the center of attraction for those taking part. The play will be given at the city hall Friday evening. A large attendance is promised.

In Halsey, your town, there are numerous Stores and Shops that are there for a purpose, for their own good and to serve you at all times. They support your institutions. They work for your welfare in general. And in some cases you use them only as an emergency station. Your Neighborhood Drug Store is here to serve you at any time and at all times, is interested in you and the future of our community. Has the city drug store any interest in the Future Welfare of our Community?

DOG OWNERS NOTICE.

Licenses are now due on dogs in Linn County and have been due ever since January 1st and will become delinquent on and after March 2nd. The license fees are $1.00 for male and spayed female dogs and $2.00 on female dogs not spayed if paid on or before March 1st, and double the above amounts after the 1st day of March.

During previous years the Court has encountered difficulty in securing persons to collect delinquent dog license but to date five applications are on file for this job, so the county will be amply equipped for delinquent dog tax collectors and will proceed with the enforcement of the law and the collection of these delinquent licenses immediately after the first day of March, 1928.

Licenses are secured from the County Clerk by forwarding the required fee and stating the kind of a dog the license is for. R. M. Payne, Judge.
