SOCIETY NOTES

Falk, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Falk and Mrs. Elliott and family.

Wednesday evening of last week the members of Vine Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held their regular meeting with the recently installed officers presiding. One new member was taken in by initiation and other names balloted on. Following the business session a social time was enjoyed, the members who had been joined by several visitors, going to the dining room where white brick ice cream, with a red heart in the center of each slice, and wafers were served. About 40 were present.

Superintendent and Mrs. L. W. Patton entertained a group of friends at a valentine party Tuesday evening of last week. The rooms were prettily decorated with cupids and hearts in keeping with the valentine season. Games, interspersed with radio music made the hours pass all too quickly and the serving of delicious refreshments by the hostess brought the pleasant evening to a close. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cross, the Misses Cleona Smith, Alberta Koontz and Gladys McCornack, and Carl Hill, James McWilliams and Martin Koontz.

The members of Purity Rebekah lodge held their regular meeting last evening at which time those belonging to Arrow Rebekah lodge at Shedd affiliated with them, the meetings to be held in Halsey. At 6:30 a covered dish supper was served in the banquet room for the members and their families. This was followed by a program with the following numbers: America by all; piano duet, Georgina Clark and Nora Coldiron; reading, Mrs. Nora Coleman; vocal duet, Donna Cross and Alberta Koontz; reading, Mrs. Nellie Isom; piano solo, Beverly Isom; reading, Mrs. Arnold of Shedd, George Washington skit by a group of school children.

Tuesday evening the members of the glee club formed a theater party at the showing of the "Cohens and the Kellys" at the city hall. Later the group went to the school house where they played games and also enjoyed a lunch. Members of the orchestra playing for the operetta, "Patricia," were complimented guests.

The scholars and patrons of the Oak Plain school enjoyed a basket social and program recently, at which the sale of baskets netted $15 for the school. D. S. McWilliams acted as auctioneer, and was exceedingly clever at this work. The school room was prettily decorated with pussy willows and ferns.

A splendid program had been arranged by Miss Melva Hadley, teacher of the school, and was composed of the welcome address by Maxine Frum; song by the school; reading; song by five boys; recitation, Eunice Pugh; dialog; song, Eunice Pugh and Maxine Frum; recitation Leonard Pugh; dialog by the little folks; song, the upper grades; recitation, Eloize Smith, (Halsey); recitation, Merrill Snodgrass; song, little folks; trio; dialog upper grades; recitation, Lynn Frum.

FAYETTEVILLE

Twenty-one members of the Priscilla club met at the home of Mrs. R. C. McCormick Friday afternoon for the regular meeting of the club. A social hour followed the business session and was brought to a close by the hostess serving delicious refreshments.

Mrs. William Hobbs and Mrs. Harold Couey were charming hostesses Thursday afternoon when they entertained at the home of the latter, in honor of Billy Hobbs and Elinor Annette Couey's sixth birthday. Two birthday cakes formed the center piece for the attractively appointed dinner table. Billy's was a sunshine cake decorated with six yellow candles, and Elinor's an angel food, on which were six pink candles. Dainty valentine place cards marked the places for the following guests: Virginia Grace Hobbs, Barbara Jean Hobbs, Veva

DOG OWNERS NOTICE.

Licenses are now due on dogs in Linn County and have been due ever since January 1st and will become delinquent on and after March 2nd. The license fees are $1.00 for male and spayed female dogs and $2.00 on female dogs not spayed if paid on or before March 1st, and double the above amounts after the 1st day of March.

During previous years the Court has encountered difficulty in securing persons to collect delinquent dog license but to date five applications are on file for this job, so the county will be amply equipped for delinquent dog tax collectors and will proceed with the enforcement of the law and the collection of these delinquent licenses immediately after the first day of March, 1928.

Licenses are secured from the County Clerk by forwarding the required fee and stating the kind of a dog the license is for. B. M. Payne, Judge.
