SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Friday afternoon of last week Mrs. B. M. Bond extended the hospitality of her home to the members of the Past Noble Grand club. During the business meeting Mrs. Nora Coleman was initiated into the club. This part of the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Bert Clark, Mrs. C. P. Moody and Mrs. C. H. Koontz and they were assisted by Mrs. E. D. Isom and Mrs. Bond and was the cause of much laughter. The members plan a cooked food, apron and handkerchief sale the Saturday before Easter.

The guests were then invited to the dining room where clever little George Washington place card-marked their plates at one large table and three smaller ones. The larger table was centered with an ornamental centerpiece, while at either end was a lighted red taper. Small vases filled with flowers centered the smaller tables. The sentiment of the anniversary of Washington's birth was further carried out with red paper hatchets which were scattered over the tables and the reading of sayings of Washington by those present.

Complimented guests were Mrs. George Drinkard and Miss Fannie Kimberly of Brownsville and Mrs. Mildred McMahan, Mrs. A. A. Tussing and Mrs. L. W. Patton of Halsey. Fifteen club members were present.

Last Friday evening the members of the Christian Endeavor society held their monthly business meeting in the church parlors, with a social time following. Games were played until a late hour when a lunch was served. Vida Albertson was chairman of the refreshment committee. About forty young people were present for this pleasant evening.

A country fair was held at the Rowland school Friday evening. The scholars had prepared a good program, and candy, pop corn, hot dogs, sandwiches and lemonade was sold. A beauty parlor was another feature of the fair and everyone visiting it, if not made beautiful, was at least greatly changed.

COUNTRY CLUB OUTFIT

The sweater and skirt outfit shown above is typical of what the smart women will wear at country clubs. The blouse is of gray angora jersey trimmed with stripes in three shades of red. The skirt is black and the scarf is of a darker shade of gray fringed at the end. It is worn by Dorothy Sebastian in "Wyoming."

The fair was given to raise money to buy picture slides for the school and $47.70 was taken in.

A large number of members of the Epworth League, as well as a number of their friends, enjoyed the social time which followed the regular business meeting of the society on Wednesday evening of last week. The party was held in the church parlors and after several hours spent in playing games refreshments were served.

Monday evening several of the members of Muriel Lake's Sunday school class met at her home and spent the evening. A study period was followed by a social time with phonograph music and conversation as the diversions. Light refreshments were served, each girl furnishing one thing for the lunch. Those present were Ruth Tuttle, Elta Bramwell, Dorothy Corcoran and Beverly Isom.

On the evening of February 18, the members of the Charity juvenile grange held a party, with their master, Mrs. Harold Kizer, and Mrs. Byrd Waggoner as hostesses. Eighteen juveniles and ten older people, relatives of the youngsters, were present. Games were the diversion of the evening which was brought to a close by the serving of sandwiches, cake and punch. Red paper hearts formed an appropriate decoration in keeping with the valentine season.

Parent-Teachers to Meet March 8

The parent-teacher meeting has been changed from Friday evening, March 9, to Thursday evening, March 8. This was done because some who were taking part on the program are also on the program at Pine Grove Friday evening.

A good program has been arranged and is in part as follows: "Wait a Minute," B. M. Bond and E. D. Isom; skit by Mrs. Bond and Mrs. Patton; song, "Three old Maids," Hope Hussey, Beverly Isom, Mary Smith; piano duet, Georgina Clark and Hope Hussey. There will also be numbers by the pupils of Mrs. Crots' and Mrs. Coleman's rooms.
