All Right With Her

In the campaign to obtain the 1928 Republican national convention for Kansas City this year, Arthur Hardgrave, president of the chamber of commerce, sent messages to members of the National Republican committee, asking suggestions.

Through an error one was sent to Mrs. Frances G. Farley of Wichita, Democratic committeewoman for Kansas.

This was her reply:

"Acknowledging receipt of your wire of the 24th. Respectfully advise that it will be all right with me if the Republican party fails to hold a national convention this year."—Kansas City Star.

Small Wonder Charge Made Her Indignant

Mayor Thompson of Chicago, congratulated on the 65 per cent crime reduction that he effected in three months, laughed and answered:

"Why, boy, it's enough to make us all as conceited as the film star, isn't it?"

"A millionaire, you know, married a film star, and he found he could never drag her away from the looking glass. There she'd sit, hour after hour, day after day, looking at herself. 'Gosh,' he said one night, 'stop looking at yourself, for goodness' sake. If I was as conceited as you are I'd—'"

"But the film star interrupted him. 'I'm not conceited!' she shrieked. 'Me conceited! Why, I don't think I'm half as beautiful as I really am.'"

"First Aid—Home Remedy Week" Coming

The National Association of Retail Druggists is urging greater advertising publicity for "First Aid—Home Remedy Week," fixed for March 18-24. This "sales baby," dedicated to the druggists of America by Sterling Products (Incorporated) is seven years old this month. It has scored six successive triumphs, and Secretary Samuel C. Henry, in urging the general adoption of the national slogan, "Fill That Medicine Chest Now," says: "Unpreparedness is seldom, if ever, due to willful neglect, but generally attributable to thoughtlessness or lack of foresight."

With the aid of "Little Johnny Advertising," the sponsors of this national merchandising campaign, which is really a drive against needless suffering, hope to induce householders to be better able to cope with sudden illness and unforeseen accident.

New Jail

Ralph Clark, age six, accompanied his father to Indianapolis recently. They entered the city on Road 31 and were driving along the canal toward Meridian street.

The steel frame of one of the new buildings at Fairview attracted Ralph's attention and he said to his father: "Look, daddy! I guess they are building a new jail. It takes a big one for Indianapolis, don't it, dad?"—Indianapolis News.

No Such Combination

"I want a servant girl who is honest, sober, industrious, and neat."

"Then, madam, you had better take four."

Less and Less

Mrs. Christine Frederick of New York, author of the epigram, "The woman of today is no longer a cook, she's a can-opener," was talking about modern fashions.

"We older people complain about them," she said, "and yet we have less and less to complain about every year. Where it's going to stop—"

Mrs. Frederick shrugged, then she continued:

"A young girl went into her mother's bedroom the other evening and growled:

"I'm dining downtown tonight, and I can't find my new dinner gown anywhere."

"Look again, dear," her mother said. "Maybe you've got it on."

Jokes are like nuts—the drier they are the better they crack.
