

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Last evening the members of Vine Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft held their regular meeting with all officers but three present. One new member was taken into the order and three more names balloted upon. Since last October ten new members have been added to the roll call of Vine Maple and it is hoped to add many more within the next two months. Plans are under way for the organization of a juvenile circle also. The members are organizing a needlecraft club, the first meeting to be held Friday, April 6, at the home of Mrs. Fayette Lake. Officers will be elected and committees appointed at that time.

During the social hour last evening a covered dish supper was served in dining room. Vases filled with golden daffodils made a lovely decoration for the tables. Forty were present.

The birthday of Mrs. Buford Morris, last Monday, was the motive for a group of her friends to meet at her home that evening.

Good Goods

The affair was planned as a surprise. Cards were a pleasing diversion until a late hour when a delicious lunch was served. Enjoying this pleasant evening were Mr. and Mrs. Dana Rossman and Fern, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Moody and Cedric and Coralea, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hamer and Waneta and Jimmie, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. Curtis Veatch was a pleasing hostess of last Thursday when she entertained the members of the Study club. The decorations were carried out in yellow. The lesson topic was given by Mrs. Hamer. Roll call was responded to by each one giving their idea of the best use of a can of paint. Lunch was served at small tables, each one being centered with a bowl of daffodils. Those present were Mesdames Hamer, Moody, Patton, M. Cummings, E. E. Evans, Morris, Laubner, Wells and Veatch.

FINE GROVE

Mrs. L. E. Eagy entertained the Krowledeen club members at her home Wednesday afternoon. The time was passed in sewing and visiting, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Floyd Nichols, served a dainty lunch. Mrs. Fay Gibbons and Mrs. Pauline McLaren were taken into the club as members at this time.
