M. V. KOONTZ COMPANY

Potter sewing club Wednesday afternoon. The hours were pleasantly spent with fancy work and contests by the members, while the little tots who accompanied their mothers, enjoyed a birthday party given for the pleasure of little Doris Mae Workinger by the hostess. During the social hour the children enjoyed a birthday dinner. They were seated at a prettily appointed table on which a cake with six lighted candles formed the centerpiece. Mrs. Freerksen also served a delicious lunch to her older guests. Her daughter, Mrs. Francis Powers of Albany, and her niece, assisted in serving
