SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents
Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. A. Muller was a charming hostess to the members of the Thursday Study club. The rooms were decorated in keeping with the St. Patrick season, with shamrock predominating. The bright green of the shamrock also made a pleasing decoration for the luncheon table. Mrs. C. E. Evans was in charge of the lesson for the afternoon.
The club members present were Meslames C. P. Moody, Drinkard,

Woodard, Evans, Bond, Veatch, McMahan, H. Muller, Rossman, Wells, Laubner and the hostess Mrs. Peter Freenken was a complimented guest.

At the last meeting of Purity Rebekah lodge a style show was put on by the entertainment committee, with Ball Bond and Minnie Cross dressed as school children, Esther Bond represented an Irish man, Mary Patton wore the latest in bathing suits, Gladys Willbanks wore a stunning evening costume, Nellie Isom a bicycle suit and Donna Cross was charming in an old fashioned costume. Addie Moody as a bride and Mary Koontz as the groom, made a hit. Nora Coleman was announcer. After the show punch and wafers were served. A number of visitors were present.

LAKE CREEK

On Friday evening Mrs. Thomas Ardry extended the hospitality of her home to the members of the Epworth League. A short business session was held after which Miss Dorthea Hathaway gave a reading, "Pat's Confederate Pig," and Miss Jennie Nicewood read a "Lesson in Arithmetic." Games, contest and stunts, each in keeping with St. Patrick's day, were enjoyed. The hostess and Miss Williams, assisted by the "eats" committee served appropriate refreshments to the thirty guests present.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cummings and Russel and Lucile Herndon drove to Corvallis to help celebrate the seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Annie Jones, whose seven sons and daughters with their families were present for the occasion.

Mrs. Jones was born on St. Patrick Day and each year the birthday cake is decorated with hats, pipes and shamrocks. Mrs. Jones is Mrs. Cummings' mother.

PINE GROVE

Give Them Iron Food

A correspondent of a farm exchange answering as to what can be done for a 12-year old orchard that does not bear fruit, says: "Your land has no iron in it. Dig around your trees and plant old rusty iron nails and all sorts of broken iron. Drive a few rusty nails into the trunks of the trees this spring close to the ground and see the result."
