SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Saturday evening a group of the younger people gave a dance at the city hall. The decorations were carried out in a color scheme of orange and green, crepe paper and daffodils being used. Music for dancing was furnished by a Columbia phonograph. Ice cream and wafers were served after the dance. About thirty young people enjoyed the evening.

Lake Creek—The women's missionary society of the Methodist church of Peoria met at the home of Mrs. Martin Cummings Thursday afternoon. "Christ of the Indian Road" is being studied by the class and an interesting study hour was enjoyed after which a pleasant social time was had during which the hostess assisted by Mrs. Thomas Ardry, served delicious refreshments.

Peoria—Mrs. J. W. Lamar was a charming hostess of Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Potter sewing club. Following the business session the time was spent with contests and the giving of the Pollyanna gifts. Names were also drawn for their new Pollyannas.

The afternoon was brought to a close by the hostess serving a dainty lunch. She was assisted by Mrs. Lillian Frady and Mrs. Dale Lamar.

Complimented guests were Mrs. Alice Dunn, Mrs. Lillian Frady and Agnes Chandler of Peoria, Mrs. Charlie Pugh of Shedd and Mrs. Dale Lamar of Corvallis.

SERVICE in MEN'S WEAR

MASOR-BROOKE

FOR more than 50 years this firm has served the men's wear trade of these several counties, but this fact alone would not have built up the great volume of business and the large friendship we enjoy, were it not for the fact that we have always kept abreast of the times in style, values and service. Old customers have stayed by us through all the years, and new ones have come to us with a confidence that has never, and shall never be betrayed. If you have not already done so, we invite you to participate in this "Service in Men's Wear."
